STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

The student has the right to cancel and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. You have the right to cancel for a course of instruction including any equipment such as books, materials and supplies or any other goods related to the instruction offered in this agreement, if notice of cancellation is made prior to or on the first day of instruction.

If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds. §94911(e)(2)

Cancellation shall occur when you have given notice of cancellation to the Campus of Summit College listed on the top of the page of this agreement or verbally to the Admissions Department. The notice of cancellation, if sent by mail to the address listed with postage prepaid should be directed to the attention of Admissions Department. The notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by this agreement.

If the school has given you any equipment, including books or other materials, you must return them to the school within 7 days following the date of your notice of cancellation. If you fail to return this equipment, including books or other materials, in new condition within the 7-day period, the school will deduct its documented cost for the equipment from any refund that may be due to you. Once you pay for the equipment, it is yours to keep without further obligation. If you cancel this agreement, the school will issue a refund, less any non-refundable fees and deduction for equipment not returned within the 7-day period and in new condition, within 20 days after your notice of cancellation is received.

If you have any complaints, questions or problems which you cannot work out with the school, write or call:

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

The student has the right to cancel and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. You have the right to cancel for a course of instruction including any equipment such as books, materials and supplies or any other goods related to the instruction offered in this agreement, if notice of cancellation is made prior to or on the first day of instruction.

If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds. §94911(e)(2)

Cancellation shall occur when you have given notice of cancellation to the Campus of Summit College listed on the top of the page of this agreement or verbally to the Admissions Department. The notice of cancellation, if sent by mail to the address listed with postage prepaid should be directed to the attention of Admissions Department. The notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by this agreement.

If the school has given you any equipment, including books or other materials, you must return them to the school within 7 days following the date of your notice of cancellation. If you fail to return this equipment, including books or other materials, in new condition within the 7- day period, the school will deduct its documented cost for the equipment from any refund that may be due to you. Once you pay for the equipment, it is yours to keep without further obligation. If you cancel this agreement, the school will issue a refund, less any non- refundable fees and deduction for equipment not returned within the 7-day period and in new condition, within 20 days after your notice of cancellation is received.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

The student has the right to cancel and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. You have the right to cancel for a course of instruction including any equipment such as books, materials and supplies or any other goods related to the instruction offered in this agreement, if notice of cancellation is made prior to or on the first day of instruction.

If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds. §94911(e)(2)

Cancellation shall occur when you have given notice of cancellation to the Campus of Summit College listed on the top of the page of this agreement or verbally to the Admissions Department. The notice of cancellation, if sent by mail to the address listed with postage prepaid should be directed to the attention of Admissions Department. The notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by this agreement.

If the school has given you any equipment, including books or other materials, you must return them to the school within 7 days following the date of your notice of cancellation. If you fail to return this equipment, including books or other materials, in new condition within the 7-day period, the school will deduct its documented cost for the equipment from any refund that may be due to you. Once you pay for the equipment, it is yours to keep without further obligation. If you cancel this agreement, the school will issue a refund, less any non-refundable fees and deduction for equipment not returned within the 7-day period and in new condition, within 20 days after your notice of cancellation is received.

If you have any complaints, questions or problems which you cannot work out with the school, write or call:

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

The student has the right to cancel and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. You have the right to cancel for a course of instruction including any equipment such as books, materials and supplies or any other goods related to the instruction offered in this agreement, if notice of cancellation is made prior to or on the first day of instruction.

If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds. §94911(e)(2)

Cancellation shall occur when you have given notice of cancellation to the Campus of Summit College listed on the top of the page of this agreement or verbally to the Admissions Department. The notice of cancellation, if sent by mail to the address listed with postage prepaid should be directed to the attention of Admissions Department. The notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by this agreement.

If the school has given you any equipment, including books or other materials, you must return them to the school within 7 days following the date of your notice of cancellation. If you fail to return this equipment, including books or other materials, in new condition within the 7-day period, the school will deduct its documented cost for the equipment from any refund that may be due to you. Once you pay for the equipment, it is yours to keep without further obligation. If you cancel this agreement, the school will issue a refund, less any non-refundable fees and deduction for equipment not returned within the 7-day period and in new condition, within 20 days after your notice of cancellation is received.

If you have any complaints, questions or problems which you cannot work out with the school, write or call:

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

The student has the right to cancel and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. You have the right to cancel for a course of instruction including any equipment such as books, materials and supplies or any other goods related to the instruction offered in this agreement, if notice of cancellation is made prior to or on the first day of instruction.

If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds. §94911(e)(2)

Cancellation shall occur when you have given notice of cancellation to the Campus of Summit College listed on the top of the page of this agreement or verbally to the Admissions Department. The notice of cancellation, if sent by mail to the address listed with postage prepaid should be directed to the attention of Admissions Department. The notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by this agreement.

If the school has given you any equipment, including books or other materials, you must return them to the school within 7 days following the date of your notice of cancellation. If you fail to return this equipment, including books or other materials, in new condition within the 7-day period, the school will deduct its documented cost for the equipment from any refund that may be due to you. Once you pay for the equipment, it is yours to keep without further obligation. If you cancel this agreement, the school will issue a refund, less any non-refundable fees and deduction for equipment not returned within the 7-day period and in new condition, within 20 days after your notice of cancellation is received.

If you have any complaints, questions or problems which you cannot work out with the school, write or call:

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

The student has the right to cancel and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. You have the right to cancel for a course of instruction including any equipment such as books, materials and supplies or any other goods related to the instruction offered in this agreement, if notice of cancellation is made prior to or on the first day of instruction.

If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds. §94911(e)(2)

Cancellation shall occur when you have given notice of cancellation to the Campus of Summit College listed on the top of the page of this agreement or verbally to the Admissions Department. The notice of cancellation, if sent by mail to the address listed with postage prepaid should be directed to the attention of Admissions Department. The notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by this agreement.

If the school has given you any equipment, including books or other materials, you must return them to the school within 7 days following the date of your notice of cancellation. If you fail to return this equipment, including books or other materials, in new condition within the 7-day period, the school will deduct its documented cost for the equipment from any refund that may be due to you. Once you pay for the equipment, it is yours to keep without further obligation. If you cancel this agreement, the school will issue a refund, less any non-refundable fees and deduction for equipment not returned within the 7-day period and in new condition, within 20 days after your notice of cancellation is received.

If you have any complaints, questions or problems which you cannot work out with the school, write or call:
