STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL AND REFUND INFORMATION

You have the right to cancel if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later to receive a refund of all money paid to the University, less the $75.00 application fee. Cancellation of this agreement can occur up to date: 7/16/2020. In addition to your Right to Cancel, Learners will receive a full refund up until the 14th day after the first day of the course start date.

Following the 14th day, Learners may withdraw from the course after it has started and receive a prorated refund if the Learner has completed 60% or less of the course. If the University cancels an educational program or course, it will offer you the opportunity to transfer to a comparable program or course. If you choose not to transfer, the University will provide an appropriate refund.

All refunds are based on the amount due for the current courses and previous courses attempted. There are no refunds when the Learner completes courses or the entire program within a shorter time period. The same tuition refund policy applies to a Learner who is dismissed or whose enrollment is otherwise terminated by the University. The date of the dismissal or termination will impact the refund policy in the same way as does the date of the cancellation and withdrawal. All refunds will be issued in United States denominated currency.

IMPORTANT: The Learner is responsible for notifying the University of Cancellation or withdrawal in writing.

Learners who wish to withdraw from their program of study should send a written notice to the Registrar, California Southern University, 3330 Harbor Blvd, Costa Mesa, California 92626. The e-mail address is registrar@calsouthern.edu. The notice of cancellation and withdrawal is effective when sent.

The University will pay any refund due under the terms of the policy within 45 days of the written cancellation and withdrawal. The Learner is responsible for paying any amount due the University as a result of an underpayment.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL AND REFUND INFORMATION

You have the right to cancel if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later to receive a refund of all money paid to the University, less the $75.00 application fee. Cancellation of this agreement can occur up to date: 7/16/2020. In addition to your Right to Cancel, Learners will receive a full refund up until the 14th day after the first day of the course start date.

Following the 14th day, Learners may withdraw from the course after it has started and receive a prorated refund if the Learner has completed 60% or less of the course. If the University cancels an educational program or course, it will offer you the opportunity to transfer to a comparable program or course. If you choose not to transfer, the University will provide an appropriate refund.

All refunds are based on the amount due for the current courses and previous courses attempted. There are no refunds when the Learner completes courses or the entire program within a shorter time period. The same tuition refund policy applies to a Learner who is dismissed or whose enrollment is otherwise terminated by the University. The date of the dismissal or termination will impact the refund policy in the same way as does the date of the cancellation and withdrawal. All refunds will be issued in United States denominated currency.

IMPORTANT: The Learner is responsible for notifying the University of Cancellation or withdrawal in writing. Learners who wish to withdraw from their program of study should send a written notice to the Registrar, California Southern University, 3330 Harbor Blvd, Costa Mesa, California 92626. The e-mail address is registrar@calsouthern.edu. The notice of cancellation and withdrawal is effective when sent. The University will pay any refund due under the terms of the policy within 45 days of the written cancellation and withdrawal. The Learner is responsible for paying any amount due the University as a result of an underpayment.

- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
- “First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL AND REFUND INFORMATION

You have the right to cancel if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later to receive a refund of all money paid to the University, less the $75.00 application fee. Cancellation of this agreement can occur up to date:. In addition to your Right to Cancel, Learners will receive a full refund up until the 14th day after the first day of the course start date.

Following the 14th day, Learners may withdraw from the course after it has started and receive a prorated refund if the Learner has completed 60% or less of the course. If the University cancels an educational program or course, it will offer you the opportunity to transfer to a comparable program or course. If you choose not to transfer, the University will provide an appropriate refund.

All refunds are based on the amount due for the current courses and previous courses attempted. There are no refunds when the Learner completes courses or the entire program within a shorter time period. The same tuition refund policy applies to a Learner who is dismissed or whose enrollment is otherwise terminated by the University. The date of the dismissal or termination will impact the refund policy in the same way as does the date of the cancellation and withdrawal. All refunds will be issued in United States denominated currency.

IMPORTANT: The Learner is responsible for notifying the University of Cancellation or withdrawal in writing. Learners who wish to withdraw from their program of study should send a written notice to the Registrar, California Southern University, 3330 Harbor Blvd, Costa Mesa, California 92626. The e-mail address is registrar@calsouthern.edu. The notice of cancellation and withdrawal is effective when sent. The University will pay any refund due under the terms of the policy within 45 days of the written cancellation and withdrawal. The Learner is responsible for paying any amount due the University as a result of an underpayment.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL AND REFUND INFORMATION

You have the right to cancel if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later to receive a refund of all money paid to the University, less the $75.00 application fee. Cancellation of this agreement can occur up to date:. In addition to your Right to Cancel, Learners will receive a full refund up until the 14th day after the first day of the course start date.

Following the 14th day, Learners may withdraw from the course after it has started and receive a prorated refund if the Learner has completed 60% or less of the course. If the University cancels an educational program or course, it will offer you the opportunity to transfer to a comparable program or course. If you choose not to transfer, the University will provide an appropriate refund.

All refunds are based on the amount due for the current courses and previous courses attempted. There are no refunds when the Learner completes courses or the entire program within a shorter time period. The same tuition refund policy applies to a Learner who is dismissed or whose enrollment is otherwise terminated by the University. The date of the dismissal or termination will impact the refund policy in the same way as does the date of the cancellation and withdrawal. All refunds will be issued in United States denominated currency.

IMPORTANT: The Learner is responsible for notifying the University of Cancellation or withdrawal in writing. Learners who wish to withdraw from their program of study should send a written notice to the Registrar, California Southern University, 3330 Harbor Blvd, Costa Mesa, California 92626. The e-mail address is registrar@calsouthern.edu. The notice of cancellation and withdrawal is effective when sent. The University will pay any refund due under the terms of the policy within 45 days of the written cancellation and withdrawal. The Learner is responsible for paying any amount due the University as a result of an underpayment.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL AND REFUND INFORMATION

You have the right to cancel if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later to receive a refund of all money paid to the University, less the $75.00 application fee. Cancellation of this agreement can occur up to date:. In addition to your Right to Cancel, Learners will receive a full refund up until the 14th day after the first day of the course start date.

Following the 14th day, Learners may withdraw from the course after it has started and receive a prorated refund if the Learner has completed 60% or less of the course. If the University cancels an educational program or course, it will offer you the opportunity to transfer to a comparable program or course. If you choose not to transfer, the University will provide an appropriate refund.

All refunds are based on the amount due for the current courses and previous courses attempted. There are no refunds when the Learner completes courses or the entire program within a shorter time period. The same tuition refund policy applies to a Learner who is dismissed or whose enrollment is otherwise terminated by the University. The date of the dismissal or termination will impact the refund policy in the same way as does the date of the cancellation and withdrawal. All refunds will be issued in United States denominated currency.

IMPORTANT: The Learner is responsible for notifying the University of Cancellation or withdrawal in writing. Learners who wish to withdraw from their program of study should send a written notice to the Registrar, California Southern University, 3330 Harbor Blvd, Costa Mesa, California 92626. The e-mail address is registrar@calsouthern.edu. The notice of cancellation and withdrawal is effective when sent. The University will pay any refund due under the terms of the policy within 45 days of the written cancellation and withdrawal. The Learner is responsible for paying any amount due the University as a result of an underpayment.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL AND REFUND INFORMATION

You have the right to cancel if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later to receive a refund of all money paid to the University, less the $75.00 application fee. Cancellation of this agreement can occur up to date:. In addition to your Right to Cancel, Learners will receive a full refund up until the 14th day after the first day of the course start date.

Following the 14th day, Learners may withdraw from the course after it has started and receive a prorated refund if the Learner has completed 60% or less of the course. If the University cancels an educational program or course, it will offer you the opportunity to transfer to a comparable program or course. If you choose not to transfer, the University will provide an appropriate refund.

All refunds are based on the amount due for the current courses and previous courses attempted. There are no refunds when the Learner completes courses or the entire program within a shorter time period. The same tuition refund policy applies to a Learner who is dismissed or whose enrollment is otherwise terminated by the University. The date of the dismissal or termination will impact the refund policy in the same way as does the date of the cancellation and withdrawal. All refunds will be issued in United States denominated currency.

IMPORTANT: The Learner is responsible for notifying the University of Cancellation or withdrawal in writing.

Learners who wish to withdraw from their program of study should send a written notice to the Registrar, California Southern University, 3330 Harbor Blvd, Costa Mesa, California 92626. The e-mail address is registrar@calsouthern.edu. The notice of cancellation and withdrawal is effective when sent.

The University will pay any refund due under the terms of the policy within 45 days of the written cancellation and withdrawal. The Learner is responsible for paying any amount due the University as a result of an underpayment.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL AND REFUND INFORMATION

You have the right to cancel if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later to receive a refund of all money paid to the University, less the $75.00 application fee. Cancellation of this agreement can occur up to date:. In addition to your Right to Cancel, Learners will receive a full refund up until the 14th day after the first day of the course start date.

Following the 14th day, Learners may withdraw from the course after it has started and receive a prorated refund if the Learner has completed 60% or less of the course. If the University cancels an educational program or course, it will offer you the opportunity to transfer to a comparable program or course. If you choose not to transfer, the University will provide an appropriate refund.

All refunds are based on the amount due for the current courses and previous courses attempted. There are no refunds when the Learner completes courses or the entire program within a shorter time period. The same tuition refund policy applies to a Learner who is dismissed or whose enrollment is otherwise terminated by the University. The date of the dismissal or termination will impact the refund policy in the same way as does the date of the cancellation and withdrawal. All refunds will be issued in United States denominated currency.

IMPORTANT: The Learner is responsible for notifying the University of Cancellation or withdrawal in writing. Learners who wish to withdraw from their program of study should send a written notice to the Registrar, California Southern University, 3330 Harbor Blvd, Costa Mesa, California 92626. The e-mail address is registrar@calsouthern.edu. The notice of cancellation and withdrawal is effective when sent. The University will pay any refund due under the terms of the policy within 45 days of the written cancellation and withdrawal. The Learner is responsible for paying any amount due the University as a result of an underpayment.

You have the right to cancel if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later to receive a refund of all money paid to the University, less the $75.00 application fee. Cancellation of this agreement can occur up to date:. In addition to your Right to Cancel, Learners will receive a full refund up until the 14th day after the first day of the course start date.

Following the 14th day, Learners may withdraw from the course after it has started and receive a prorated refund if the Learner has completed 60% or less of the course. If the University cancels an educational program or course, it will offer you the opportunity to transfer to a comparable program or course. If you choose not to transfer, the University will provide an appropriate refund.

All refunds are based on the amount due for the current courses and previous courses attempted. There are no refunds when the Learner completes courses or the entire program within a shorter time period. The same tuition refund policy applies to a Learner who is dismissed or whose enrollment is otherwise terminated by the University. The date of the dismissal or termination will impact the refund policy in the same way as does the date of the cancellation and withdrawal. All refunds will be issued in United States denominated currency.

IMPORTANT: The Learner is responsible for notifying the University of Cancellation or withdrawal in writing. Learners who wish to withdraw from their program of study should send a written notice to the Registrar, California Southern University, 3330 Harbor Blvd, Costa Mesa, California 92626. The e-mail address is registrar@calsouthern.edu. The notice of cancellation and withdrawal is effective when sent. The University will pay any refund due under the terms of the policy within 45 days of the written cancellation and withdrawal. The Learner is responsible for paying any amount due the University as a result of an underpayment.

- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
- “First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL AND REFUND INFORMATION

You have the right to cancel if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later to receive a refund of all money paid to the University, less the $75.00 application fee. Cancellation of this agreement can occur up to date:. In addition to your Right to Cancel, Learners will receive a full refund up until the 14th day after the first day of the course start date.

Following the 14th day, Learners may withdraw from the course after it has started and receive a prorated refund if the Learner has completed 60% or less of the course. If the University cancels an educational program or course, it will offer you the opportunity to transfer to a comparable program or course. If you choose not to transfer, the University will provide an appropriate refund.

All refunds are based on the amount due for the current courses and previous courses attempted. There are no refunds when the Learner completes courses or the entire program within a shorter time period. The same tuition refund policy applies to a Learner who is dismissed or whose enrollment is otherwise terminated by the University. The date of the dismissal or termination will impact the refund policy in the same way as does the date of the cancellation and withdrawal. All refunds will be issued in United States denominated currency.

IMPORTANT: The Learner is responsible for notifying the University of Cancellation or withdrawal in writing.

Learners who wish to withdraw from their program of study should send a written notice to the Registrar, California Southern University, 3330 Harbor Blvd, Costa Mesa, California 92626. The e-mail address is registrar@calsouthern.edu. The notice of cancellation and withdrawal is effective when sent.

The University will pay any refund due under the terms of the policy within 45 days of the written cancellation and withdrawal. The Learner is responsible for paying any amount due the University as a result of an underpayment.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL AND REFUND INFORMATION

You have the right to cancel if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later to receive a refund of all money paid to the University, less the $75.00 application fee. Cancellation of this agreement can occur up to date:. In addition to your Right to Cancel, Learners will receive a full refund up until the 14th day after the first day of the course start date.

Following the 14th day, Learners may withdraw from the course after it has started and receive a prorated refund if the Learner has completed 60% or less of the course. If the University cancels an educational program or course, it will offer you the opportunity to transfer to a comparable program or course. If you choose not to transfer, the University will provide an appropriate refund.

All refunds are based on the amount due for the current courses and previous courses attempted. There are no refunds when the Learner completes courses or the entire program within a shorter time period. The same tuition refund policy applies to a Learner who is dismissed or whose enrollment is otherwise terminated by the University. The date of the dismissal or termination will impact the refund policy in the same way as does the date of the cancellation and withdrawal. All refunds will be issued in United States denominated currency.

IMPORTANT: The Learner is responsible for notifying the University of Cancellation or withdrawal in writing. Learners who wish to withdraw from their program of study should send a written notice to the Registrar, California Southern University, 3330 Harbor Blvd, Costa Mesa, California 92626. The e-mail address is registrar@calsouthern.edu. The notice of cancellation and withdrawal is effective when sent.

The University will pay any refund due under the terms of the policy within 45 days of the written cancellation and withdrawal. The Learner is responsible for paying any amount due the University as a result of an underpayment.

Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- “150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
- “First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL AND REFUND INFORMATION

You have the right to cancel if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later to receive a refund of all money paid to the University, less the $75.00 application fee. Cancellation of this agreement can occur up to date:. In addition to your Right to Cancel, Learners will receive a full refund up until the 14th day after the first day of the course start date.

Following the 14th day, Learners may withdraw from the course after it has started and receive a prorated refund if the Learner has completed 60% or less of the course. If the University cancels an educational program or course, it will offer you the opportunity to transfer to a comparable program or course. If you choose not to transfer, the University will provide an appropriate refund.

All refunds are based on the amount due for the current courses and previous courses attempted. There are no refunds when the Learner completes courses or the entire program within a shorter time period. The same tuition refund policy applies to a Learner who is dismissed or whose enrollment is otherwise terminated by the University. The date of the dismissal or termination will impact the refund policy in the same way as does the date of the cancellation and withdrawal. All refunds will be issued in United States denominated currency.

IMPORTANT: The Learner is responsible for notifying the University of Cancellation or withdrawal in writing.

Learners who wish to withdraw from their program of study should send a written notice to the Registrar, California Southern University, 3330 Harbor Blvd, Costa Mesa, California 92626. The e-mail address is registrar@calsouthern.edu. The notice of cancellation and withdrawal is effective when sent.

The University will pay any refund due under the terms of the policy within 45 days of the written cancellation and withdrawal. The Learner is responsible for paying any amount due the University as a result of an underpayment.
