

Application for Approval to Operate for an Institution Non-Accredited – Review Process

*If the institution fails to respond to the intake letter within one year after the date the Bureau notified the applicant that the application was incomplete, then the application will be deemed abandoned.

Education Specialist will review the institution's educational program to determine compliance with statutes and regulations.