To be eligible for STRF, you must be a California resident or are enrolled in a residency program, prepaid tuition, paid or deemed to have paid the STRF assessment, and suffered an economic loss as a result of any of the following:

1. The institution, a location of the institution, or an educational program offered by the institution was closed or discontinued, and you did not choose to participate in a teach-out plan approved by the Bureau or did not complete a chosen teach-out plan approved by the Bureau.
2. You were enrolled at an institution or a location of the institution within the 120 day period before the closure of the institution or location of the institution, or were enrolled in an educational program within the 120 day period before the program was discontinued.
3. You were enrolled at an institution or a location of the institution more than 120 days before the closure of the institution or location of the institution, in an educational program offered by the institution as to which the Bureau determined there was a significant decline in the quality or value of the program more than 120 days before closure.
4. The institution has been ordered to pay a refund by the Bureau but has failed to do so.
5. The institution has failed to pay or reimburse loan proceeds under a federal student loan program as required by law, or has failed to pay or reimburse proceeds received by the institution in excess of tuition and other costs.
6. You have been awarded restitution, a refund, or other monetary award by an arbitrator or court, based on a violation of this chapter by an institution or representative of an institution, but have been unable to collect the award from the institution.
7. You sought legal counsel that resulted in the cancellation of one or more of your student loans and have an invoice for services rendered and evidence of the cancellation of the student loan or loans.

To qualify for STRF reimbursement, the application must be received within four (4) years from the date of the action or event that made the student eligible for recovery from STRF.

A student whose loan is revived by a loan holder or debt collector after a period of noncollection may, at any time, file a written application for recovery from STRF for the debt that would have otherwise been eligible for recovery. If it has been more than four (4) years since the action or event that made the student eligible, the student must have filed a written application for recovery within the original four (4) year period, unless the period has been extended by another act of law.

		However, no claim can be paid to any student without a social security number or a taxpayer identification number.” The catalog does not contain the updated specific required STRF disclosures in quotations. To remedy the violation, the current catalog shall be updated to contain the updated specific required disclosures verbatim to the language in quotations in 5, CCR §76215(a)(b). To document compliance, the institution shall submit the corrected catalog containing the updated specific required STRF disclosures. Documentation of compliance shall be submitted with the institution’s response to the NTC and the last page of this document within the specified time frame.
19	CEC §94909. Minimum Requirements for School Catalog	(a) Except as provided in subdivision (d), prior to enrollment, an institution shall provide a prospective student, either in writing or electronically, with a school catalog containing, at a minimum, all of the following: (8) A detailed description of institutional policies in the following areas: (B) Cancellation, withdrawal, and refund policies, including an explanation that the student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. The text shall also include a description of the procedures that a student is required to follow to cancel the enrollment agreement or withdraw from the institution and obtain a refund consistent with the requirements of Article 13 (commencing with Section 94919). The catalog contained a cancellation policy which indicated the institution would retain the separate $250.00 nonrefundable enrollment fee deposit. The schedule of charges identified in the catalog and enrollment agreement does not identify a $250.00 nonrefundable enrollment fee deposit. The catalog contained a withdrawal refund policy which stated institutional charges included a $250.00 nonrefundable enrollment fee deposit and all other nonrefundable fees as described in the current General Catalog. The schedule of charges in the catalog and enrollment agreement does not identify a $250.00 nonrefundable enrollment fee deposit or any other nonrefundable fees. To remedy this violation, the catalog shall be updated to include the $250.00 nonrefundable enrollment fee deposit in the schedule of charges.

20	CEC §94909. Minimum Requirements for School Catalog	(a) Except as provided in subdivision (d), prior to enrollment, an institution shall provide a prospective student, either in writing or electronically, with a school catalog containing, at a minimum, all of the following: (7) Information regarding the faculty and their qualifications. The catalog failed to contain information regarding faculty and their qualifications. The catalog referred readers to the institution’s website for information regarding faculty members. To remedy this violation, the catalog shall be updated to include information regarding faculty and their qualifications; referring readers to the institution’s website is insufficient. To document compliance, the institution shall submit the corrected catalog containing information regarding faculty and their qualifications. RETURN THIS FORM WITHIN THE SPECIFIED TIME FRAME WITH EITHER: 1) VERIFICATION OF COMPLIANCE OR 2) A NOTICE OF DISAGREEMENT

IMPORTANT COMPLIANCE NOTICE

California Education Code §94935 and California Code of Regulations §75010 provide that the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education (Bureau) shall issue a Notice to Comply for minor violations detected during a compliance inspection by the Bureau.

By no later than 30 days from the date of the inspection, you must either: 1) Remedy the noncompliance item(s), sign the below declaration and submit this form to the Bureau, along with documentation describing how compliance was achieved; or 2) File with the Bureau a written notice of disagreement, specifying the minor violation(s) described in the Notice to Comply with which you disagree, and appealing it by requesting an informal office conference. If a written notice of disagreement is not timely filed with the Bureau, the right to appeal is deemed to have been waived.

Failure to timely remedy the noncompliance item(s) or file a written request for an informal office conference may result in the Bureau taking administrative enforcement action.

DECLARATION

Attached to this document is a list describing how compliance was achieved for each violation and supporting documentation. I declare under penalty of perjury that all violations identified in this Notice to Comply are corrected as described in the attachment.
