Program Termination and Refunds: Under certain circumstances a program may be terminated and refunds may be due you. Following are the definitions relating to program termination:

A. Cancellation "Cancellation" occurs when a student cancels their FLS program before leaving their country or beginning their program. In this case, FLS will retain payments for application, accommodation placement, express mail and other applicable fees for services rendered (excluding tuition) not to exceed US $350.00.

B. Drop "Drop" (or "termination") means leaving the course after a student registers and begins their program.

Tuition Charges Refund: FLS shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for tuition, less an application fee of $150, if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later.

For students who withdraw before completing 60% of their program, FLS will retain a prorated amount of tuition based on the published price for the period studied.

For students who withdraw after completing 60% of their program, FLS will retain all charges for the program.

If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

If the student has obtained a loan to pay for an educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund.

If the student is eligible for a loan guaranteed by the federal or state government and the student defaults on the loan, both of the following may occur:

- (1) The federal or state government or a loan guarantee agency may take action against the student, including applying any income tax refund to which the person is entitled to reduce the balance owed on the loan.
- (2) The student may not be eligible for any other federal student financial aid at another institution or other government assistance until the loan is repaid.
