 - “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

Program Termination and Refunds: Under certain circumstances a program may be terminated and refunds may be due you. Following are the definitions relating to program termination:

A. Cancellation "Cancellation" occurs when a student cancels their FLS program before leaving their country or beginning their program. In this case, FLS will retain payments for application, accommodation placement, express mail and other applicable fees for services rendered (excluding tuition) not to exceed US $500.00.

B. Drop "Drop" (or "termination") means leaving the course after a student registers and begins their program.

Tuition Charges Refund: FLS shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for tuition, less an application fee of $150, if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later.

For students who withdraw before completing 60% of their program, FLS will retain a prorated amount of tuition based on the published price for the period studied.

For students who withdraw after completing 60% of their program, FLS will retain all charges for the program.

If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

If the student has obtained a loan to pay for an educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund.

If the student is eligible for a loan guaranteed by the federal or state government and the student defaults on the loan, both of the following may occur:

- (1) The federal or state government or a loan guarantee agency may take action against the student, including applying any income tax refund to which the person is entitled to reduce the balance owed on the loan.
- (2) The student may not be eligible for any other federal student financial aid at another institution or other government assistance until the loan is repaid.

In regard to program extensions: For students who withdraw before completing 60% of any additional program of study (extension), FLS will retain a prorated amount of tuition. For students who withdraw after completing 60% of any additional program, FLS will retain all of the charges for the program.

In order to request a refund, students should see a member of the school staff and request to sign a Deactivation Form.

Students who are terminated due to violation of FLS' written disciplinary and/or attendance policies, or local, state, or federal law are not eligible for a refund.

A. Cancellation "Cancellation" occurs when a student cancels their FLS program before leaving their country or beginning their program. In this case, FLS will retain payments for application, accommodation placement, express mail and other applicable fees for services rendered (excluding tuition) not to exceed US $500.00.

B. Drop "Drop" (or "termination") means leaving the course after a student registers and begins their program.

Tuition Charges Refund: FLS shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for tuition, less an application fee of $150, if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later.

For students who withdraw before completing 60% of their program, FLS will retain a prorated amount of tuition based on the published price for the period studied.

For students who withdraw after completing 60% of their program, FLS will retain all charges for the program.

If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

If the student has obtained a loan to pay for an educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund.

If the student is eligible for a loan guaranteed by the federal or state government and the student defaults on the loan, both of the following may occur:

- (1) The federal or state government or a loan guarantee agency may take action against the student, including applying any income tax refund to which the person is entitled to reduce the balance owed on the loan.
- (2) The student may not be eligible for any other federal student financial aid at another institution or other government assistance until the loan is repaid.

In regard to program extensions: For students who withdraw before completing 60% of any additional program of study (extension), FLS will retain a prorated amount of tuition. For students who withdraw after completing 60% of any additional program, FLS will retain all of the charges for the program.

In order to request a refund, students should see a member of the school staff and request to sign a Deactivation Form.

Students who are terminated due to violation of FLS' written disciplinary and/or attendance policies, or local, state, or federal law are not eligible for a refund.

Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- “150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

Program Termination and Refunds: Under certain circumstances a program may be terminated and refunds may be due you. Following are the definitions relating to program termination:

A. Cancellation "Cancellation" occurs when a student cancels their FLS program before leaving their country or beginning their program. In this case, FLS will retain payments for application, accommodation placement, express mail and other applicable fees for services rendered (excluding tuition) not to exceed US $500.00.

B. Drop "Drop" (or "termination") means leaving the course after a student registers and begins their program.

Tuition Charges Refund: FLS shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for tuition, less an application fee of $150, if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later.

For students who withdraw before completing 60% of their program, FLS will retain a prorated amount of tuition based on the published price for the period studied.

For students who withdraw after completing 60% of their program, FLS will retain all charges for the program.

If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

If the student has obtained a loan to pay for an educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund.

If the student is eligible for a loan guaranteed by the federal or state government and the student defaults on the loan, both of the following may occur:

- (1) The federal or state government or a loan guarantee agency may take action against the student, including applying any income tax refund to which the person is entitled to reduce the balance owed on the loan.
- (2) The student may not be eligible for any other federal student financial aid at another institution or other government assistance until the loan is repaid.

In regard to program extensions: For students who withdraw before completing 60% of any additional program of study (extension), FLS will retain a prorated amount of tuition. For students who withdraw after completing 60% of any additional program, FLS will retain all of the charges for the program.

In order to request a refund, students should see a member of the school staff and request to sign a Deactivation Form.

Students who are terminated due to violation of FLS' written disciplinary and/or attendance policies, or local, state, or federal law are not eligible for a refund.
