2. 5, CCR Section 71770(a)(1) – Admissions Standards and Transferred Credits Policy.
"(a) The institution shall establish specific written standards for student admissions for each educational program. These standards shall be related to the particular educational program. An institution shall not admit any student who is obviously unqualified or who does not appear to have a reasonable prospect of completing the program. In addition to any specific standards for an educational program, the admissions standards must specify as applicable that:
(1) Each student admitted to an undergraduate degree program, or a diploma program, shall possess a high school diploma or its equivalent, or otherwise successfully take and pass the relevant examination as required by section 94904 of the Code."

CEC Section 94904(a) – Ability to Benefit Students

"(a) Except as provided in subdivision (c), before an ability-to-benefit student may execute an enrollment agreement, the institution shall have the student take an independently administered examination from the list of examinations prescribed by the United States Department of Education pursuant to Section 484(d) of the federal Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. Sec. 1070a et seq.). The student shall not enroll unless the student achieves a score, as specified by the United States Department of Education,"

Bureau staff reviewed student files that failed to include verification of high school completion or equivalency. Institutional staff indicated that some students were unable to obtain their student records from institutions they had previously attended; therefore, the Institution offered these students an Ability-to-Benefit (ATB) examination that was not approved by the US Department of Education. "Prior to the execution of an enrollment agreement, the information required to be disclosed pursuant to subdivisions (a) to (d), inclusive, of Section 94910 shall be signed and dated by the institution and the student. Each of these items shall also be initialed and dated by the student."

Bureau staff reviewed student files that contained 2016 and 2017 Enrollment Agreements that were not signed by an authorized employee of the Institution.
