- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

'Cancellation' refers to the period up to the start date of the first course you are attending. Cancellations must be made in writing and in these cases, providing the student never attends, 100% of the tuition and accommodation fees will be refunded, less any actual housing costs incurred; in all cases, the courier fee, enrollment fee and any other service charges (e.g. airport transfer fee, medical insurance, campus fee, program supplement fee, etc.) are non-refundable up to a maximum charge of USD500 (USD250 in California). Cancellations made prior to the course start date but after arrival in the US on a Kaplan-issued Form I-20, will result in forfeiture of tuition, and any associated accommodation fees, equal to the first 4 weeks for courses between 1-11 weeks and the first 6 weeks for courses 12 weeks or longer (does not apply in California).

As an institution that does not participate in the federal student financial aid programs, Kaplan International shall do the following: (a) The institution shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or applicable fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars (USD250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later. (b) The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal. (c) The institution shall provide a pro rata refund of nonfederal student financial aid program moneys paid for institutional charges to students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance.

- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

'Cancellation' refers to the period up to the start date of the first course you are attending. Cancellations must be made in writing and in these cases, providing the student never attends, 100% of the tuition and accommodation fees will be refunded, less any actual housing costs incurred; in all cases, the courier fee, enrollment fee and any other service charges (e.g. airport transfer fee, medical insurance, campus fee, program supplement fee, etc.) are non-refundable up to a maximum charge of USD500 (USD250 in California). Cancellations made prior to the course start date but after arrival in the US on a Kaplan-issued Form I-20, will result in forfeiture of tuition, and any associated accommodation fees, equal to the first 4 weeks for courses between 1-11 weeks and the first 6 weeks for courses 12 weeks or longer (does not apply in California).

As an institution that does not participate in the federal student financial aid programs, Kaplan International shall do the following: (a) The institution shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or applicable fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars (USD250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later. (b) The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal. (c) The institution shall provide a pro rata refund of nonfederal student financial aid program moneys paid for institutional charges to students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

'Cancellation' refers to the period up to the start date of the first course you are attending. Cancellations must be made in writing and in these cases, providing the student never attends, 100% of the tuition and accommodation fees will be refunded, less any actual housing costs incurred; in all cases, the courier fee, enrollment fee and any other service charges (e.g. airport transfer fee, medical insurance, campus fee, program supplement fee, etc.) are non-refundable up to a maximum charge of USD500 (USD250 in California). Cancellations made prior to the course start date but after arrival in the US on a Kaplan-issued Form I-20, will result in forfeiture of tuition, and any associated accommodation fees, equal to the first 4 weeks for courses between 1-11 weeks and the first 6 weeks for courses 12 weeks or longer (does not apply in California).

As an institution that does not participate in the federal student financial aid programs, Kaplan International shall do the following: (a) The institution shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or applicable fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars (USD250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later. (b) The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal. (c) The institution shall provide a pro rata refund of nonfederal student financial aid program moneys paid for institutional charges to students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance.

- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

'Cancellation' refers to the period up to the start date of the first course you are attending. Cancellations must be made in writing and in these cases, providing the student never attends, 100% of the tuition and accommodation fees will be refunded, less any actual housing costs incurred; in all cases, the courier fee, enrollment fee and any other service charges (e.g. airport transfer fee, medical insurance, campus fee, program supplement fee, etc.) are non-refundable up to a maximum charge of USD500 (USD250 in California). Cancellations made prior to the course start date but after arrival in the US on a Kaplan-issued Form I-20, will result in forfeiture of tuition, and any associated accommodation fees, equal to the first 4 weeks for courses between 1-11 weeks and the first 6 weeks for courses 12 weeks or longer (does not apply in California).

As an institution that does not participate in the federal student financial aid programs, Kaplan International shall do the following: (a) The institution shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or applicable fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars (USD250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later. (b) The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal. (c) The institution shall provide a pro rata refund of nonfederal student financial aid program moneys paid for institutional charges to students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance.

- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

'Cancellation' refers to the period up to the start date of the first course you are attending. Cancellations must be made in writing and in these cases, providing the student never attends, 100% of the tuition and accommodation fees will be refunded, less any actual housing costs incurred; in all cases, the courier fee, enrollment fee and any other service charges (e.g. airport transfer fee, medical insurance, campus fee, program supplement fee, etc.) are non-refundable up to a maximum charge of USD500 (USD250 in California). Cancellations made prior to the course start date but after arrival in the US on a Kaplan-issued Form I-20, will result in forfeiture of tuition, and any associated accommodation fees, equal to the first 4 weeks for courses between 1-11 weeks and the first 6 weeks for courses 12 weeks or longer (does not apply in California).

As an institution that does not participate in the federal student financial aid programs, Kaplan International shall do the following: (a) The institution shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or applicable fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars (USD250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later. (b) The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal. (c) The institution shall provide a pro rata refund of nonfederal student financial aid program moneys paid for institutional charges to students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

'Cancellation' refers to the period up to the start date of the first course you are attending. Cancellations must be made in writing and in these cases, providing the student never attends, 100% of the tuition and accommodation fees will be refunded, less any actual housing costs incurred; in all cases, the courier fee, enrollment fee and any other service charges (e.g. airport transfer fee, medical insurance, campus fee, program supplement fee, etc.) are non-refundable up to a maximum charge of USD500 (USD250 in California). Cancellations made prior to the course start date but after arrival in the US on a Kaplan-issued Form I-20, will result in forfeiture of tuition, and any associated accommodation fees, equal to the first 4 weeks for courses between 1-11 weeks and the first 6 weeks for courses 12 weeks or longer (does not apply in California).

As an institution that does not participate in the federal student financial aid programs, Kaplan International shall do the following: (a) The institution shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or applicable fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars (USD250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later. (b) The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal. (c) The institution shall provide a pro rata refund of nonfederal student financial aid program moneys paid for institutional charges to students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance.

- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

'Cancellation' refers to the period up to the start date of the first course you are attending. Cancellations must be made in writing and in these cases, providing the student never attends, 100% of the tuition and accommodation fees will be refunded, less any actual housing costs incurred; in all cases, the courier fee, enrollment fee and any other service charges (e.g. airport transfer fee, medical insurance, campus fee, program supplement fee, etc.) are non-refundable up to a maximum charge of USD500 (USD250 in California). Cancellations made prior to the course start date but after arrival in the US on a Kaplan-issued Form I-20, will result in forfeiture of tuition, and any associated accommodation fees, equal to the first 4 weeks for courses between 1-11 weeks and the first 6 weeks for courses 12 weeks or longer (does not apply in California).

As an institution that does not participate in the federal student financial aid programs, Kaplan International shall do the following: (a) The institution shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or applicable fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars (USD250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later. (b) The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal. (c) The institution shall provide a pro rata refund of nonfederal student financial aid program moneys paid for institutional charges to students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance.

- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

'Cancellation' refers to the period up to the start date of the first course you are attending. Cancellations must be made in writing and in these cases, providing the student never attends, 100% of the tuition and accommodation fees will be refunded, less any actual housing costs incurred; in all cases, the courier fee, enrollment fee and any other service charges (e.g. airport transfer fee, medical insurance, campus fee, program supplement fee, etc.) are non-refundable up to a maximum charge of USD500 (USD250 in California). Cancellations made prior to the course start date but after arrival in the US on a Kaplan-issued Form I-20, will result in forfeiture of tuition, and any associated accommodation fees, equal to the first 4 weeks for courses between 1-11 weeks and the first 6 weeks for courses 12 weeks or longer (does not apply in California).

As an institution that does not participate in the federal student financial aid programs, Kaplan International shall do the following: (a) The institution shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or applicable fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars (USD250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later. (b) The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal. (c) The institution shall provide a pro rata refund of nonfederal student financial aid program moneys paid for institutional charges to students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

'Cancellation' refers to the period up to the start date of the first course you are attending. Cancellations must be made in writing and in these cases, providing the student never attends, 100% of the tuition and accommodation fees will be refunded, less any actual housing costs incurred; in all cases, the courier fee, enrollment fee and any other service charges (e.g. airport transfer fee, medical insurance, campus fee, program supplement fee, etc.) are non-refundable up to a maximum charge of USD500 (USD250 in California). Cancellations made prior to the course start date but after arrival in the US on a Kaplan-issued Form I-20, will result in forfeiture of tuition, and any associated accommodation fees, equal to the first 4 weeks for courses between 1-11 weeks and the first 6 weeks for courses 12 weeks or longer (does not apply in California).

As an institution that does not participate in the federal student financial aid programs, Kaplan International shall do the following: (a) The institution shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or applicable fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars (USD250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later. (b) The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal. (c) The institution shall provide a pro rata refund of nonfederal student financial aid program moneys paid for institutional charges to students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance.

- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

'Cancellation' refers to the period up to the start date of the first course you are attending. Cancellations must be made in writing and in these cases, providing the student never attends, 100% of the tuition and accommodation fees will be refunded, less any actual housing costs incurred; in all cases, the courier fee, enrollment fee and any other service charges (e.g. airport transfer fee, medical insurance, campus fee, program supplement fee, etc.) are non-refundable up to a maximum charge of USD500 (USD250 in California). Cancellations made prior to the course start date but after arrival in the US on a Kaplan-issued Form I-20, will result in forfeiture of tuition, and any associated accommodation fees, equal to the first 4 weeks for courses between 1-11 weeks and the first 6 weeks for courses 12 weeks or longer (does not apply in California).

As an institution that does not participate in the federal student financial aid programs, Kaplan International shall do the following: (a) The institution shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or applicable fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars (USD250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later. (b) The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal. (c) The institution shall provide a pro rata refund of nonfederal student financial aid program moneys paid for institutional charges to students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance.

- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

'Cancellation' refers to the period up to the start date of the first course you are attending. Cancellations must be made in writing and in these cases, providing the student never attends, 100% of the tuition and accommodation fees will be refunded, less any actual housing costs incurred; in all cases, the courier fee, enrollment fee and any other service charges (e.g. airport transfer fee, medical insurance, campus fee, program supplement fee, etc.) are non-refundable up to a maximum charge of USD500 (USD250 in California). Cancellations made prior to the course start date but after arrival in the US on a Kaplan-issued Form I-20, will result in forfeiture of tuition, and any associated accommodation fees, equal to the first 4 weeks for courses between 1-11 weeks and the first 6 weeks for courses 12 weeks or longer (does not apply in California).

As an institution that does not participate in the federal student financial aid programs, Kaplan International shall do the following: (a) The institution shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or applicable fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars (USD250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later. (b) The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal. (c) The institution shall provide a pro rata refund of nonfederal student financial aid program moneys paid for institutional charges to students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance.

'Cancellation' refers to the period up to the start date of the first course you are attending. Cancellations must be made in writing and in these cases, providing the student never attends, 100% of the tuition and accommodation fees will be refunded, less any actual housing costs incurred; in all cases, the courier fee, enrollment fee and any other service charges (e.g. airport transfer fee, medical insurance, campus fee, program supplement fee, etc.) are non-refundable up to a maximum charge of USD500 (USD250 in California). Cancellations made prior to the course start date but after arrival in the US on a Kaplan-issued Form I-20, will result in forfeiture of tuition, and any associated accommodation fees, equal to the first 4 weeks for courses between 1-11 weeks and the first 6 weeks for courses 12 weeks or longer (does not apply in California).

As an institution that does not participate in the federal student financial aid programs, Kaplan International shall do the following: (a) The institution shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or applicable fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars (USD250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later. (b) The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal. (c) The institution shall provide a pro rata refund of nonfederal student financial aid program moneys paid for institutional charges to students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance.

- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

'Cancellation' refers to the period up to the start date of the first course you are attending. Cancellations must be made in writing and in these cases, providing the student never attends, 100% of the tuition and accommodation fees will be refunded, less any actual housing costs incurred; in all cases, the courier fee, enrollment fee and any other service charges (e.g. airport transfer fee, medical insurance, campus fee, program supplement fee, etc.) are non-refundable up to a maximum charge of USD500 (USD250 in California). Cancellations made prior to the course start date but after arrival in the US on a Kaplan-issued Form I-20, will result in forfeiture of tuition, and any associated accommodation fees, equal to the first 4 weeks for courses between 1-11 weeks and the first 6 weeks for courses 12 weeks or longer (does not apply in California).

As an institution that does not participate in the federal student financial aid programs, Kaplan International shall do the following: (a) The institution shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or applicable fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars (USD250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later. (b) The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal. (c) The institution shall provide a pro rata refund of nonfederal student financial aid program moneys paid for institutional charges to students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance.

- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

'Cancellation' refers to the period up to the start date of the first course you are attending. Cancellations must be made in writing and in these cases, providing the student never attends, 100% of the tuition and accommodation fees will be refunded, less any actual housing costs incurred; in all cases, the courier fee, enrollment fee and any other service charges (e.g. airport transfer fee, medical insurance, campus fee, program supplement fee, etc.) are non-refundable up to a maximum charge of USD500 (USD250 in California). Cancellations made prior to the course start date but after arrival in the US on a Kaplan-issued Form I-20, will result in forfeiture of tuition, and any associated accommodation fees, equal to the first 4 weeks for courses between 1-11 weeks and the first 6 weeks for courses 12 weeks or longer (does not apply in California).

As an institution that does not participate in the federal student financial aid programs, Kaplan International shall do the following: (a) The institution shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or applicable fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars (USD250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later. (b) The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal. (c) The institution shall provide a pro rata refund of nonfederal student financial aid program moneys paid for institutional charges to students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance.

Cancellations must be made in writing and in these cases, providing the student never attends, 100% of the tuition and accommodation fees will be refunded, less any actual housing costs incurred; in all cases, the courier fee, enrollment fee and any other service charges (e.g. airport transfer fee, medical insurance, campus fee, program supplement fee, etc.) are non-refundable up to a maximum charge of USD500 (USD250 in California). Cancellations made prior to the course start date but after arrival in the US on a Kaplan-issued Form I-20, will result in forfeiture of tuition, and any associated accommodation fees, equal to the first 4 weeks for courses between 1-11 weeks and the first 6 weeks for courses 12 weeks or longer (does not apply in California).

As an institution that does not participate in the federal student financial aid programs, Kaplan International shall do the following: (a) The institution shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or applicable fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars (USD250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later. (b) The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal. (c) The institution shall provide a pro rata refund of nonfederal student financial aid program moneys paid for institutional charges to students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance.

- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

'Cancellation' refers to the period up to the start date of the first course you are attending. Cancellations must be made in writing and in these cases, providing the student never attends, 100% of the tuition and accommodation fees will be refunded, less any actual housing costs incurred; in all cases, the courier fee, enrollment fee and any other service charges (e.g. airport transfer fee, medical insurance, campus fee, program supplement fee, etc.) are non-refundable up to a maximum charge of USD500 (USD250 in California). Cancellations made prior to the course start date but after arrival in the US on a Kaplan-issued Form I-20, will result in forfeiture of tuition, and any associated accommodation fees, equal to the first 4 weeks for courses between 1-11 weeks and the first 6 weeks for courses 12 weeks or longer (does not apply in California).

As an institution that does not participate in the federal student financial aid programs, Kaplan International shall do the following: (a) The institution shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or applicable fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars (USD250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later. (b) The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal. (c) The institution shall provide a pro rata refund of nonfederal student financial aid program moneys paid for institutional charges to students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance.

- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

'Cancellation' refers to the period up to the start date of the first course you are attending. Cancellations must be made in writing and in these cases, providing the student never attends, 100% of the tuition and accommodation fees will be refunded, less any actual housing costs incurred; in all cases, the courier fee, enrollment fee and any other service charges (e.g. airport transfer fee, medical insurance, campus fee, program supplement fee, etc.) are non-refundable up to a maximum charge of USD500 (USD250 in California). Cancellations made prior to the course start date but after arrival in the US on a Kaplan-issued Form I-20, will result in forfeiture of tuition, and any associated accommodation fees, equal to the first 4 weeks for courses between 1-11 weeks and the first 6 weeks for courses 12 weeks or longer (does not apply in California).

As an institution that does not participate in the federal student financial aid programs, Kaplan International shall do the following: (a) The institution shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or applicable fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars (USD250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later. (b) The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal. (c) The institution shall provide a pro rata refund of nonfederal student financial aid program moneys paid for institutional charges to students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance.

- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

'Cancellation' refers to the period up to the start date of the first course you are attending. Cancellations must be made in writing and in these cases, providing the student never attends, 100% of the tuition and accommodation fees will be refunded, less any actual housing costs incurred; in all cases, the courier fee, enrollment fee and any other service charges (e.g. airport transfer fee, medical insurance, campus fee, program supplement fee, etc.) are non-refundable up to a maximum charge of USD500 (USD250 in California). Cancellations made prior to the course start date but after arrival in the US on a Kaplan-issued Form I-20, will result in forfeiture of tuition, and any associated accommodation fees, equal to the first 4 weeks for courses between 1-11 weeks and the first 6 weeks for courses 12 weeks or longer (does not apply in California).

As an institution that does not participate in the federal student financial aid programs, Kaplan International shall do the following: (a) The institution shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or applicable fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars (USD250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later. (b) The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal. (c) The institution shall provide a pro rata refund of nonfederal student financial aid program moneys paid for institutional charges to students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance.

- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

'Cancellation' refers to the period up to the start date of the first course you are attending. Cancellations must be made in writing and in these cases, providing the student never attends, 100% of the tuition and accommodation fees will be refunded, less any actual housing costs incurred; in all cases, the courier fee, enrollment fee and any other service charges (e.g. airport transfer fee, medical insurance, campus fee, program supplement fee, etc.) are non-refundable up to a maximum charge of USD500 (USD250 in California). Cancellations made prior to the course start date but after arrival in the US on a Kaplan-issued Form I-20, will result in forfeiture of tuition, and any associated accommodation fees, equal to the first 4 weeks for courses between 1-11 weeks and the first 6 weeks for courses 12 weeks or longer (does not apply in California).

As an institution that does not participate in the federal student financial aid programs, Kaplan International shall do the following: (a) The institution shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or applicable fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars (USD250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later. (b) The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal. (c) The institution shall provide a pro rata refund of nonfederal student financial aid program moneys paid for institutional charges to students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

'Cancellation' refers to the period up to the start date of the first course you are attending. Cancellations must be made in writing and in these cases, providing the student never attends, 100% of the tuition and accommodation fees will be refunded, less any actual housing costs incurred; in all cases, the courier fee, enrollment fee and any other service charges (e.g. airport transfer fee, medical insurance, campus fee, program supplement fee, etc.) are non-refundable up to a maximum charge of USD500 (USD250 in California). Cancellations made prior to the course start date but after arrival in the US on a Kaplan-issued Form I-20, will result in forfeiture of tuition, and any associated accommodation fees, equal to the first 4 weeks for courses between 1-11 weeks and the first 6 weeks for courses 12 weeks or longer (does not apply in California).

As an institution that does not participate in the federal student financial aid programs, Kaplan International shall do the following: (a) The institution shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or applicable fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars (USD250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later. (b) The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal. (c) The institution shall provide a pro rata refund of nonfederal student financial aid program moneys paid for institutional charges to students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance.

- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

'Cancellation' refers to the period up to the start date of the first course you are attending. Cancellations must be made in writing and in these cases, providing the student never attends, 100% of the tuition and accommodation fees will be refunded, less any actual housing costs incurred; in all cases, the courier fee, enrollment fee and any other service charges (e.g. airport transfer fee, medical insurance, campus fee, program supplement fee, etc.) are non-refundable up to a maximum charge of USD500 (USD250 in California). Cancellations made prior to the course start date but after arrival in the US on a Kaplan-issued Form I-20, will result in forfeiture of tuition, and any associated accommodation fees, equal to the first 4 weeks for courses between 1-11 weeks and the first 6 weeks for courses 12 weeks or longer (does not apply in California).

As an institution that does not participate in the federal student financial aid programs, Kaplan International shall do the following: (a) The institution shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or applicable fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars (USD250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later. (b) The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal. (c) The institution shall provide a pro rata refund of nonfederal student financial aid program moneys paid for institutional charges to students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance.

- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

'Cancellation' refers to the period up to the start date of the first course you are attending. Cancellations must be made in writing and in these cases, providing the student never attends, 100% of the tuition and accommodation fees will be refunded, less any actual housing costs incurred; in all cases, the courier fee, enrollment fee and any other service charges (e.g. airport transfer fee, medical insurance, campus fee, program supplement fee, etc.) are non-refundable up to a maximum charge of USD500 (USD250 in California). Cancellations made prior to the course start date but after arrival in the US on a Kaplan-issued Form I-20, will result in forfeiture of tuition, and any associated accommodation fees, equal to the first 4 weeks for courses between 1-11 weeks and the first 6 weeks for courses 12 weeks or longer (does not apply in California).

As an institution that does not participate in the federal student financial aid programs, Kaplan International shall do the following: (a) The institution shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or applicable fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars (USD250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later. (b) The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal. (c) The institution shall provide a pro rata refund of nonfederal student financial aid program moneys paid for institutional charges to students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance.

- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

'Cancellation' refers to the period up to the start date of the first course you are attending. Cancellations must be made in writing and in these cases, providing the student never attends, 100% of the tuition and accommodation fees will be refunded, less any actual housing costs incurred; in all cases, the courier fee, enrollment fee and any other service charges (e.g. airport transfer fee, medical insurance, campus fee, program supplement fee, etc.) are non-refundable up to a maximum charge of USD500 (USD250 in California). Cancellations made prior to the course start date but after arrival in the US on a Kaplan-issued Form I-20, will result in forfeiture of tuition, and any associated accommodation fees, equal to the first 4 weeks for courses between 1-11 weeks and the first 6 weeks for courses 12 weeks or longer (does not apply in California).

As an institution that does not participate in the federal student financial aid programs, Kaplan International shall do the following: (a) The institution shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or applicable fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars (USD250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later. (b) The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal. (c) The institution shall provide a pro rata refund of nonfederal student financial aid program moneys paid for institutional charges to students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance.

- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

'Cancellation' refers to the period up to the start date of the first course you are attending. Cancellations must be made in writing and in these cases, providing the student never attends, 100% of the tuition and accommodation fees will be refunded, less any actual housing costs incurred; in all cases, the courier fee, enrollment fee and any other service charges (e.g. airport transfer fee, medical insurance, campus fee, program supplement fee, etc.) are non-refundable up to a maximum charge of USD500 (USD250 in California). Cancellations made prior to the course start date but after arrival in the US on a Kaplan-issued Form I-20, will result in forfeiture of tuition, and any associated accommodation fees, equal to the first 4 weeks for courses between 1-11 weeks and the first 6 weeks for courses 12 weeks or longer (does not apply in California).

As an institution that does not participate in the federal student financial aid programs, Kaplan International shall do the following: (a) The institution shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or applicable fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars (USD250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later. (b) The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal. (c) The institution shall provide a pro rata refund of nonfederal student financial aid program moneys paid for institutional charges to students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance.

- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completed the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
- “First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

'Cancellation' refers to the period up to the start date of the first course you are attending. Cancellations must be made in writing and in these cases, providing the student never attends, 100% of the tuition and accommodation fees will be refunded, less any actual housing costs incurred; in all cases, the courier fee, enrollment fee and any other service charges (e.g. airport transfer fee, medical insurance, campus fee, program supplement fee, etc.) are non-refundable up to a maximum charge of USD500 (USD250 in California). Cancellations made prior to the course start date but after arrival in the US on a Kaplan-issued Form I-20, will result in forfeiture of tuition, and any associated accommodation fees, equal to the first 4 weeks for courses between 1-11 weeks and the first 6 weeks for courses 12 weeks or longer (does not apply in California).

As an institution that does not participate in the federal student financial aid programs, Kaplan International shall do the following: (a) The institution shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or applicable fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars (USD250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later. (b) The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal. (c) The institution shall provide a pro rata refund of nonfederal student financial aid program moneys paid for institutional charges to students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance.

- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

'Cancellation' refers to the period up to the start date of the first course you are attending. Cancellations must be made in writing and in these cases, providing the student never attends, 100% of the tuition and accommodation fees will be refunded, less any actual housing costs incurred; in all cases, the courier fee, enrollment fee and any other service charges (e.g. airport transfer fee, medical insurance, campus fee, program supplement fee, etc.) are non-refundable up to a maximum charge of USD500 (USD250 in California). Cancellations made prior to the course start date but after arrival in the US on a Kaplan-issued Form I-20, will result in forfeiture of tuition, and any associated accommodation fees, equal to the first 4 weeks for courses between 1-11 weeks and the first 6 weeks for courses 12 weeks or longer (does not apply in California).

As an institution that does not participate in the federal student financial aid programs, Kaplan International shall do the following: (a) The institution shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or applicable fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars (USD250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later. (b) The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal. (c) The institution shall provide a pro rata refund of nonfederal student financial aid program moneys paid for institutional charges to students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance.

- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

'Cancellation' refers to the period up to the start date of the first course you are attending. Cancellations must be made in writing and in these cases, providing the student never attends, 100% of the tuition and accommodation fees will be refunded, less any actual housing costs incurred; in all cases, the courier fee, enrollment fee and any other service charges (e.g. airport transfer fee, medical insurance, campus fee, program supplement fee, etc.) are non-refundable up to a maximum charge of USD500 (USD250 in California). Cancellations made prior to the course start date but after arrival in the US on a Kaplan-issued Form I-20, will result in forfeiture of tuition, and any associated accommodation fees, equal to the first 4 weeks for courses between 1-11 weeks and the first 6 weeks for courses 12 weeks or longer (does not apply in California).

As an institution that does not participate in the federal student financial aid programs, Kaplan International shall do the following: (a) The institution shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or applicable fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars (USD250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later. (b) The institution shall pay or credit refunds within 45 days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal. (c) The institution shall provide a pro rata refund of nonfederal student financial aid program moneys paid for institutional charges to students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance.
