1. Discounted Tuition: Used weeks of discounted tuition will be charged back to the student at the published rate when any refund or modification to the recurring payment agreement is calculated. For school/location specific promotional discounts, used weeks of discounted tuition will be charged back to the student at the same promotional rate if the number of used weeks are within the week range the promotion applies to, otherwise used weeks of discounted tuition will be charged back at the published rate when any refund or modification to the recurring payment agreement is calculated. Waived application fees will not be charged back to the student.

2. Refund amounts will be based on a student's last date of attendance (LDA). When determining the number of weeks completed by the student, a partial week will be calculated the same as if a whole week were completed, provided the student was present at least one day during that week.
3. First Period of Financial Obligation: For students whose last day of attendance occurs at any point in the first four weeks of their initial period of financial obligation, TALK will retain the charges applicable to the first four weeks. TUITION REFUNDS/MODIFICATION TO PAYMENT AGREEMENTS

Students are required to pay in cash for the entire period of enrollment or agree to be financially obligated for the same period of enrollment by entering into a recurring payment agreement (and take advantage of the reduced pricing for longer periods of enrollment). The Period of Financial Obligation is the period for which the student is legally obligated to pay for the enrollment period to which it relates. The Period of Financial Obligation always equals the enrollment period and cannot exceed 12 months. Refunds or modifications to the recurring payment agreement may only be done as follows:

1. Discounted Tuition: Used weeks of discounted tuition will be charged back to the student at the published rate when any refund or modification to the recurring payment agreement is calculated. For school/location specific promotional discounts, used weeks of discounted tuition will be charged back to the student at the same promotional rate if the number of used weeks are within the week range the promotion applies to, otherwise used weeks of discounted tuition will be charged back at the published rate when any refund or modification to the recurring payment agreement is calculated.

Waived application fees will not be charged back to the student.

2. Refund amounts will be based on a student's last date of attendance (LDA). When determining the number of weeks completed by the student, a partial week will be calculated the same as if a whole week were completed, provided the student was present at least one day during that week.
3. First Period of Financial Obligation: For students whose last day of attendance occurs at any point in the first four weeks of their initial period of financial obligation, TALK will retain the charges applicable to the first four weeks. For students, whose last date of attendance occurs after the first four weeks but before or at 60% of their period of financial obligation, TALK will retain a prorated amount of tuition. For students whose last date of attendance occurs after the 60% of their period of financial obligation, TALK will retain all of the charges for that period.

Date of Determination (DOD): The date: (1) the student gives notice of withdrawal to the institution, (2) the institution administratively withdraws the student; or (3) the date the institution terminates the student due to the student's failure to adhere to the institution's attendance, conduct, or student progress policy.

TUITION REFUNDS/MODIFICATION TO PAYMENT AGREEMENTS

Students are required to pay in cash for the entire period of enrollment or agree to be financially obligated for the same period of enrollment by entering into a recurring payment agreement (and take advantage of the reduced pricing for longer periods of enrollment). The Period of Financial Obligation is the period for which the student is legally obligated to pay for the enrollment period to which it relates. The Period of Financial Obligation always equals the enrollment period and cannot exceed 12 months. Refunds or modifications to the recurring payment agreement may only be done as follows:

1. Discounted Tuition: Used weeks of discounted tuition will be charged back to the student at the published rate when any refund or modification to the recurring payment agreement is calculated. For school/location specific promotional discounts, used weeks of discounted tuition will be charged back to the student at the same promotional rate if the number of used weeks are within the week range the promotion applies to, otherwise used weeks of discounted tuition will be charged back at the published rate when any refund or modification to the recurring payment agreement is calculated. Waived application fees will not be charged back to the student.

2. Refund amounts will be based on a student's last date of attendance (LDA). When determining the number of weeks completed by the student, a partial week will be calculated the same as if a whole week were completed, provided the student was present at least one day during that week.
3. First Period of Financial Obligation: For students whose last day of attendance occurs at any point in the first four weeks of their initial period of financial obligation, TALK will retain the charges applicable to the first four weeks. For students, whose last date of attendance occurs after the first four weeks but before or at 60% of their period of financial obligation, TALK will retain a prorated amount of tuition. For students whose last date of attendance occurs after the 60% of their period of financial obligation, TALK will retain all of the charges for that period.
4. Subsequent Periods of Financial Obligation or Enrollment periods: For students who have completed the first period of financial obligation or extended their enrollment at the institution but whose last date of attendance occurs before or at 60% of any subsequent period of financial obligation, the institution may retain a prorated amount of tuition for that period. For students whose last date of attendance occurs after 60% of any subsequent period of financial obligation, the institution may retain all of the tuition for that period.

Date of Determination (DOD): The date: (1) the student gives notice of withdrawal to the institution, (2) the institution administratively withdraws the student; or (3) the date the institution terminates the student due to the student's failure to adhere to the institution's attendance, conduct, or student progress policy.

WITHDRAWAL OR TERMINATION AFTER START OF CLASS:

TUITION REFUNDS/MODIFICATION TO PAYMENT AGREEMENTS

Students are required to pay in cash for the entire period of enrollment or agree to be financially obligated for the same period of enrollment by entering into a recurring payment agreement (and take advantage of the reduced pricing for longer periods of enrollment). The Period of Financial Obligation is the period for which the student is legally obligated to pay for the enrollment period to which it relates. The Period of Financial Obligation always equals the enrollment period and cannot exceed 12 months. Refunds or modifications to the recurring payment agreement may only be done as follows:

1. Discounted Tuition: Used weeks of discounted tuition will be charged back to the student at the published rate when any refund or modification to the recurring payment agreement is calculated.

For school/location specific promotional discounts, used weeks of discounted tuition will be charged back to the student at the same promotional rate if the number of used weeks are within the week range the promotion applies to, otherwise used weeks of discounted tuition will be charged back at the published rate when any refund or modification to the recurring payment agreement is calculated. Waived application fees will not be charged back to the student.

2. Refund amounts will be based on a student's last date of attendance (LDA). When determining the number of weeks completed by the student, a partial week will be calculated the same as if a whole week were completed, provided the student was present at least one day during that week.
3. First Period of Financial Obligation: For students whose last day of attendance occurs at any point in the first four weeks of their initial period of financial obligation, TALK will retain the charges applicable to the first four weeks. For students, whose last date of attendance occurs after the first four weeks but before or at 60% of their period of financial obligation, TALK will retain a prorated amount of tuition. For students whose last date of attendance occurs after the 60% of their period of financial obligation, TALK will retain all of the charges for that period.
4. Subsequent Periods of Financial Obligation or Enrollment periods: For students who have completed the first period of financial obligation or extended their enrollment at the institution but whose last date of attendance occurs before or at 60% of any subsequent period of financial obligation, the institution may retain a prorated amount of tuition for that period. For students whose last date of attendance occurs after 60% of any subsequent period of financial obligation, the institution may retain all of the tuition for that period.

REFUND PAYMENT PROCEDURE

The student is not required to give notification of cancellation or withdrawal. Refunds are due as follows:

1. If an applicant never attends class or cancels prior to the course start date, all refunds due will be made within 45 days of the course start date or the date of cancellation, whichever is earlier;
2. For an enrolled student, the refund due will be calculated using the last date of attendance (LDA) and be paid within 45 days from the date of determination (DOD).

Date of Determination (DOD): The date: (1) the student gives notice of withdrawal to the institution, (2) the institution administratively withdraws the student; or (3) the date the institution terminates the student due to the student's failure to adhere to the institution's attendance, conduct, or student progress policy.
