ATTENDANCE POLICIES

Attendance

Anendance standards at Gendarme Institute are designed to prepare graduates to meet the demands of employers.

If the student and Gendarme Institute are to achieve the goal of placement in a chosen career field, it is necessary for the student to exhibit the most essential characteristics desired by employers; reliability. Employers define reliability as punctuality, regular attendance, and working an entire shift. It is extremely important while attending Gendarme Institute to maintain excellent attendance as it will be monitored and used to market the student to prospective employers upon graduation.

*Students are expected to be on time to class every day. When students must be absent from class, they need to call the Institution prior to the start of class, noting the class they are in, an explanation of why they will not be in class that day, and when can we expect their ret'd

Recurring absences could result in disciplinary action, including dismissal. Students must maintain a 75% attendance record or better to maintain "Satisfactory Attendance Progress." Unsatisfactory attendance may lead to Probation status. Excused absences are not automatic; your instructor monitors and provides all attendance to the Student Services Department.

Make-up Time/Work Accountability

Make-up hours, assignments or tests are available and encouraged. Make-up time work must be scheduled with your instructor to assure proper credit. Students must make up time/work for proper credit towards graduation. Make-up classroom time must be completed on the Institution premises. Make-up assignments and/or test will be given for those who need to make up for academic grade/ semester credit hours.

Leave of Absence

If a "Leave of Absence" is required, a student must submit in writing to the Student Service Department, the basis of the request, expected return date and the initial date of request with the student's signature. This does not automatically reflect the Institution's approval. A Leave of Absence may be limited to a specified amount of days (NOT TO EXCEED 60 DAYS). Only one Leave of Absence will be granted for a student during any 12-month enrollment period. If the student's leave of absence is NOT approved, the student will be considered to have withdrawn from the Institution.

If the Leave of Absence is approved, the student may return prior to or at the end of the Leave of Absence and resume training without paying additional tuition. Students requesting Leave of Absences must understand that upon return, a revised course completion date will be established, which will delay their graduation date.

Gendarme Institute reserves the right to suspend or dismiss any student whose attendance, professional conduct, or academic performance which does not meet the Institution's standards and/or who fails to abide by the rules and regulations. Any student who has been suspended or dismissed may appeal the action by following the student appeal procedures outlined in this catalog.

In addition to completion of time frames, to be making satisfactory ac«.•••“• progress, each student must maintain a cumulative minimum grade point average of 75% or "C" or better. For determining satisfactOPf Rgress, a progress report is given to the student at the end of each module or course. A student achieving a cumulative grade point average below a grade of 75% or "C" at the time of evaluation will be placed on academic probation. The Academic Probation will be removed upon the swccessful completion of the deficiencies that lead to it. Any student dismissed for failure to meet the academic requirements of the institution, may appeal the dismissal by following the student appeals procedure outlined in this catalog.*

W- Withdrawal from Module	No Grade Assigned

If a student withdraws from a course before the completion of a module, the student will receive a W for that module. If the student returns to the Institution, all course work graded "I" (Incomplete) may be successfully completed within a 30-day period or training may be interrupted. If the student returns to the Institution, all course work graded "W" Should be completed. Any Incomplete and Withdrawal will be counted as a 0 in the overall mwulative grade point average. It is Important that the student makes up the Incompletes or Withdrawal as soon as possible.

Students will be allowed to repeat a module once at no additional charge. The time needed to repeat the module must be within the maximum time frame for that course. The student will be given an opportunity, at the discretion of the Institution Director and subject to the availability of space, to repeat, remediate or make up work. This work shall be given full standing and credit with respect to the evaluation of the student's maintaining of satisfactory Progress.

Students that have been dismissed for lack of satisfactory academic progress from any program may apply to the Institution Director to be re-admitted by following the reinstatement procedures outlined in this catalog.

A student may appeal the determination of umatisfactory academic progress ar«f or their dismissal based upon extenuating circumstances by following the Student Appeals Procedure outlined in this catalog. Permanent transcripts of the student's progress record are maintained by the Institution and are available upon written request by the student. Under State Regulations, the institution is only required to maintain a student's file for 5 years from the student's last date of attendance.

Academic Probation Policy

As indicated under the section pertaining to Academic Policy, if a student fails to achieve a cumulative grade point average of 75% or "C", the student will be placed on academic probation until such time as their cumulative grade point average reaches 75% or "C". During that probationary period, the student must maintain a cumulative grade point average of 75% or "C" of the program.

If a student maintains a grade point average of 75% or "C" and/or achieves a cumulative grade point average of 75% or "C", probation will be removed. However, if the student fails to maintain a 75% or "C" grade point average and/or is unable to achieve a cumulative grade point average within one evaluation period, the student will be dismissed from their program (unless extenuating circumstances are established).

A student, who wishes to appeal any disciplinary action and/or decision made by an Instructor, must submit a letter to the Institution Director to be reviewed by an Appeals Board. Students must provide supportive documentation along with their letter in order to support his/her position and any mitigating circumstances that may have existed.

The student will be notified of the Appeal Board decision within 30 days following the receipt of the student's appeal. The decision of the Institution Director shall be final.

Reinstatement

A student requesting to be reinstated as an active student, based on whatever reasons or circumstances, should do so in writing. Supportive documentation and/or information concerning any mitigating circumstances should be noted in the request. The requesting student shall be notified of the Reinstatement Review within 30 days following the decision of the Institution Director.

Graduation Requirements

Upon successfully completing a program and being current in their tuition payments, students will receive a Diploma completion certificate.

Student Records

The Family Right and Privacy Act of 1974 prohibits an institution from releasing the school records or any other information about a student to any third party without the written consent of the student. Gendarme Institute protects the privacy and confidentiality of all student records. Students are guaranteed the right to access their own files. Student files of this period are maintained in fire retardant storage. All files are kept for a minimum of 5 years and transcripts are kept indefinitely.

Career Change

At times, a student may wish to change his chosen career goal. The institution reserves the right to allow or disallow a transfer from one program to another offered at this institution. For this transfer, the student will sign an addendum to the original contract. The student will be charged for the appropriate time used for the prior program and be charged the additional fees for the new program as the published regulations allow.

The process for this program change will be as follows: Notify the Admission Office, Business Office and Student Services prior to the change. Instructors will not make the decision to transfer a student as this affects the student's financial status.

SCHOOL POLICIES AND REGULATIONS

Professional dress is recommended at all times. Gendarme Institute's Professional Dress Policy was established in order to enable our students to become comfortable with the type of apparel expected by the majority of employers who hire our graduates. The Institution is required to have you sign and date the information included in the School performance Fact Sheet relating to completion rates, placement rates, license examination passage rates, and salaries or wages, prior to signing the enrollment agreement.

Student Grievance Procedure

If a student has a grievance and wishes it to be recognized as such, a written complaint must be submitted to Gendarme Institute in letter format. The written grievance must clearly state the student's name, the nature of the complaint, the name(s) of all parties directly involved in the complaint, and any appropriate documentary evidence.

Steps towards resolution: based upon the information presented in the grievance, steps toward resolution shall begin with informal discussions headed by the Institute Director. Resolution shall be attempted at the lowest possible level. If a satisfactory solution cannot be reached within a reasonable period, the grievance shall be scheduled for presentation to the Grievance Committee for hearing and appropriate action. Informal discussion between persons directly involved in a grievance is essential in the early stages of dispute reconciliation and shall be encouraged at all stages of the grievance procedure.

If informal recourse fails to resolve the grievance within 30 days after filing, the Institute Director will schedule a Grievance Committee meeting. The members of the Committee will be (3) three. The Committee will review and consider documentary records, which relate to the case, including the grievance and its supporting documentation and any documentary evidence or statement by the person(s) against whom the complaint was filed. The committee and the Institute Director will arrive at a fair and equitable decision. It is the Institute Directors final decision.

If students/school has exhausted procedures and the problem has not been resolved, they have the right to contact the:

Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education

Policy on Student Rights

The Student's Rights Policy concerning enrollment states:

" You have the right to cancel this enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. Business day means a day on which you were scheduled to attend a class. Cancellation occurs when you give a written notice of cancellation. You can do this by mail, in person, by FAX or telegram. The notice of cancellation, if mailed is effective when deposited in the mail, properly addressed with postage prepaid. This notice need not take any particular form; it needs only to state you wish to cancel the agreement. You will be given two notices of cancellation forms on the first day of class. If you cancel this agreement, the School will refund any money that you paid within 30 days after your notice is received.

Students are advised that notification of withdrawal or cancellation must be made in writing. This is the process that the student should follow to cancel and obtain a refund (if applicable).

The Cancellation Notice must be addressed to:

Institute Director
Gendarme Institute LLC
9471 E. Slauson Avenue
Pico Rivera, California 90660

The Notice of Cancellation form will be given to you prior to the first day of class. Read the Notice of Cancellation form for an explanation of your cancellation rights and responsibilities. If you have lost your Notice of Cancellation form, ask the school for a sample copy.

"After the end of the cancellation period, you also have the right to stop school at any time, and you have the right to receive a refund for the part of the course not taken.

Your refund rights are described in the contract. If you have lost your contract, ask the Institution for a description of the refund policy.

"If the Institution closes before you graduate, you may be entitled to a refund. Contact the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education at the address and telephone number printed below for information.

"If you have a complaint, questions, or problems that you cannot work out with the school, write or call the:

Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education (BPPE) :

2535 Capitol Oaks Drive, Suite 400, Sacramento, CA 95833.

Telephone. 916. 431-6959 Fax 916. 263-1897. Toh Free: (CCC) 370-75C9

"Prior to signing your enrollment agreement, you must be given a catalog or brochure and a School performance Fact Sheet, which you are encouraged to review prior to signing the agreement. These documents contain important policies performance data for this institution. The Institution is required to have you sign and date the information included in the School performance Fact Sheet relating to completion rates, placement rates, license examination passage rates, and salaries or wages, prior to signing the agreement

If the Institution has given you any equipment, you shall return the equipment within 30 days of the date you signed a cancellation notice. If you do not return this equipment within this 30-day period, the Institute may keep an amount out of what you paid that equals the cost of the equipment. The total amount charged for each item of equipment shall be separately stated. The amount charged for each item of equipment shall not exceed the equipment's fair market value.

The institution shall have the burden of proof to establish the equipment's fair market value. The school is required to refund any amount over that as provided above, and you may keep the equipment.

You have the right to withdraw from a program of instruction at any time.

If you withdraw from the course of instruction after the cancellation period as in paragraph 1, the School will remit a refund less non-refundable registration fee and non-refundable STRF fee within 30 days following your withdrawal. You are obligated to pay only for educational services rendered and unreturned equipment. The refunds shall be the amount you paid for instruction multiplied by fraction, the numerator of which is the number of hours of instruction, which has not been received but for which you have paid, the denominator of which is the total number of hours of instruction from which you have paid. If you obtain equipment, as specified on the first page of this agreement, and return it in good condition within 30 days following the date of your withdrawal, the School shall refund the amount paid by you for the equipment. If you fail to return the equipment in good condition within 30 days, the School may retain the lesser amount of a pro rata portion as described below (up to 60% of course completion) or documented cost of the listed equipment. You are liable for the amount, if any, by which the pro rata or documented cost of the equipment exceeds the refund amount. If the amount you have paid is more than the amount that you owe, then a refund will be made within 30 days of your withdrawal. If the amount that you owe is more than the amount you paid, then you will have to make arrangements to pay it.

If the student obtains a loan to pay for an educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund.

Hypothetical Refund Example certificate Programs Assume you enrolled in a 720-hours (24 semester units) course, which costs $5,500.00 for tuition, $75.00, and a STRF fee and $250.00 for books.

Assume you made a payment of $2,000.00 ($1,860.00 towards tuition, $65.00 for a book, and the $75.00 registration fee and the STRF fee. Assume you withdrew after completing 100 hours, which represents 13.9% of the 720 hours. The cost of 100 hours of training is $764.50. The total refund you are entitled to is $1,160.50. If you did not return the $65 book in “as new” condition, then the refund will be $1,095.50.

For the purpose of determining the amount you owe, you shall be deemed to have withdrawn from the course when any of the following occurs: (a) You notify the School of your withdrawal or the actual date of withdrawal; (b) School terminates your enrollment; (c) You fail to attend classes for a three-week period; (d) You fail to return from a leave of absence. In this case, the date of withdrawal shall be deemed to be the last date of recorded attendance.

If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds

GENERAL TERMS:

No applicant shall be rejected from admission to the Institute on the basis of age, race, color, sex, disability or national origin nor be subjected to discrimination of any kind base on the above. For information regarding non-discrimination issues or to resolve complaints, contact the School Director of designee.

The School does not and cannot guarantee employment nor level of income or wage rate to any student or graduate. However, placement assistance will be provided in the form of referrals to potential employers, resume preparation, training on job seeking skills and interview techniques.

All instructional equipment for the course selected will be furnished by the School. There are, however, required books and materials that are to be paid by you.

The cost of medical or other examinations, if required, is to be paid by the student.

Diplomas, certificates signifying satisfactory completion will be issued after the completion of the entire program. Students will be tested/evaluated on classroom (lecture). The student must achieve the cumulative grade point average (GPA) as stated in the catalog in order to graduate and receive the Diploma or certificate.

The School reserves the right to postpone training in the event of Acts of God, labor disputes, equipment failure, etc. for a maximum of 30 days. Students will be duly notified by phone, e-mail, or letter.

All course schedules are subject to change in starting and completion dates. Students will be duly notified. Students will be offered the opportunity to consent” as provided by law. In cases where such changes would cause an undue hardship, a refund will be offered. The maximum postponement of class is 90 days.

The School reserves the right to withdraw a scheduled course if the registration is insufficient to make up a class. All student charges paid will be refunded.

The School reserves the right to change or modify the program content, equipment, staff, or materials and organization as necessary. Such changes may be required to keep pace with technological advances and to improve teaching any program or result in tuition changes for current attending students.

The School reserves the right to reject an applicant from admission not meeting the requirements for the course selected. The student's enrollment may be terminated at the discretion of the School Director if the student's academic progress, behavior, absences, lateness, dress, etc. does not conform to the attendance requirements, rules and regulations of the School, as stated in the catalog; in which event, the extent of the student's tuition obligation will be in accordance with the School's refund policy.

In any particular provision of this agreement shall be deemed invalid if unenforceable, it shall not affect the other provisions hereof, and this agreement shall be construed in all respects as if such invalid or unenforceable provisions were omitted.

This Agreement constitutes the complete contract between the School and the student, and no verbal statements or promises will be recognized.

Any questions a student may have regarding the catalog/ enrollment agreement that have not been satisfactorily answered by the institution may be directed to the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education at

This institution DOES NOT participate in Federal OR State financial aid programs.

If a student obtains a loan (received) to pay for an educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund in the case of a student's withdrawal.

If the student receives federal student financial aid funds, and withdrew from the institution the student is entitled to a refund of the money not paid from federal financial aid funds.

If the student received federal student financial aid funds, or a loan guaranteed by the federal or state government and the student defaults on the loan, both of the following may occur:

The federal or state government or a loan guarantee agency may take action against the student, including applying any income tax refund to which the person is entitled to reduce the balance owed on the loan.

The student may not be eligible for any other federal student financial aid at another institution or other government assistance until the loan is repaid.

76215. STUDENT TUITION RECOVERY FUND DISCLOSURES

"You must pay the state-imposed fee for the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) if all of the following apply to you:

- 1) You are a student, in an educational program, who is a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and prepay all or part of your tuition either by cash, guaranteed student loans, or personal loans, and
2. Your total charges are not paid by any third-party payer such as an employer, government program or other payer unless you have a separate agreement to repay the third party.

You are not eligible for protection from the STRF and you are not required to pay the STRF assessment, if either of the following applies:

- 1) You are not a California resident, or are not enrolled in a residency program, or
- 2) Your total charges are paid by a third party, such as an employer, government program or other payer, and you have no separate agreement to repay the third party."
- 3) "The State of California created the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic losses suffered by students in educational programs who are California residents or are enrolled in a residency programs attending certain schools regulated by the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education.

IF A STUDENT DOES NOT HAVE A SS# OR TAX PAYER ID THEIR CLAIM WILL NOT BE PAID.

"You may be eligible for STRF if you are a California resident or are enrolled in a residency program, prepaid tuition, paid the STRF assessment, and suffered an economic loss as a result of any of the following:

- 1). The school closed before the course of instruction was completed.
- 2). The school's failure to pay refunds or charges on behalf of a student to a third party for license fees or any other purpose, or to provide equipment or materials for which a charge was collected within 180 days before the closure of the school.
- 3). The school's failure to pay or reimburse loan proceeds under a federally guaranteed student loan program as required by law or to pay or reimburse proceeds received by the school prior to closure in excess of tuition and other costs.

- 4) There was a material failure to comply with the Act or this Division within 30 days before the school closed or , if the material failure began earlier than 30 days prior to closure, the period determined by the Bureau.
5. An inability after diligent efforts to prosecute, prove, and collect on a judgment against the institution for a violation of the Act."
