- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

Student's Right to Cancel

A student has the right to cancel his or her agreement for a course of instruction, without any penalty or obligation if notice of cancellation is made through attendance of the first class session or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

Cancellation may occur for the following reasons:

- Rejection of Applicant: If an applicant is rejected for enrollment, or if a prospective international student has his/her visa application rejected, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Program Cancellation: If an institution cancels a program subsequent to a student's enrollment, a full refund all monies paid will be made to the applicant
- Cancellation Prior to the Start of Class or No Show: If an applicant accepted for admission cancels prior to the start of scheduled classes or never attends class (no-show), a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Cancellation after the Start of Class: If an applicant cancels after class begins, but before the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.

Cancellation shall occur when the student gives verbal or written notice of cancellation at the address of the institute shown on top of the front page of the enrollment agreement. Students can do this in person, by phone, mail, hand delivery, or email. We do not have a format requirement for the verbal or written notice of cancellation but it must be expressed that the student no longer wishes to be bound by the enrollment agreement.

If any books and supplies were distributed to the student prior to cancellation, the student is responsible for the charges associated with those distributions. The student has the option to return any books and supplies, and receive full credit to their account, within 30 days following the date of cancellation.

NHI will refund 100% of any monies paid, less any charges for books and supplies retained by the student within 45 days of cancellation.

If the student has received federal financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from student financial aid program funds.

Student's Right to Cancel

A student has the right to cancel his or her agreement for a course of instruction, without any penalty or obligation if notice of cancellation is made through attendance of the first class session or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

Cancellation may occur for the following reasons:

- Rejection of Applicant: If an applicant is rejected for enrollment, or if a prospective international student has his/her visa application rejected, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Program Cancellation: If an institution cancels a program subsequent to a student's enrollment, a full refund all monies paid will be made to the applicant
- Cancellation Prior to the Start of Class or No Show: If an applicant accepted for admission cancels prior to the start of scheduled classes or never attends class (no-show), a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Cancellation after the Start of Class: If an applicant cancels after class begins, but before the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.

Cancellation shall occur when the student gives verbal or written notice of cancellation at the address of the institute shown on top of the front page of the enrollment agreement. Students can do this in person, by phone, mail, hand delivery, or email. We do not have a format requirement for the verbal or written notice of cancellation but it must be expressed that the student no longer wishes to be bound by the enrollment agreement.

If any books and supplies were distributed to the student prior to cancellation, the student is responsible for the charges associated with those distributions. The student has the option to return any books and supplies, and receive full credit to their account, within 30 days following the date of cancellation.

NHI will refund 100% of any monies paid, less any charges for books and supplies retained by the student within 45 days of cancellation.

If the student has received federal financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from student financial aid program funds.

- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

Student's Right to Cancel

A student has the right to cancel his or her agreement for a course of instruction, without any penalty or obligation if notice of cancellation is made through attendance of the first class session or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

Cancellation may occur for the following reasons:

- Rejection of Applicant: If an applicant is rejected for enrollment, or if a prospective international student has his/her visa application rejected, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Program Cancellation: If an institution cancels a program subsequent to a student's enrollment, a full refund all monies paid will be made to the applicant
- Cancellation Prior to the Start of Class or No Show: If an applicant accepted for admission cancels prior to the start of scheduled classes or never attends class (no-show), a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Cancellation after the Start of Class: If an applicant cancels after class begins, but before the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.

Cancellation shall occur when the student gives verbal or written notice of cancellation at the address of the institute shown on top of the front page of the enrollment agreement. Students can do this in person, by phone, mail, hand delivery, or email. We do not have a format requirement for the verbal or written notice of cancellation but it must be expressed that the student no longer wishes to be bound by the enrollment agreement.

If any books and supplies were distributed to the student prior to cancellation, the student is responsible for the charges associated with those distributions. The student has the option to return any books and supplies, and receive full credit to their account, within 30 days following the date of cancellation.

NHI will refund 100% of any monies paid, less any charges for books and supplies retained by the student within 45 days of cancellation.

If the student has received federal financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from student financial aid program funds.

- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

Student's Right to Cancel

A student has the right to cancel his or her agreement for a course of instruction, without any penalty or obligation if notice of cancellation is made through attendance of the first class session or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

Cancellation may occur for the following reasons:

- Rejection of Applicant: If an applicant is rejected for enrollment, or if a prospective international student has his/her visa application rejected, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Program Cancellation: If an institution cancels a program subsequent to a student's enrollment, a full refund all monies paid will be made to the applicant
- Cancellation Prior to the Start of Class or No Show: If an applicant accepted for admission cancels prior to the start of scheduled classes or never attends class (no-show), a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Cancellation after the Start of Class: If an applicant cancels after class begins, but before the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.

Cancellation shall occur when the student gives verbal or written notice of cancellation at the address of the institute shown on top of the front page of the enrollment agreement. Students can do this in person, by phone, mail, hand delivery, or email. We do not have a format requirement for the verbal or written notice of cancellation but it must be expressed that the student no longer wishes to be bound by the enrollment agreement.

If any books and supplies were distributed to the student prior to cancellation, the student is responsible for the charges associated with those distributions. The student has the option to return any books and supplies, and receive full credit to their account, within 30 days following the date of cancellation.

NHI will refund 100% of any monies paid, less any charges for books and supplies retained by the student within 45 days of cancellation.

If the student has received federal financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from student financial aid program funds.

- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

Student’s Right to Cancel

A student has the right to cancel his or her agreement for a course of instruction, without any penalty or obligation if notice of cancellation is made through attendance of the first class session or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

Cancellation may occur for the following reasons:

- Rejection of Applicant: If an applicant is rejected for enrollment, or if a prospective international student has his/her visa application rejected, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Program Cancellation: If an institution cancels a program subsequent to a student's enrollment, a full refund all monies paid will be made to the applicant
- Cancellation Prior to the Start of Class or No Show: If an applicant accepted for admission cancels prior to the start of scheduled classes or never attends class (no-show), a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Cancellation after the Start of Class: If an applicant cancels after class begins, but before the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.

Cancellation shall occur when the student gives verbal or written notice of cancellation at the address of the institute shown on top of the front page of the enrollment agreement. Students can do this in person, by phone, mail, hand delivery, or email. We do not have a format requirement for the verbal or written notice of cancellation but it must be expressed that the student no longer wishes to be bound by the enrollment agreement.

If any books and supplies were distributed to the student prior to cancellation, the student is responsible for the charges associated with those distributions. The student has the option to return any books and supplies, and receive full credit to their account, within 30 days following the date of cancellation.

NHI will refund 100% of any monies paid, less any charges for books and supplies retained by the student within 45 days of cancellation.

If the student has received federal financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from student financial aid program funds.

Student’s Right to Cancel

A student has the right to cancel his or her agreement for a course of instruction, without any penalty or obligation if notice of cancellation is made through attendance of the first class session or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

Cancellation may occur for the following reasons:

- Rejection of Applicant: If an applicant is rejected for enrollment, or if a prospective international student has his/her visa application rejected, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Program Cancellation: If an institution cancels a program subsequent to a student's enrollment, a full refund all monies paid will be made to the applicant
- Cancellation Prior to the Start of Class or No Show: If an applicant accepted for admission cancels prior to the start of scheduled classes or never attends class (no-show), a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Cancellation after the Start of Class: If an applicant cancels after class begins, but before the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.

Cancellation shall occur when the student gives verbal or written notice of cancellation at the address of the institute shown on top of the front page of the enrollment agreement. Students can do this in person, by phone, mail, hand delivery, or email. We do not have a format requirement for the verbal or written notice of cancellation but it must be expressed that the student no longer wishes to be bound by the enrollment agreement.

Federal Student Loan Debt

Calendar year	Most recent three year cohort default rate, as reported by the United State Department of Education. ¹	The percentage of enrolled students in 2018/2019 receiving federal student loans to pay for this Program.	The percentage of graduates in 2018/2019 who took out federal student loans to pay for this program.	The average amount of federal student loan debt of 2018/2019 graduates who took out federal student loans at this institution.
2018	8.9%	86.00%	96.00%	$8,645.00
2019	8.3%	90.00%	89.00%	$8,400.00

The percentage of students who defaulted on their federal student loans is called the Cohort Default Rate (CDR). It shows the percentage of this school's students who were more than 270 days (9 months) behind on their federal student loans within three years of when the first payment was due. This is the most recent CDR reported by the U.S. Department of Education.

- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

Student's Right to Cancel

A student has the right to cancel his or her agreement for a course of instruction, without any penalty or obligation if notice of cancellation is made through attendance of the first class session or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

Cancellation may occur for the following reasons:

- Rejection of Applicant: If an applicant is rejected for enrollment, or if a prospective international student has his/her visa application rejected, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Program Cancellation: If an institution cancels a program subsequent to a student's enrollment, a full refund all monies paid will be made to the applicant
- Cancellation Prior to the Start of Class or No Show: If an applicant accepted for admission cancels prior to the start of scheduled classes or never attends class (no-show), a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Cancellation after the Start of Class: If an applicant cancels after class begins, but before the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.

Cancellation shall occur when the student gives verbal or written notice of cancellation at the address of the institute shown on top of the front page of the enrollment agreement. Students can do this in person, by phone, mail, hand delivery, or email. We do not have a format requirement for the verbal or written notice of cancellation but it must be expressed that the student no longer wishes to be bound by the enrollment agreement.

If any books and supplies were distributed to the student prior to cancellation, the student is responsible for the charges associated with those distributions. The student has the option to return any books and supplies, and receive full credit to their account, within 30 days following the date of cancellation.

NHI will refund 100% of any monies paid, less any charges for books and supplies retained by the student within 45 days of cancellation.

If the student has received federal financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from student financial aid program funds.

Student's Right to Cancel

A student has the right to cancel his or her agreement for a course of instruction, without any penalty or obligation if notice of cancellation is made through attendance of the first class session or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

Cancellation may occur for the following reasons:

- Rejection of Applicant: If an applicant is rejected for enrollment, or if a prospective international student has his/her visa application rejected, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Program Cancellation: If an institution cancels a program subsequent to a student's enrollment, a full refund all monies paid will be made to the applicant
- Cancellation Prior to the Start of Class or No Show: If an applicant accepted for admission cancels prior to the start of scheduled classes or never attends class (no-show), a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Cancellation after the Start of Class: If an applicant cancels after class begins, but before the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.

Cancellation shall occur when the student gives verbal or written notice of cancellation at the address of the institute shown on top of the front page of the enrollment agreement. Students can do this in person, by phone, mail, hand delivery, or email. We do not have a format requirement for the verbal or written notice of cancellation but it must be expressed that the student no longer wishes to be bound by the enrollment agreement.

If any books and supplies were distributed to the student prior to cancellation, the student is responsible for the charges associated with those distributions. The student has the option to return any books and supplies, and receive full credit to their account, within 30 days following the date of cancellation.

NHI will refund 100% of any monies paid, less any charges for books and supplies retained by the student within 45 days of cancellation.

If the student has received federal financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from student financial aid program funds.

For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
- “First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

Student's Right to Cancel

A student has the right to cancel his or her agreement for a course of instruction, without any penalty or obligation if notice of cancellation is made through attendance of the first class session or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

Cancellation may occur for the following reasons:

- Rejection of Applicant: If an applicant is rejected for enrollment, or if a prospective international student has his/her visa application rejected, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Program Cancellation: If an institution cancels a program subsequent to a student's enrollment, a full refund all monies paid will be made to the applicant
- Cancellation Prior to the Start of Class or No Show: If an applicant accepted for admission cancels prior to the start of scheduled classes or never attends class (no-show), a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Cancellation after the Start of Class: If an applicant cancels after class begins, but before the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.

Cancellation shall occur when the student gives verbal or written notice of cancellation at the address of the institute shown on top of the front page of the enrollment agreement. Students can do this in person, by phone, mail, hand delivery, or email. We do not have a format requirement for the verbal or written notice of cancellation but it must be expressed that the student no longer wishes to be bound by the enrollment agreement.

If any books and supplies were distributed to the student prior to cancellation, the student is responsible for the charges associated with those distributions. The student has the option to return any books and supplies, and receive full credit to their account, within 30 days following the date of cancellation.

NHI will refund 100% of any monies paid, less any charges for books and supplies retained by the student within 45 days of cancellation.

If the student has received federal financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from student financial aid program funds.

- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

Student’s Right to Cancel

A student has the right to cancel his or her agreement for a course of instruction, without any penalty or obligation if notice of cancellation is made through attendance of the first class session or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

Cancellation may occur for the following reasons:

- Rejection of Applicant: If an applicant is rejected for enrollment, or if a prospective international student has his/her visa application rejected, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Program Cancellation: If an institution cancels a program subsequent to a student's enrollment, a full refund all monies paid will be made to the applicant
- Cancellation Prior to the Start of Class or No Show: If an applicant accepted for admission cancels prior to the start of scheduled classes or never attends class (no-show), a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Cancellation after the Start of Class: If an applicant cancels after class begins, but before the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.

Cancellation shall occur when the student gives verbal or written notice of cancellation at the address of the institute shown on top of the front page of the enrollment agreement. Students can do this in person, by phone, mail, hand delivery, or email. We do not have a format requirement for the verbal or written notice of cancellation but it must be expressed that the student no longer wishes to be bound by the enrollment agreement.

If any books and supplies were distributed to the student prior to cancellation, the student is responsible for the charges associated with those distributions. The student has the option to return any books and supplies, and receive full credit to their account, within 30 days following the date of cancellation.

NHI will refund 100% of any monies paid, less any charges for books and supplies retained by the student within 45 days of cancellation.

If the student has received federal financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from student financial aid program funds.

Calendar year	Most recent three year cohort default rate, as reported by the United State Department of Education. ¹	The percentage of enrolled students in 2018/2019 receiving federal student loans to pay for this Program.	The percentage of graduates in 2018/2019 who took out federal student loans to pay for this program.	The average amount of federal student loan debt of 2018/2019 graduates who took out federal student loans at this institution.
2018	8.9%	46.00%	57.00%	$4,750.00
2019	8.3%	18.00%	30.00%	$4,750.00

The percentage of students who defaulted on their federal student loans is called the Cohort Default Rate (CDR). It shows the percentage of this school's students who were more than 270 days (9 months) behind on their federal student loans within three years of when the first payment was due. This is the most recent CDR reported by the U.S. Department of Education.

- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

Student's Right to Cancel

A student has the right to cancel his or her agreement for a course of instruction, without any penalty or obligation if notice of cancellation is made through attendance of the first class session or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

Cancellation may occur for the following reasons:

- Rejection of Applicant: If an applicant is rejected for enrollment, or if a prospective international student has his/her visa application rejected, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Program Cancellation: If an institution cancels a program subsequent to a student's enrollment, a full refund all monies paid will be made to the applicant
- Cancellation Prior to the Start of Class or No Show: If an applicant accepted for admission cancels prior to the start of scheduled classes or never attends class (no-show), a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Cancellation after the Start of Class: If an applicant cancels after class begins, but before the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.

Cancellation shall occur when the student gives verbal or written notice of cancellation at the address of the institute shown on top of the front page of the enrollment agreement. Students can do this in person, by phone, mail, hand delivery, or email. We do not have a format requirement for the verbal or written notice of cancellation but it must be expressed that the student no longer wishes to be bound by the enrollment agreement.

If any books and supplies were distributed to the student prior to cancellation, the student is responsible for the charges associated with those distributions. The student has the option to return any books and supplies, and receive full credit to their account, within 30 days following the date of cancellation.

NHI will refund 100% of any monies paid, less any charges for books and supplies retained by the student within 45 days of cancellation.

If the student has received federal financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from student financial aid program funds.

Student's Right to Cancel

A student has the right to cancel his or her agreement for a course of instruction, without any penalty or obligation if notice of cancellation is made through attendance of the first class session or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

Cancellation may occur for the following reasons:

- Rejection of Applicant: If an applicant is rejected for enrollment, or if a prospective international student has his/her visa application rejected, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Program Cancellation: If an institution cancels a program subsequent to a student's enrollment, a full refund all monies paid will be made to the applicant
- Cancellation Prior to the Start of Class or No Show: If an applicant accepted for admission cancels prior to the start of scheduled classes or never attends class (no-show), a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Cancellation after the Start of Class: If an applicant cancels after class begins, but before the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.

Cancellation shall occur when the student gives verbal or written notice of cancellation at the address of the institute shown on top of the front page of the enrollment agreement. Students can do this in person, by phone, mail, hand delivery, or email. We do not have a format requirement for the verbal or written notice of cancellation but it must be expressed that the student no longer wishes to be bound by the enrollment agreement.

If any books and supplies were distributed to the student prior to cancellation, the student is responsible for the charges associated with those distributions. The student has the option to return any books and supplies, and receive full credit to their account, within 30 days following the date of cancellation.

NHI will refund 100% of any monies paid, less any charges for books and supplies retained by the student within 45 days of cancellation.

If the student has received federal financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from student financial aid program funds.

Student's Right to Cancel

A student has the right to cancel his or her agreement for a course of instruction, without any penalty or obligation if notice of cancellation is made through attendance of the first class session or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

Cancellation may occur for the following reasons:

- Rejection of Applicant: If an applicant is rejected for enrollment, or if a prospective international student has his/her visa application rejected, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Program Cancellation: If an institution cancels a program subsequent to a student's enrollment, a full refund all monies paid will be made to the applicant
- Cancellation Prior to the Start of Class or No Show: If an applicant accepted for admission cancels prior to the start of scheduled classes or never attends class (no-show), a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Cancellation after the Start of Class: If an applicant cancels after class begins, but before the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.

Cancellation shall occur when the student gives verbal or written notice of cancellation at the address of the institute shown on top of the front page of the enrollment agreement. Students can do this in person, by phone, mail, hand delivery, or email. We do not have a format requirement for the verbal or written notice of cancellation but it must be expressed that the student no longer wishes to be bound by the enrollment agreement.

If any books and supplies were distributed to the student prior to cancellation, the student is responsible for the charges associated with those distributions. The student has the option to return any books and supplies, and receive full credit to their account, within 30 days following the date of cancellation.

NHI will refund 100% of any monies paid, less any charges for books and supplies retained by the student within 45 days of cancellation.

If the student has received federal financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from student financial aid program funds.

- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

Student's Right to Cancel

A student has the right to cancel his or her agreement for a course of instruction, without any penalty or obligation if notice of cancellation is made through attendance of the first class session or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

Cancellation may occur for the following reasons:

- Rejection of Applicant: If an applicant is rejected for enrollment, or if a prospective international student has his/her visa application rejected, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Program Cancellation: If an institution cancels a program subsequent to a student's enrollment, a full refund all monies paid will be made to the applicant
- Cancellation Prior to the Start of Class or No Show: If an applicant accepted for admission cancels prior to the start of scheduled classes or never attends class (no-show), a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Cancellation after the Start of Class: If an applicant cancels after class begins, but before the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.

Cancellation shall occur when the student gives verbal or written notice of cancellation at the address of the institute shown on top of the front page of the enrollment agreement. Students can do this in person, by phone, mail, hand delivery, or email. We do not have a format requirement for the verbal or written notice of cancellation but it must be expressed that the student no longer wishes to be bound by the enrollment agreement.

If any books and supplies were distributed to the student prior to cancellation, the student is responsible for the charges associated with those distributions. The student has the option to return any books and supplies, and receive full credit to their account, within 30 days following the date of cancellation.

NHI will refund 100% of any monies paid, less any charges for books and supplies retained by the student within 45 days of cancellation.

If the student has received federal financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from student financial aid program funds.

Calendar year	Most recent three year cohort default rate, as reported by the United State Department of Education. ¹	The percentage of enrolled students in 2018/2019 receiving federal student loans to pay for this Program.	The percentage of graduates in 2018/2019 who took out federal student loans to pay for this program.	The average amount of federal student loan debt of 2018/2019 graduates who took out federal student loans at this institution.
2018	8.9%	71.00%	90.00%	$12,936.00
2019	8.3%	88.00%	63.00%	$14,454.00

The percentage of students who defaulted on their federal student loans is called the Cohort Default Rate (CDR). It shows the percentage of this school's students who were more than 270 days (9 months) behind on their federal student loans within three years of when the first payment was due. This is the most recent CDR reported by the U.S. Department of Education.

- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

Student's Right to Cancel

A student has the right to cancel his or her agreement for a course of instruction, without any penalty or obligation if notice of cancellation is made through attendance of the first class session or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

Cancellation may occur for the following reasons:

- Rejection of Applicant: If an applicant is rejected for enrollment, or if a prospective international student has his/her visa application rejected, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Program Cancellation: If an institution cancels a program subsequent to a student's enrollment, a full refund all monies paid will be made to the applicant
- Cancellation Prior to the Start of Class or No Show: If an applicant accepted for admission cancels prior to the start of scheduled classes or never attends class (no-show), a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Cancellation after the Start of Class: If an applicant cancels after class begins, but before the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.

Cancellation shall occur when the student gives verbal or written notice of cancellation at the address of the institute shown on top of the front page of the enrollment agreement. Students can do this in person, by phone, mail, hand delivery, or email. We do not have a format requirement for the verbal or written notice of cancellation but it must be expressed that the student no longer wishes to be bound by the enrollment agreement.

If any books and supplies were distributed to the student prior to cancellation, the student is responsible for the charges associated with those distributions. The student has the option to return any books and supplies, and receive full credit to their account, within 30 days following the date of cancellation.

NHI will refund 100% of any monies paid, less any charges for books and supplies retained by the student within 45 days of cancellation.

If the student has received federal financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from student financial aid program funds.

Student's Right to Cancel

A student has the right to cancel his or her agreement for a course of instruction, without any penalty or obligation if notice of cancellation is made through attendance of the first class session or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

Cancellation may occur for the following reasons:

- Rejection of Applicant: If an applicant is rejected for enrollment, or if a prospective international student has his/her visa application rejected, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Program Cancellation: If an institution cancels a program subsequent to a student's enrollment, a full refund all monies paid will be made to the applicant
- Cancellation Prior to the Start of Class or No Show: If an applicant accepted for admission cancels prior to the start of scheduled classes or never attends class (no-show), a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Cancellation after the Start of Class: If an applicant cancels after class begins, but before the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.

Cancellation shall occur when the student gives verbal or written notice of cancellation at the address of the institute shown on top of the front page of the enrollment agreement. Students can do this in person, by phone, mail, hand delivery, or email. We do not have a format requirement for the verbal or written notice of cancellation but it must be expressed that the student no longer wishes to be bound by the enrollment agreement.

If any books and supplies were distributed to the student prior to cancellation, the student is responsible for the charges associated with those distributions. The student has the option to return any books and supplies, and receive full credit to their account, within 30 days following the date of cancellation.

NHI will refund 100% of any monies paid, less any charges for books and supplies retained by the student within 45 days of cancellation.

If the student has received federal financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from student financial aid program funds.

- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

Student’s Right to Cancel

A student has the right to cancel his or her agreement for a course of instruction, without any penalty or obligation if notice of cancellation is made through attendance of the first class session or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

Cancellation may occur for the following reasons:

- Rejection of Applicant: If an applicant is rejected for enrollment, or if a prospective international student has his/her visa application rejected, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Program Cancellation: If an institution cancels a program subsequent to a student's enrollment, a full refund all monies paid will be made to the applicant
- Cancellation Prior to the Start of Class or No Show: If an applicant accepted for admission cancels prior to the start of scheduled classes or never attends class (no-show), a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Cancellation after the Start of Class: If an applicant cancels after class begins, but before the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.

Cancellation shall occur when the student gives verbal or written notice of cancellation at the address of the institute shown on top of the front page of the enrollment agreement. Students can do this in person, by phone, mail, hand delivery, or email. We do not have a format requirement for the verbal or written notice of cancellation but it must be expressed that the student no longer wishes to be bound by the enrollment agreement.

If any books and supplies were distributed to the student prior to cancellation, the student is responsible for the charges associated with those distributions. The student has the option to return any books and supplies, and receive full credit to their account, within 30 days following the date of cancellation.

NHI will refund 100% of any monies paid, less any charges for books and supplies retained by the student within 45 days of cancellation.

If the student has received federal financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from student financial aid program funds.

Student’s Right to Cancel

A student has the right to cancel his or her agreement for a course of instruction, without any penalty or obligation if notice of cancellation is made through attendance of the first class session or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

Cancellation may occur for the following reasons:

- Rejection of Applicant: If an applicant is rejected for enrollment, or if a prospective international student has his/her visa application rejected, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Program Cancellation: If an institution cancels a program subsequent to a student's enrollment, a full refund all monies paid will be made to the applicant
