Definitions

- "Number of Students Who Began the Program" means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period. "Students Available for Graduation" is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- "Number of On-time Graduates" is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- "On-time Completion Rate" is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- "150% Graduates" is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- "150% Completion Rate" is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation. "Graduates Available for Employment" means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- "Graduates Unavailable for Employment" means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- "Graduates Employed in the Field" means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- "Placement Rate Employed in the Field" is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- "Number of Graduates Taking Exam" is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.

Student's Right to Cancel:

You have the right to cancel your agreement for a program of instruction, without any penalty or obligations, through attendance at the first class session or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. After you begin classes, you have the right to stop school at any time and you have the right to receive a pro rata refund minus a cancellation fee. A written notice must be submitted to the office. Cancellation must be requested and approved.

Cancellation Prior to Start Date

If enrollment at Language Pacifica is cancelled prior to the class start date, all tuition fees paid will be refunded. The $95 registration fee is not refundable.

Withdrawal After Course Start Date

Refunds are prorated, and a two-week cancellation fee is subtracted. (If cancellation is made just one week before the end of the paid tuition period, the cancellation fee is just the one week.) Refunds will be calculated on a weekly basis. When determining the number of weeks, a partial week will be considered the same as if a whole week were completed, provided the student was present at least one day during the scheduled week.

Refund requests must be made in writing. Refunds will be paid or credited within 45 days of receipt of the written request.
