'Cancellation' refers to the period up to the start date of the first course you are attending. Cancellations must be made in writing and in these cases, providing the student never attends, 100% of the tuition and accommodation fees will be refunded, less any actual housing costs incurred; in all cases, the courier fee, enrollment fee and any other service charges (e.g. airport transfer fee, medical insurance, campus fee, program supplement fee, etc.) are non-refundable up to a maximum charge of USD500 (USD250 in California). As an institution that does not participate in the federal student financial aid programs, Kaplan International shall do the following: (a) The institution shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or applicable fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars (USD250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later. STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

'Cancellation' refers to the period up to the start date of the first course you are attending. Cancellations must be made in writing and in these cases, providing the student never attends, 100% of the tuition and accommodation fees will be refunded, less any actual housing costs incurred; in all cases, the courier fee, enrollment fee and any other service charges (e.g. airport transfer fee, medical insurance, campus fee, program supplement fee, etc.) are non-refundable up to a maximum charge of USD500 (USD250 in California). Cancellations made prior to the course start date but after arrival in the US on a Kaplan-issued Form I-20, will result in forfeiture of tuition, and any associated accommodation fees, equal to the first 4 weeks for courses between 1-11 weeks and the first 6 weeks for courses 12 weeks or longer (does not apply in California).

As an institution that does not participate in the federal student financial aid programs, Kaplan International shall do the following: (a) The institution shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or applicable fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars (USD250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later. (b) The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal. (c) The institution shall provide a pro rata refund of nonfederal student financial aid program moneys paid for institutional charges to students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance.

'Cancellation' refers to the period up to the start date of the first course you are attending. Cancellations must be made in writing and in these cases, providing the student never attends, 100% of the tuition and accommodation fees will be refunded, less any actual housing costs incurred; in all cases, the courier fee, enrollment fee and any other service charges (e.g. airport transfer fee, medical insurance, campus fee, program supplement fee, etc.) are non-refundable up to a maximum charge of USD500 (USD250 in California).
