Introduction:

AB 48 reestablishes, after a two and one half year absence, regulation of private postsecondary educational institutions in California. Previously, the Bureau for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education regulated these institutions. However, the law authorizing the existence of that entity and every statute and regulation related to ensuring the sound operation of these institutions, including all student protections, became inoperative on July 1, 2007, and was repealed as of January 1, 2008.

The Legislature specifically incorporated a requirement, in Section 94803 of the Education Code, that the Bureau adopt emergency regulations to amend or repeal, as necessary, the regulations of the former Bureau for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education located in Division 7.5 (commencing with Section 70000) of Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations to conform to Chapter 8.5 (commencing with Section 94800) of Part 59 of Division 10 of Title 3 of the Education Code no later than February 1, 2010. The regulatory language was approved by the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) as an emergency regulatory action predicated on Sections 11346.1 and 11349.6 of the Government Code on February 1, 2010, and will expire on August 1, 2010, unless extended or superseded by formally-adopted regulations.

Presently, it is estimated that approximately 400,000 students are enrolled at the various private postsecondary institutions within California. Fees paid by these students are estimated to total over 4.5 billion dollars of private and public funds in order to benefit from the educational programs offered by these institutions. The sources of funds include personal funds from the students and their families, private loans issued by private lending institutions, loans guaranteed by the state and federal governments, grants issued by the state and federal governments, including rehabilitation grants and veterans grants, private employers paying for employees' education, and numerous other sources, including loans directly from the institutions to the enrolled students. While the legislation adopted in AB 48 provides a framework for protecting this multi-billion dollar investment in these students' education, without these regulations the specific details of what is required and what is and is not permitted will remain undefined, allowing for some institutions to place these significant funds at risk by failing to provide the services and quality of education that the institutions promise prospective students.

California, along with the rest of the United States, is seeing harsh economic times unprecedented since the Great Depression of the early twentieth century. As a result, unemployment levels are at near record and record levels and are anticipated to remain at these high levels for several years to come. As industry recovers, as has occurred in the past during difficult economic times, employees will require training in new specialties, job fields, and professions. Laid off employees from traditional employers will need training in “green” employers specialties. With the passage of a national health care plan, the health care industry will see an increased number of patients and as a result, an increase in the number of trained medical lay and medical paraprofessionals will be needed. As a result, it is anticipated that a significant number of people will become postsecondary education students.

Without adoption of these regulations, these schools will have little guidance in interpreting and applying the new requirements of AB 48, which was passed in order to protect students and their and the public’s investment of $4.5 billion annually in these institutions.

Consequently, while institutions that had obtained approval to operate prior to the elimination of the prior regulatory agency and institutions that have opened subsequent to the repeal of the prior Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education Reform Act of 1989 are provided limited term approvals to continue operating under AB 48, new institutions may not commence operations until an approval to operate has been granted by the new Bureau. New approvals cannot be issued without a procedure for approving them, as well as the existence of minimum operating standards, as required by Education Code Section 94885, because in order to apply, institutions must demonstrate compliance with the minimum operating standards, as required by Section 94887. Furthermore, without the adoption of these regulations, new institutions seeking to apply for approval to operate cannot even begin to compile their applications, because applications compliant with the requirements of AB 48 and the Administrative Procedure Act will not exist.

In addition, because of requirements in AB 48 pertaining to the new mandatory enrollment agreement and accompanying documents, existing institutions that are permitted temporarily to operate before obtaining a new approval under AB 48 cannot enroll new students without these regulations. Nor can existing institutions make changes to their program without complying with the necessary requirements for notification to students and the Bureau, because the necessary requirements will not exist without these regulations. For institutions who had previously obtained approvals to operate and that made changes to their offerings subsequent to the repeal of the prior Act, in order to comply with the terms of their existing approval, may be required to discontinue offering programs or offering them at certain locations. Only with the adoption of these regulations addressing the notification and application process can these institutions continue to operate as they have since July 1, 2007.

The majority of the institutions that will be subject to regulation were regulated by the former Bureau for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education, and are therefore familiar with the scope of these regulations, and the impact upon them will not be unduly burdensome. The benefit to the public, however, is great and necessary.

Specific Purpose of each adoption, amendment, or repeal:

Amend section 70000 (Definitions) – AB 48 reestablishes the regulation of California private postsecondary educational institutions in accordance with the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009. Therefore, the amendments to this section are necessary to define terms used in the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

For ease of reading and to make this section consistent with the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009, former section 71000 (Definitions) was repealed, and its provisions were incorporated into this amended section. Former section 72000 (Definitions) was repealed because it was duplicative of former repealed section 71000.

Amend section 70010 (Application of Division) – This section specifies to whom this division shall apply.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

The authority and reference sections were updated to make this section consistent with the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009.

Amend section 70020 (Principal Office of the Bureau) – This section updates the principal office location for communications with the Bureau.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

The California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009 established the Bureau, and the Council no longer exists. In addition, the former contents of this section did not include an address for communications with the former Council. Therefore, to make this section consistent with the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009, “Council” was stricken, and the Bureau’s physical and mailing addresses were added to this amended section.

Repeal section 70030 (Delegation of Functions to Director) – This section is now obsolete predicated on the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

The power and duties of the Bureau are set forth in Chapter 8, Article 5, commencing with section 94875 (Empowerment of Bureau) of the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009. Therefore, this section is redundant.

Adopt section 70030 (Pending Applications; Fees) – This section is necessary for the Bureau to address applications for approval to operate that were pending when the former Bureau was sunset and fees that were submitted with the applications.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

Institutions that had applications for an approval to operate pending on June 30, 2007, are not required to submit a new application to the Bureau if the pending application satisfies the requirements of the new application. However, this adopted section clarifies that a fee is required for an approval to operate pursuant to the fee schedule contained within Education Code section 94930.5(a).

Adopt section 70040 (Disclosures Regarding Prior Approvals and Pending Applications) -

This section requires certain disclosures by an institution that had an application to renew its approval to operate pending with the former Bureau at the time of the Bureau’s sunset.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

In the interest of consumer protection and to provide regulatory consistency, it is necessary that all institutions make the same disclosures and in the same manner.

Repeal section 71000 (Definitions) – The provisions of this section are incorporated into section 70000 (Definitions).

Factual Basis/Rationale:

For ease of reading and to make this section consistent with the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009, former section 71000 (Definitions) was repealed, and its provisions were incorporated into section 70000 (Definitions).

Repeal section 71005 (Requirements for a Course of Study) – The provisions of this former section are incorporated into section 71710 (Educational Program).

Factual Basis/Rationale:

For clarity and ease of reading, the provisions concerning a “course of study” were organized into the description of an educational program, as provided for in section 71710.

Repeal section 71010 (Applicability of Chapter) – This former section is obsolete predicated on the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

The new law does not include a Council, and the provisions of the former law are no longer effective. Therefore, this former section has no regulatory basis.

Repeal section 71020 (Vocational Diploma Programs Offered By Degree Granting Institutions) – This section is obsolete predicated on the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

The new law does not make a distinction between degree and non-degree educational programs. Therefore, this former section has no regulatory basis.

Amend section 71100 (Application Form) - This section addresses the required form of an application for approval to operate by a non-accredited institution.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

Because applications were pending approval during the sunset period, it was necessary to clarify that an application must include all required information and the annual fee for such institutions.

Amend section 71110 (Institution’s Name, Address, Telephone Number of Primary Administrative Office) – This section specifies what contact information the Bureau needs in an application.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

Because most educational institutions have a website address, the Bureau needs that information included on the application. In addition, the social security number or federal employer identification number for each non-corporate person identified in the application was added because the Business and Professions Code requires this information.

Amend section 71120 (Form of Business Organization) – This section specifies what information the Bureau needs to determine an institution’s form of business organization.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

“Limited Liability Corporation” is added to this section and copies of articles of incorporation and bylaws are required to accompany an application to assist the Bureau in determining an institution’s business structure to conform to the prior practices of the Bureau.

Amend section 71130 (Institution Ownership and Control; Violation of Law) – This section specifies what information is needed to ensure that the Bureau has complete and accurate information concerning an educational institution’s ownership and of those who exercise control over such institutions.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

Educational institutions are now required to include an email address of each person who owns or controls 25% or more of stock in the institution. The definition of “owner” or “person in control” is amended to comply with section 94885 of the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009.

Conviction information is needed by the Bureau to establish the soundness of an institution and to ensure that the directors meet minimum standards.

Provisions were added to allow the Bureau to collect personal information, so the Bureau could locate each person who has at least a 25% ownership or controlling interest in the institution and to ensure that the institution meets minimum operating standards.

Adopt section 71135 (Agent for Service of Process) – This section makes specific what information is needed in an application concerning an institution’s agent for service of process.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

It is necessary for the Bureau to effectuate service on an educational institution for enforcement purposes in accordance with section 94943.5 of the Education Code, which requires an agent for service of process within this state.

Language from section 74190 (Agents for Services of Process; Changes) was incorporated into this section to allow the Bureau to collect specific information on the application and for ease of reading.

Amend section 71140 (Organization and Management) – The amendment does not alter any requirement, right, responsibility, condition, prescription or other regulatory element of any California Code of Regulations provision. (See CCR, Title 1, section 100 (a)(5).)

Factual Basis/Rationale:

The authority and reference sections were updated to make this section consistent with the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009.

Amend section 71150 (Governing Board) – This section specifies what information the Bureau needs in an application concerning an institution’s governing board.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

Because most educational institutions have a website and use email as a form of communication, it is necessary to have the email address of each governing board member in an application for communication purposes.

Amend section 71160 (Institution Representative) – This section specifies what information is needed by the Bureau to correspond with an institution.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

An educational institution is required to designate a representative for contacts with the Bureau, including legal transactions. An email address and fax number are required on an application for approval to operate. “Council” is changed to “Bureau” to comply with the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009.

Amend section 71170 (Mission and Objectives) – This section requires an institution to describe its mission and objectives in its application.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

“Mission, purposes, and objectives” was changed to exclude “purposes” because it is redundant.

Amend section 71180 (Exemplars of Student Agreements) - The amendment does not alter any requirement, right, responsibility, condition, prescription or other regulatory element of any California Code of Regulations provision. (See CCR, Title 1, section 100 (a)(5).)

Factual Basis/Rationale:

The authority and reference sections were updated to make this section consistent with the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009.

Amend section 71190 (Financial Aid Policies, Practices and Disclosures) – This section requires certain disclosures concerning an institution’s financial aid policies, practices, and disclosures.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

For ease of reading, this section clarifies that institutions that receive financial aid for qualifying students must provide its policies, practices, and disclosures concerning financial aid.

Amend section 71200 (Advertising and Other Public Statements) – This section requires institutions that disseminate advertising materials and statements concerning the institution or its programs to include copies with its application.

Factual basis/Rationale:

The references to “branch” and “educational program” are deleted because a request to add an additional branch campus and a request to add an educational program are not made in the same application. The previous regulations required one application for both types of requests.

Amend section 71210 (Instruction and Degrees Offered) – This section specifies what information is needed in an application concerning an institution’s educational programs.

Factual Basis Rationale:

The amendments to this section are necessary to conform to the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009. The reference to the “ability- to-benefit examination” was added to conform to section 94904 of the Education Code. “Mode” was changed to “method”, and “educational” was added to provide consistency in the use of those terms. To comply with the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009, an application to operate shall identify each occupation and job title to which an educational program will lead.

Amend section 71220 (Description of Educational Program) – This section specifies what information is needed by the Bureau concerning an institution’s educational program(s).

Factual basis/Rationale:

The requirement that an application include a statement that the program(s) offered by an educational institution meets the criteria as set forth in section 71710 (Educational Program) is added to ensure compliance with that section. Approval from the required licensing agency is also added to ensure that the Bureau does not approve an application if a program must first be approved by a particular licensing agency, e.g., Board of Barbering and Cosmetology.

Amend section 71230 (Instruction in Languages Other Than English) – This section enables the Bureau to collect pertinent information regarding an institution’s educational programs – or a portion thereof, that are not taught in English.

Factual basis/Rationale:

The amendments to this section are for ease of reading and to clarify that any portion of an educational program not taught in English shall have sufficiently qualified faculty to teach each language group.

Amend section 71240 (Financial Resources and Statements) – Educational institutions are required to maintain financial resources to operate. The amendments to this section ensure that the financial information submitted to the Bureau is accurate, which is predicated on an audit of such reports. All unrelated provisions of this section are obsolete.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

In the interest of consumer protection, it was determined that an audited financial statement was the best way the Bureau could substantiate that an institution had sufficient financial resources to operate.

Amend section 71250 (Faculty) – This section requires an application to include a statement that the institution has contracted with faculty members who meet the qualifications of section 71720 (Faculty).

Factual Basis/Rationale:

Educational institution faculty are required to be qualified in accordance with the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009. The amendments to this section eliminate the requirement that institutions provide documentation of hired faculty, but require a statement on the application to operate that the institution has hired duly qualified faculty, because faculty are subject to change from time to time, and the Bureau has no need to collect this information in the initial application.

Amend section 71260 (Facilities and Equipment) – This section enables the Bureau to collect information concerning an institution’s facilities and equipment.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

“Council” is stricken from this section, and “Bureau” was added to conform to the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009. Portions of former section 73280 (Facilities and Equipment) are merged with this section, and “significant equipment” is defined to provide regulation consistency and to enable those subject to regulation by the Bureau to know and understand what the law requires with respect to equipment that is available for use by students, e.g., a truck driving school must have a truck.

Amend section 71270 (Libraries and other Learning Resources) – This section specifies what information concerning an institution’s library and other learning resources must be included in the application.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

“As required by the curriculum” is added to ensure that, if a curriculum requires a student to access information from a library or learning resource that does not exist at the educational institution, an institution provides a means for students to access the information.

Amend section 71280 (Student Services – Job Placement Assistance) – This section specifies that that an application must include a description of the job placement assistance provided to students if such assistance is offered at the institution.

Factual basis/Rationale:

The amendments to this section correct an ambiguity concerning student services offered at an educational institution. The requirements of this section are restated to address job placement assistance by requiring an educational institution to describe its job placement assistance services.

Amend section 71290 (Copy of Catalog) – This section requires a copy of an institution’s catalog to accompany its application.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

The requirement for an educational institution to provide the Bureau with addenda reflecting newly approved educational services is obsolete because a copy of an institution’s catalog must accompany an application to operate. The portion of this section requiring addenda is, therefore, stricken. The additional strikes to this section have no regulatory effect.

Amend section 71300 (Graduation or Completion Documents) – This section requires copies of documents awarded to students upon successful completion of an educational program.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

For ease of reading, grammatical changes were made to this section. The grammatical changes do not alter any requirement, right, responsibility, condition, prescription or other regulatory element of any California Code of Regulations provision.

Amend section 71310 (Recordkeeping; Custodian of Records) – This section requires an application to include a description of the manner in which institution records are organized and maintained.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

“Article 9” is added to this section to clarify where within the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009 it addresses the manner in which records are to be maintained by an educational institution for the purpose of providing a description in an application. The provision concerning the custodian of records is amended to ensure that the Bureau knows how to contact an institution’s custodian of records and where records are stored.

Adopt section 71320 (Self-Monitoring Procedures) – This section requires an educational institution to provide a description of the methods it will employ to maintain compliance with the minimum operating standards as provided in section 94885 of the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

The provisions of former section 73340 (Self-Monitoring Procedures) are restated in this section to provide consistency for all institutions, and to ensure that institutions will monitor their compliance with meeting minimum operating standards.

Repeal section 71330 (Operation Plan) – This section is obsolete predicated on the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

The provisions concerning an operation plan are contained within other sections of these regulations. The provisions of this section are, therefore, redundant.

Amend section 71340 (Additional Information) - This section requires an institution to include in its application any material facts that might reasonably affect the Bureau’s decision to grant an approval to operate.

Factual basis/Rationale:

“Council” was stricken and “Bureau” was added to conform to the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009. The authority and reference sections were also updated to make this section consistent with the new law.

Repeal section 71360 (Approval for a Particular Educational Program or Degree Title) –

The provisions of this section are obsolete.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

This section is obsolete because a separate application is required for a change in educational objectives by an educational institution.

Amend section 71380 (Signatures and Certification) – This section specifies what signatures are required on an application and requires a declaration to certify the accuracy of an application and all attachments.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

The prior law required a signature on an application to operate for each person owning or controlling 10% of an incorporated educational institution. The law has changed the ownership or control percentage from 10% to 25%, which is represented in the amendment to this section.

Education Code section 94822 defines “change in control;” therefore, the amendment makes this section consistent with the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009.

In the interest of consumer protection, it is also important for the Bureau to know that a person in “control” is capable of meeting the minimum standards.

Adopt section 71390 (Application Form) – This section specifies which application must be completed and what information must be included in the application by an accredited institution seeking an approval to operate.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

The California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009 requires an accredited institution to submit an application for approval to operate, unless the institution is exempt from the requirement to obtain the Bureau’s approval. To conform to the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009, this section was adopted.

In addition, this section clarifies that the Bureau can only approve accredited institutions that have been operating in California -- not institutions that have accreditation elsewhere and desire to open a campus in California. Institutions must be accredited and previously approved or previously exempt (or operating under 94802) in order to be eligible for approval by means of accreditation; if an accreditor would accredit an institution that hasn't existed or operated in California, the Bureau will not approve them by means of accreditation.

Adopt section 71395 ((Application; Fees) – This section specifies what information is needed in an application for verification of an institution’s exempt status and provides the form of such application.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

Education Code section 94874 exempts certain educational institutions from the requirement to obtain an approval to operate from the Bureau. Although such institutions are not required to apply for its exempt status, they may submit to the Bureau the application referred to in section 71395.

Amend section 71400 (Processing of Completed Applications) – This section specifies the manner in which applications are processed by the Bureau.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

“Council” is stricken and “Bureau” is added to conform to the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009. The application for verification of exempt status is added to conform to the new law. This section also provides a process for provisional approval to operate in the event minor deficiencies are identified during application processing. Provisional approval to operate is useful in situations such as where simultaneous approval is needed from an accreditor or other regulator, e.g., Board of Barbering and Cosmetology; or in cases where a minor deficiency exists within an application that can be corrected in a short period of time, but the institution can still operate in substantial compliance; or if approval is substantially warranted, but for some reason should be conditional upon some other event, e.g., obtaining a required permit from the local jurisdiction.

Adopt section 71400.5 (Denial of an Application) – This section specifies the grounds for denial of an application and the Administrative Procedure Act as the process by which the Bureau will handle a denial.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

The process by which an application or license is denied would be subject to the Administrative Procedure Act to provide consistency amongst the entities existing within the Department of Consumer Affairs. The former Act provided an alternative hearing process that was not clear and therefore not efficient. This section, also for clarity and consistency, incorporates Business and Professions Code section 480 to ensure that the Bureau can discipline a license or deny licensure based on a conviction, fraud, or dishonesty.

Adopt section 71401 (Abandonment of Application) – This section specifies when an application will be deemed abandoned and the fee forfeited.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

The provisions of former section 74180 (Abandonment of Application) are restated in section 71401 to provide consistency within Article 4. This section also clarifies that the one-year period will begin to run when the application is initially received by the Bureau or the date upon which the Bureau notified the applicant that the application is incomplete.

Amend section 71405 (Change in Circumstances Affecting Application Information) – This section requires an applicant to inform the Bureau of any material change in circumstances following the submission of an application.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

“Council” was stricken and “Bureau” was added to conform to the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009. The authority and reference sections were also updated to make this section consistent with the new law.

Repeal section 71410 (Right to an Administrative Hearing) – This section is repealed because its provisions are obsolete or incorporated within other sections of these regulations.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

The repealed section provided an institution the right to an administrative hearing when it had been informed that its application was incomplete.

To comply with the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009, the apparent right to an Administrative Procedure Act hearing for incomplete applications was abolished. The right to an administrative hearing was incorporated into section 71400.5, and consequences were added to section 71401 (Abandonment of Application) for abandonment under that section, e.g., forfeited fee.

Repeal section 71415 (Length of Approval to Operate) – This section is obsolete.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

This section is repealed because the length of an approval to operate is provided in Education Code section 94889.

Repeal section 71420 (Applications From Institutions Operating on December 31, 1990) – This section is obsolete.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

The provisions within this section are incorporated into Article 3.5 to transition educational institutions operating in accordance with the former law. The provisions of this section are now obsolete predicated on the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009.

Amend section 71450 (Empanelling of Visiting Committees; Reports) – The amendments to this section clarify when an institution shall undergo an onsite evaluation by a visiting committee and the composition of a visiting committee when it is impaneled for the purpose of evaluating an application for approval to operate.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

The former law required a visiting committee for degree-granting institutions. The Director now has the discretion to empanel a visiting committee to evaluate an application for an approval to operate if an evaluation is necessary to assist in the review of an institution or any of its programs. This change allows the Bureau to save resources when an evaluation is not necessary.

Amend section 71455 (Challenge to the Visiting Committee) – This section provides an institution the right to object to the members of a visiting committee.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

The former Bureau was criticized for the length of time to approve an application. The timelines, therefore, now shorten the length of the approval process. The time period for notice to an institution being evaluated of the members who comprise the visiting committee is changed from 45 to 30 days before the visit. The time period for objecting to the inclusion of any member's service on the committee is changed from 10 to 14 days.

A report to the Director of a committee member's bias is changed to require such a report be in writing, which clarifies the former "by written evidence" language.

Amend section 71460 (Duties of the Visiting Committee) – This section specifies the duties of a visiting committee. The amendments do not alter any requirement, right, responsibility, condition, prescription or other regulatory element of any California Code of Regulations provision.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

“Purpose” was stricken to provide consistency with section 71170 (Mission and Objectives). “Division” and “Bureau” were added to conform to the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009. The authority and reference sections were also updated to make this section consistent with the new law.

Amend section 71465 (Visiting Committee Report) – This section specifies the contents of a visiting committee report and how it is to be used by the Bureau.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

The amendments clarify that the report shall focus on the minimum operating standards and required disclosures, rather than the quality of education provided by an institution.

Amend section 71470 (Institution Cooperation with Visiting Committee) – This sections requires institutions to make available for inspection by a visiting committee all records deemed necessary to inspect to determine whether an institution meets the minimum operating standards.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

All references to the former Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education Reform Act of 1989 were stricken from this section; “chapter” was replaced with “Division” to conform to the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009; and the authority and reference sections were also updated to make this section consistent with the new law.

Adopt section 71475 – This section specifies the requirements to renew an approval to operate for a non-accredited institution to conform to the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

The provisions of this section clarify when an approval to operate is subject to expiration and when an application to renew an application is due, including what documentation shall accompany such an application. The provisions also specify what the late fees are and provide the time after which an expired approval will not be renewed and the license will be deemed cancelled. In the interest of consumer protection, the six month period after which an approval to operate expired was selected because an institution that has not been in operation for that time should be required to file a new application to re-establish its ability to meet minimum operating standards.

Adopt section 71480 (Renewal of an Approval to Operate for an Accredited Institution) – This section establishes the requirements to renew an approval to operate for an accredited institution.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

To conform to the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009, the provisions of this section set the time for expiration of an approval to operate for an accredited institution, addresses when late fees shall apply, and provide the time after which an expired approval will not be renewed and the license will be deemed cancelled. In the interest of consumer protection, the six month period after which an approval to operate expired was selected because an institution that has not been in operation for that time should be required to file a new application to re-establish its ability to meet minimum operating standards..

Adopt section 71485 (Student Tuition Recovery Fund Assessments and Annual Fees as Condition of Renewal) – This section establishes that an institution is ineligible for renewal of its approval to operate if payment of Student Tuition Recovery Fund assessments and annual fees are not paid.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

The Bureau deemed it necessary to clarify that if an institution's Student Tuition Recovery Fund payments and annual fees are not current, the institution is ineligible for renewal.

Factual Basis/ Rationale:

The provisions concerning emerging new fields of study are not included in the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009.

Amend section 71600 (Application for Significant Change in Method of Instructional Delivery) – Education Code section 94894 requires institutions to seek the approval of the Bureau for any significant change in the method of instructional delivery. The amendments to this section require an application for such a change.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

The provisions concerning a change of mission, purposes, or objectives or primary method of instruction are not included in the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009 as a substantive change in an approval to operate.

A “change in educational programs,” which may, in part, encompass a change in mission or objectives, is incorporated into section 71550.

Repeal section 71605 (Contents of Application) – This section is obsolete predicated on the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

The provisions concerning a change of mission, purposes, or objectives or primary method of instruction are not included in the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009 as a substantive change in an approval to operate.

Repeal section 71610 (Processing of Application) – This section is obsolete because the provisions concerning the processing of an application are contained within the adopted section 71655.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

The provisions concerning a change of mission, purposes, or objectives or primary method of instruction are not included in the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009 as a substantive change in an approval to operate.

A “change in educational programs” is incorporated into section 71550.

Repeal section 71615 (Decision on the Application) – This section is obsolete because the provisions concerning a decision by the Bureau on an application are contained within the adopted section 71655.

Repeal section 71655 (Satellite Locations) – This section was reorganized into section 71717.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

For clarity and ease of reading, the provisions of this section have been reorganized within section 71717, and has also been accounted for in section 71660.

Adopt section 71655 (Time for Filing an Application; Processing of an Application; Denials) – This section establishes requirements for institutions that made substantive changes during the sunset period.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

To clarify and make specific Education Code section 94894, the Bureau determined that only complete applications would be processed, and false or misleading information or the intentional or negligent omission or pertinent information could subject an application to denial.

The Bureau also determined that, to be consistent with the six-month period for approval, an institution that has made a substantive change can continue to operate but should also be subject to the same six-month period of time to file an application under this section.

Adopt section 71660 – This section outlines the requirement and the process that an institution must follow to notify the Bureau of a change that is not a substantive change requiring prior authorization from the Bureau, but is still information that the Bureau must have about each institution.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

For consumer protection reasons, the Bureau must know about the status of institutions such as change of location, new branches, satellites, and other changes that may not trigger the requirement to apply for a substantive change.

Amend section 71700 (Applicability of Standards) – This section establishes that the Bureau may require an institution to document its compliance with the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009.

The notice requirement is obsolete because it is provided within section 72400. Distance education provisions are also added to conform to Distance Education and Training Council and Accrediting Commission of Career Schools and Colleges accreditation standards.

The Bureau clarifies that instruction is the essential focus of an educational program, in order to prohibit diploma mills from operating in California and to ensure there is consistency with accreditation standards.

Adopt section 71716 (Distance Educational Programs – Specific Provisions for Instruction Not in Real Time) – This section specifies requirements for institutions offering a distance educational program.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

Adopt section 71760 (Self-Monitoring Procedures) – This section requires institutions to establish procedures to assure that it is maintained and operated in compliance with the California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009.

Factual Basis/Rationale:

This section consolidates the provisions of former sections 73340 (Self-Monitoring Procedures) and 71725 (Ownership and Management).

Business Impact

The bureau has made an initial determination that the proposed regulatory action may have significant statewide adverse economic impact directly affecting businesses, including the ability of California businesses to compete with businesses in other states.

Specific Technologies or Equipment

The California Private Postsecondary Education Act of 2009 does not require specific technologies or equipment. However, Education Code section 94885(c) requires the Bureau to adopt by regulation minimum operating standards for an institution that shall reasonably ensure instructional equipment is sufficient to enable students to achieve the educational program's goals.

This regulation amends section 71260 to provide that "significant equipment" is that which is necessary to achieve educational objectives.

Consideration of Alternatives

No reasonable alternative to the regulations would be either more effective in carrying out the purpose for which the action is proposed or would be as effective and less burdensome to affected private persons than the proposed regulations.
