Calendar Year	Most recent three year cohort default rate, as reported by the United States Department of Education. ¹	The percentage of enrolled students receiving federal student loans to pay for this program.	The percentage of graduates who took out federal student loans to pay for this program.	The average amount of federal student loan debt of graduates who took out federal student loans at this institution.
2017		N/A	N/A	$25,250
2018	7.4%	N/A	N/A	$25,250

¹The percentage of students who defaulted on their federal student loans is called the Cohort Default Rate (CDR). It shows the percentage of this school's students who were more than 270 days (9 months) behind on their federal student loans within three years of when the first payment was due. This is the most recent CDR reported by the U.S. Department of Education.

- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
- “First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

CANCELING YOUR ENROLLMENT DURING THE FIRST SEVEN DAYS AFTER STARTING CLASS:

1. You have the right to cancel this Contract for a course of instruction including any equipment or other goods and services included in the Contract, within the first seven calendar days following the first day of class. Registration fee is non-refundable.
2. Cancellation shall occur when you give written notice of cancellation at the address of the School shown on the top of the front page of this Contract. You can do this by mail, hand delivery, or email.
3. The written notice of cancellation, if sent by mail, is effective when post marked by a mail office.
4. The written notice of cancellation need not take any particular form, and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by this contract.
5. The student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh calendar day after enrollment, whichever is later.
6. If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid programs. The School will refund any money that the student has paid within 45 days after the school receives your notice of cancellation. Send cancellation notice to President, Pacific College, 3160 Red Hill Ave, Costa Mesa, CA 92626.
7. The institution shall advise each student that a notice of cancellation shall be in writing, and that a withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not limited to, a student's lack of attendance
