Federal Student Loan Debt

Most recent three year cohort default rate, as reported by the United State Department of Education.¹	The percentage of enrolled students in 2018/19 receiving federal student loans to pay for this program.	The average amount of federal student loan debt of 2018/2019 graduates who took out federal student loans at this institution.	The percentage of graduates in 2018/2019 who took out federal student loans to pay for this program.
n/a	n/a	n/a	n/a

¹The percentage of students who defaulted on their federal student loans is called the Cohort Default Rate (CDR). It shows the percentage of this school's students who were more than 270 days (9 months) behind on their federal student loans within three years of when the first payment was due. This is the most recent CDR reported by the U.S. Department of Education.

Students at The Reiss-Davis Graduate School were not eligible for federal student loans in 2018 and 2019. During this time, the institution did not meet the U.S. Department of Education criteria that would allow its students to participate in federal student aid programs.

Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- “150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
- “First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

A student has the right to cancel his or her agreement for a program of instruction, without any financial penalty or obligations, on or before attendance of the first day of quarter term of the first academic year or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. Cancellation may occur when the student provides a written notice of cancellation.

1. After the end of the cancellation period, you also have the right to stop school at any time by withdrawing from the course / program or taking a Leave of Absence (LOA). Should a student withdraw from the program, he or she will not be charged for future quarters. The percentage of the refund depends on the effective date of withdrawal. As for the LOA, calculating the percentage of the refund depends on the effective date of the official leave and will be considered if the leave begins prior to or after a quarter has begun.
2. Cancellation may occur when the student provides a written notice of cancellation at the following address: The Reiss-Davis Graduate School, 3200 Motor Avenue, Los Angeles, CA 90034. This can be done by mail, by hand delivery or e-mail to the Registrar's Office at registrar@reissdavis.edu.
3. The written notice of cancellation, if sent by mail, is effective when deposited in the mail properly addressed with proper postage.
4. The written notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that the student no longer wishes to be bound by the Enrollment Agreement.
5. If the Enrollment Agreement is cancelled within the cancellation period the school will refund the student any money he/she paid including the $250 enrollment fee and $60 application fee, and less any deduction for equipment not returned in good condition, within 45 days after the notice of cancellation is received.
