SEPARATE STATEMENT: STUDENT'S RIGHT TO WITHDRAW/CANCEL

Withdrawal and Tuition Refund Policy - A withdrawal is considered to be a complete withdrawal from the university. The date of withdrawal is the earlier of:

- The date the student notifies the university; or
- The ending date of the previous term if the student fails to register for a new term/session; or
- The date the student specifies as the date of withdrawal if this date is after the date of notification.

The withdrawal can be written or verbal and sent directly to either the student's program office or communicated directly to the Registrar's Office. When a student withdraws from the university prior to the end of a term/session all incomplete courses for which the student is currently registered at the time of withdrawal will be recorded as W (withdrawn) on the student's transcript. If the withdrawal is effective at the end of the term/session, the grade as supplied by the evaluating faculty for each course will be posted to the student's transcript. A student who fails to notify Union Institute & University of withdrawal from the program is financially responsible for all tuition and fees charged for the complete term/session. Tuition is not prorated for coursework with earned academic credit. Refunds are determined by the effective date of a withdrawal. Tuition is adjusted when students withdraw completely from the program. The amount of the refund, if applicable, will be determined by the effective date of the withdrawal per the Schedule of Refunds. To view the appropriate refund and registration policies see this web page: <https://myunion.edu/current-students/financial-resources/>

- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
- “First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

School Performance Fact Sheet CALENDAR YEARS 2017 and 2018

SEPARATE STATEMENT: STUDENT'S RIGHT TO WITHDRAW/CANCEL

Withdrawal and Tuition Refund Policy - A withdrawal is considered to be a complete withdrawal from the university. The date of withdrawal is the earlier of:

- The date the student notifies the university; or
- The ending date of the previous term if the student fails to register for a new term/session; or
- The date the student specifies as the date of withdrawal if this date is after the date of notification.

The withdrawal can be written or verbal and sent directly to either the student's program office or communicated directly to the Registrar's Office. When a student withdraws from the university prior to the end of a term/session all incomplete courses for which the student is currently registered at the time of withdrawal will be recorded as W (withdrawn) on the student's transcript. If the withdrawal is effective at the end of the term/session, the grade as supplied by the evaluating faculty for each course will be posted to the student's transcript. A student who fails to notify Union Institute & University of withdrawal from the program is financially responsible for all tuition and fees charged for the complete term/session. Tuition is not prorated for coursework with earned academic credit. Refunds are determined by the effective date of a withdrawal. Tuition is adjusted when students withdraw completely from the program. The amount of the refund, if applicable, will be determined by the effective date of the withdrawal per the Schedule of Refunds. To view the appropriate refund and registration policies see this web page: <https://myunion.edu/current-students/financial-resources/>

Withdrawal and Tuition Refund Policy - A withdrawal is considered to be a complete withdrawal from the university. The date of withdrawal is the earlier of:

- The date the student notifies the university; or
- The ending date of the previous term if the student fails to register for a new term/session; or
- The date the student specifies as the date of withdrawal if this date is after the date of notification.

The withdrawal can be written or verbal and sent directly to either the student's program office or communicated directly to the Registrar's Office. When a student withdraws from the university prior to the end of a term/session all incomplete courses for which the student is currently registered at the time of withdrawal will be recorded as W (withdrawn) on the student's transcript. If the withdrawal is effective at the end of the term/session, the grade as supplied by the evaluating faculty for each course will be posted to the student's transcript. A student who fails to notify Union Institute & University of withdrawal from the program is financially responsible for all tuition and fees charged for the complete term/session. Tuition is not prorated for coursework with earned academic credit. Refunds are determined by the effective date of a withdrawal. Tuition is adjusted when students withdraw completely from the program. The amount of the refund, if applicable, will be determined by the effective date of the withdrawal per the Schedule of Refunds. To view the appropriate refund and registration policies see this web page: <https://myunion.edu/current-students/financial-resources/>

Withdrawal and Tuition Refund Policy - A withdrawal is considered to be a complete withdrawal from the university. The date of withdrawal is the earlier of:

- The date the student notifies the university; or
- The ending date of the previous term if the student fails to register for a new term/session; or
- The date the student specifies as the date of withdrawal if this date is after the date of notification.

The withdrawal can be written or verbal and sent directly to either the student's program office or communicated directly to the Registrar's Office. When a student withdraws from the university prior to the end of a term/session all incomplete courses for which the student is currently registered at the time of withdrawal will be recorded as W (withdrawn) on the student's transcript. If the withdrawal is effective at the end of the term/session, the grade as supplied by the evaluating faculty for each course will be posted to the student's transcript. A student who fails to notify Union Institute & University of withdrawal from the program is financially responsible for all tuition and fees charged for the complete term/session. Tuition is not prorated for coursework with earned academic credit. Refunds are determined by the effective date of a withdrawal. Tuition is adjusted when students withdraw completely from the program. The amount of the refund, if applicable, will be determined by the effective date of the withdrawal per the Schedule of Refunds. To view the appropriate refund and registration policies see this web page: <https://myunion.edu/current-students/financial-resources/>

Withdrawal and Tuition Refund Policy - A withdrawal is considered to be a complete withdrawal from the university. The date of withdrawal is the earlier of:

- The date the student notifies the university; or
- The ending date of the previous term if the student fails to register for a new term/session; or
- The date the student specifies as the date of withdrawal if this date is after the date of notification.

The withdrawal can be written or verbal and sent directly to either the student's program office or communicated directly to the Registrar's Office. When a student withdraws from the university prior to the end of a term/session all incomplete courses for which the student is currently registered at the time of withdrawal will be recorded as W (withdrawn) on the student's transcript. If the withdrawal is effective at the end of the term/session, the grade as supplied by the evaluating faculty for each course will be posted to the student's transcript. A student who fails to notify Union Institute & University of withdrawal from the program is financially responsible for all tuition and fees charged for the complete term/session. Tuition is not prorated for coursework with earned academic credit. Refunds are determined by the effective date of a withdrawal. Tuition is adjusted when students withdraw completely from the program. The amount of the refund, if applicable, will be determined by the effective date of the withdrawal per the Schedule of Refunds. To view the appropriate refund and registration policies see this web page: <https://myunion.edu/current-students/financial-resources/>

Tuition is not prorated for coursework with earned academic credit. Refunds are determined by the effective date of a withdrawal. Tuition is adjusted when students withdraw completely from the program. The amount of the refund, if applicable, will be determined by the effective date of the withdrawal per the Schedule of Refunds. To view the appropriate refund and registration policies see this web page: <https://myunion.edu/current-students/financial-resources/>

Withdrawal and Tuition Refund Policy - A withdrawal is considered to be a complete withdrawal from the university. The date of withdrawal is the earlier of:

- The date the student notifies the university; or
- The ending date of the previous term if the student fails to register for a new term/session; or
- The date the student specifies as the date of withdrawal if this date is after the date of notification.

The withdrawal can be written or verbal and sent directly to either the student's program office or communicated directly to the Registrar's Office. When a student withdraws from the university prior to the end of a term/session all incomplete courses for which the student is currently registered at the time of withdrawal will be recorded as W (withdrawn) on the student's transcript. If the withdrawal is effective at the end of the term/session, the grade as supplied by the evaluating faculty for each course will be posted to the student's transcript. A student who fails to notify Union Institute & University of withdrawal from the program is financially responsible for all tuition and fees charged for the complete term/session. Withdrawal and Tuition Refund Policy - A withdrawal is considered to be a complete withdrawal from the university. The date of withdrawal is the earlier of:

- The date the student notifies the university; or
- The ending date of the previous term if the student fails to register for a new term/session; or
- The date the student specifies as the date of withdrawal if this date is after the date of notification.

The withdrawal can be written or verbal and sent directly to either the student's program office or communicated directly to the Registrar's Office. When a student withdraws from the university prior to the end of a term/session all incomplete courses for which the student is currently registered at the time of withdrawal will be recorded as W (withdrawn) on the student's transcript. If the withdrawal is effective at the end of the term/session, the grade as supplied by the evaluating faculty for each course will be posted to the student's transcript. A student who fails to notify Union Institute & University of withdrawal from the program is financially responsible for all tuition and fees charged for the complete term/session. Tuition is not prorated for coursework with earned academic credit. Refunds are determined by the effective date of a withdrawal. Tuition is adjusted when students withdraw completely from the program. The amount of the refund, if applicable, will be determined by the effective date of the withdrawal per the Schedule of Refunds. To view the appropriate refund and registration policies see this web page: <https://myunion.edu/current-students/financial-resources/>

Withdrawal and Tuition Refund Policy - A withdrawal is considered to be a complete withdrawal from the university. The date of withdrawal is the earlier of:

- The date the student notifies the university; or
- The ending date of the previous term if the student fails to register for a new term/session; or
- The date the student specifies as the date of withdrawal if this date is after the date of notification.

The withdrawal can be written or verbal and sent directly to either the student's program office or communicated directly to the Registrar's Office. When a student withdraws from the university prior to the end of a term/session all incomplete courses for which the student is currently registered at the time of withdrawal will be recorded as W (withdrawn) on the student's transcript. If the withdrawal is effective at the end of the term/session, the grade as supplied by the evaluating faculty for each course will be posted to the student's transcript. A student who fails to notify Union Institute & University of withdrawal from the program is financially responsible for all tuition and fees charged for the complete term/session. Tuition is not prorated for coursework with earned academic credit. Refunds are determined by the effective date of a withdrawal. Tuition is adjusted when students withdraw completely from the program. The amount of the refund, if applicable, will be determined by the effective date of the withdrawal per the Schedule of Refunds. To view the appropriate refund and registration policies see this web page: <https://myunion.edu/current-students/financial-resources/>

Withdrawal and Tuition Refund Policy - A withdrawal is considered to be a complete withdrawal from the university. The date of withdrawal is the earlier of:

- The date the student notifies the university; or
- The ending date of the previous term if the student fails to register for a new term/session; or
- The date the student specifies as the date of withdrawal if this date is after the date of notification.

The withdrawal can be written or verbal and sent directly to either the student's program office or communicated directly to the Registrar's Office. When a student withdraws from the university prior to the end of a term/session all incomplete courses for which the student is currently registered at the time of withdrawal will be recorded as W (withdrawn) on the student's transcript. If the withdrawal is effective at the end of the term/session, the grade as supplied by the evaluating faculty for each course will be posted to the student's transcript. A student who fails to notify Union Institute & University of withdrawal from the program is financially responsible for all tuition and fees charged for the complete term/session. Tuition is not prorated for coursework with earned academic credit. Refunds are determined by the effective date of a withdrawal. Tuition is adjusted when students withdraw completely from the program. The amount of the refund, if applicable, will be determined by the effective date of the withdrawal per the Schedule of Refunds. To view the appropriate refund and registration policies see this web page: <https://myunion.edu/current-students/financial-resources/>

Withdrawal and Tuition Refund Policy - A withdrawal is considered to be a complete withdrawal from the university. The date of withdrawal is the earlier of:

- The date the student notifies the university; or
- The ending date of the previous term if the student fails to register for a new term/session; or
- The date the student specifies as the date of withdrawal if this date is after the date of notification.

The withdrawal can be written or verbal and sent directly to either the student's program office or communicated directly to the Registrar's Office. When a student withdraws from the university prior to the end of a term/session all incomplete courses for which the student is currently registered at the time of withdrawal will be recorded as W (withdrawn) on the student's transcript. If the withdrawal is effective at the end of the term/session, the grade as supplied by the evaluating faculty for each course will be posted to the student's transcript. A student who fails to notify Union Institute & University of withdrawal from the program is financially responsible for all tuition and fees charged for the complete term/session. Tuition is not prorated for coursework with earned academic credit. Refunds are determined by the effective date of a withdrawal. Tuition is adjusted when students withdraw completely from the program. The amount of the refund, if applicable, will be determined by the effective date of the withdrawal per the Schedule of Refunds. To view the appropriate refund and registration policies see this web page: <https://myunion.edu/current-students/financial-resources/>

Withdrawal and Tuition Refund Policy - A withdrawal is considered to be a complete withdrawal from the university. The date of withdrawal is the earlier of:

- The date the student notifies the university; or
- The ending date of the previous term if the student fails to register for a new term/session; or
- The date the student specifies as the date of withdrawal if this date is after the date of notification.

The withdrawal can be written or verbal and sent directly to either the student's program office or communicated directly to the Registrar's Office. When a student withdraws from the university prior to the end of a term/session all incomplete courses for which the student is currently registered at the time of withdrawal will be recorded as W (withdrawn) on the student's transcript. If the withdrawal is effective at the end of the term/session, the grade as supplied by the evaluating faculty for each course will be posted to the student's transcript. A student who fails to notify Union Institute & University of withdrawal from the program is financially responsible for all tuition and fees charged for the complete term/session. Tuition is not prorated for coursework with earned academic credit. Refunds are determined by the effective date of a withdrawal. Tuition is adjusted when students withdraw completely from the program. The amount of the refund, if applicable, will be determined by the effective date of the withdrawal per the Schedule of Refunds. To view the appropriate refund and registration policies see this web page: <https://myunion.edu/current-students/financial-resources/>

Withdrawal and Tuition Refund Policy - A withdrawal is considered to be a complete withdrawal from the university. The date of withdrawal is the earlier of:

- The date the student notifies the university; or
- The ending date of the previous term if the student fails to register for a new term/session; or
- The date the student specifies as the date of withdrawal if this date is after the date of notification.

The withdrawal can be written or verbal and sent directly to either the student's program office or communicated directly to the Registrar's Office. When a student withdraws from the university prior to the end of a term/session all incomplete courses for which the student is currently registered at the time of withdrawal will be recorded as W (withdrawn) on the student's transcript. If the withdrawal is effective at the end of the term/session, the grade as supplied by the evaluating faculty for each course will be posted to the student's transcript. A student who fails to notify Union Institute & University of withdrawal from the program is financially responsible for all tuition and fees charged for the complete term/session. Tuition is not prorated for coursework with earned academic credit. Refunds are determined by the effective date of a withdrawal. Tuition is adjusted when students withdraw completely from the program. The amount of the refund, if applicable, will be determined by the effective date of the withdrawal per the Schedule of Refunds. To view the appropriate refund and registration policies see this web page: <https://myunion.edu/current-students/financial-resources/>

Withdrawal and Tuition Refund Policy - A withdrawal is considered to be a complete withdrawal from the university. The date of withdrawal is the earlier of:

- The date the student notifies the university; or
- The ending date of the previous term if the student fails to register for a new term/session; or
- The date the student specifies as the date of withdrawal if this date is after the date of notification.

The withdrawal can be written or verbal and sent directly to either the student's program office or communicated directly to the Registrar's Office. When a student withdraws from the university prior to the end of a term/session all incomplete courses for which the student is currently registered at the time of withdrawal will be recorded as W (withdrawn) on the student's transcript. If the withdrawal is effective at the end of the term/session, the grade as supplied by the evaluating faculty for each course will be posted to the student's transcript. A student who fails to notify Union Institute & University of withdrawal from the program is financially responsible for all tuition and fees charged for the complete term/session. Tuition is not prorated for coursework with earned academic credit. Refunds are determined by the effective date of a withdrawal. Tuition is adjusted when students withdraw completely from the program. The amount of the refund, if applicable, will be determined by the effective date of the withdrawal per the Schedule of Refunds. To view the appropriate refund and registration policies see this web page: <https://myunion.edu/current-students/financial-resources/>

Withdrawal and Tuition Refund Policy - A withdrawal is considered to be a complete withdrawal from the university. The date of withdrawal is the earlier of:

- The date the student notifies the university; or
- The ending date of the previous term if the student fails to register for a new term/session; or
- The date the student specifies as the date of withdrawal if this date is after the date of notification.

The withdrawal can be written or verbal and sent directly to either the student's program office or communicated directly to the Registrar's Office. When a student withdraws from the university prior to the end of a term/session all incomplete courses for which the student is currently registered at the time of withdrawal will be recorded as W (withdrawn) on the student's transcript. If the withdrawal is effective at the end of the term/session, the grade as supplied by the evaluating faculty for each course will be posted to the student's transcript. A student who fails to notify Union Institute & University of withdrawal from the program is financially responsible for all tuition and fees charged for the complete term/session. Tuition is not prorated for coursework with earned academic credit. Refunds are determined by the effective date of a withdrawal. Tuition is adjusted when students withdraw completely from the program. The amount of the refund, if applicable, will be determined by the effective date of the withdrawal per the Schedule of Refunds. To view the appropriate refund and registration policies see this web page: <https://myunion.edu/current-students/financial-resources/>

Withdrawal and Tuition Refund Policy - A withdrawal is considered to be a complete withdrawal from the university. The date of withdrawal is the earlier of:

- The date the student notifies the university; or
- The ending date of the previous term if the student fails to register for a new term/session; or
- The date the student specifies as the date of withdrawal if this date is after the date of notification.

The withdrawal can be written or verbal and sent directly to either the student's program office or communicated directly to the Registrar's Office. When a student withdraws from the university prior to the end of a term/session all incomplete courses for which the student is currently registered at the time of withdrawal will be recorded as W (withdrawn) on the student's transcript. If the withdrawal is effective at the end of the term/session, the grade as supplied by the evaluating faculty for each course will be posted to the student's transcript. A student who fails to notify Union Institute & University of withdrawal from the program is financially responsible for all tuition and fees charged for the complete term/session. Tuition is not prorated for coursework with earned academic credit. Refunds are determined by the effective date of a withdrawal. Tuition is adjusted when students withdraw completely from the program. The amount of the refund, if applicable, will be determined by the effective date of the withdrawal per the Schedule of Refunds. To view the appropriate refund and registration policies see this web page: <https://myunion.edu/current-students/financial-resources/>

Withdrawal and Tuition Refund Policy - A withdrawal is considered to be a complete withdrawal from the university. The date of withdrawal is the earlier of:

- The date the student notifies the university; or
- The ending date of the previous term if the student fails to register for a new term/session; or
- The date the student specifies as the date of withdrawal if this date is after the date of notification.

The withdrawal can be written or verbal and sent directly to either the student's program office or communicated directly to the Registrar's Office. When a student withdraws from the university prior to the end of a term/session all incomplete courses for which the student is currently registered at the time of withdrawal will be recorded as W (withdrawn) on the student's transcript. If the withdrawal is effective at the end of the term/session, the grade as supplied by the evaluating faculty for each course will be posted to the student's transcript. A student who fails to notify Union Institute & University of withdrawal from the program is financially responsible for all tuition and fees charged for the complete term/session. Tuition is not prorated for coursework with earned academic credit. Refunds are determined by the effective date of a withdrawal. Tuition is adjusted when students withdraw completely from the program. The amount of the refund, if applicable, will be determined by the effective date of the withdrawal per the Schedule of Refunds.
