STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

Cancellation or withdrawal from Pacific College will occur when the student or applicant gives notice with reason for cancellation or withdrawal to the Registrar's office or when the college has reasonably determined that the student is no longer attending classes, including classes the student is auditing. (DOD – Date of Determination). A "Petition to Withdraw from Program" may be obtained from the Registrar, Dean, or Student Advisor for this purpose or in an area where student forms are kept for student use. WITHDRAWAL – REFUND POLICY Up until the 7th day of the term start date: without penalty within three business days following either the regularly scheduled orientation or following a tour of the school facilities and inspection of equipment where training and services are provided. 2. All monies paid by an applicant will be refunded if requested within three days after signing an enrollment agreement and making an initial payment. 3. An applicant requesting cancellation more than three days after signing an enrollment agreement and making an initial payment, but prior to entering the school, is entitled to a refund of all monies paid minus the application and registration fee (Total $80). 4. A student or applicant may cancel the enrollment agreement for a program at any time until the close of business on the eighth day of the term. (For any classes starting after the first 7 days of the term, the student has 3 business days from the start of the class to drop the course with no fees or tuition chargers. A full refund of tuition will be made if the student cancels or the DOD is within the first 7 days of the term either to the Federal Direct Loan Program or to the non-financial aid student. The refund will be issued within 60 days after the date of cancellation or 60 days after the LDA (Last Date of Attendance). Certain fees in addition to the Application and Registration Fee may be nonrefundable. (See "Fees and Charges") For example only: A student who pays $2000 in tuition and $80 in fees (non-refundable resident application and term registration fee), $2080 total, in advance for the term, and then cancels before the close of business on the fifteenth day of the term receives $2000 as a refund. (Payable to the Federal Direct Loan Program, if a financial aid student.)

•In addition, if a student has received federal student financial aid funds, s/he is entitled to a refund of refundable monies not paid from Federal Direct Loan Program

 - “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
 - “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
 - “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

Cancellation or withdrawal from Pacific College will occur when the student or applicant gives notice with reason for cancellation or withdrawal to the Registrar's office or when the college has reasonably determined that the student is no longer attending classes, including classes the student is auditing. (DOD – Date of Determination). A "Petition to Withdraw from Program" may be obtained from the Registrar, Dean, or Student Advisor for this purpose or in an area where student forms are kept for student use. WITHDRAWAL – REFUND POLICY Up until the 7th day of the term start date: without penalty within three business days following either the regularly scheduled orientation or following a tour of the school facilities and inspection of equipment where training and services are provided. 2. All monies paid by an applicant will be refunded if requested within three days after signing an enrollment agreement and making an initial payment. 3. An applicant requesting cancellation more than three days after signing an enrollment agreement and making an initial payment, but prior to entering the school, is entitled to a refund of all monies paid minus the application and registration fee (Total $80). 4. A student or applicant may cancel the enrollment agreement for a program at any time until the close of business on the eighth day of the term. (For any classes starting after the first 7 days of the term, the student has 3 business days from the start of the class to drop the course with no fees or tuition charges. A full refund of tuition will be made if the student cancels or the DOD is within the first 7 days of the term either to the Federal Direct Loan Program or to the non-financial aid student. The refund will be issued within 60 days after the date of cancellation or 60 days after the LDA (Last Date of Attendance). Certain fees in addition to the Application and Registration Fee may be nonrefundable. (See "Fees and Charges") For example only: A student who pays $2000 in tuition and $80 in fees (non-refundable resident application and term registration fee), $2080 total, in advance for the term, and then cancels before the close of business on the fifteenth day of the term receives $2000 as a refund. (Payable to the Federal Direct Loan Program, if a financial aid student.)

•In addition, if a student has received federal student financial aid funds, s/he is entitled to a refund of refundable monies not paid from Federal Direct Loan Program

WITHDRAWAL – REFUND POLICY Up until the 7th day of the term start date: without penalty within three business days following either the regularly scheduled orientation or following a tour of the school facilities and inspection of equipment where training and services are provided. 2. All monies paid by an applicant will be refunded if requested within three days after signing an enrollment agreement and making an initial payment. 3. An applicant requesting cancellation more than three days after signing an enrollment agreement and making an initial payment, but prior to entering the school, is entitled to a refund of all monies paid minus the application and registration fee (Total $80). 4. A student or applicant may cancel the enrollment agreement for a program at any time until the close of business on the eighth day of the term. (For any classes starting after the first 7 days of the term, the student has 3 business days from the start of the class to drop the course with no fees or tuition charges. A full refund of tuition will be made if the student cancels or the DOD is within the first 7 days of the term either to the Federal Direct Loan Program or to the non-financial aid student. The refund will be issued within 60 days after the date of cancellation or 60 days after the LDA (Last Date of Attendance). Certain fees in addition to the Application and Registration Fee may be nonrefundable. (See "Fees and Charges") For example only: A student who pays $2000 in tuition and $80 in fees (non-refundable resident application and term registration fee), $2080 total, in advance for the term, and then cancels before the close of business on the fifteenth day of the term receives $2000 as a refund. (Payable to the Federal Direct Loan Program, if a financial aid student.)

•In addition, if a student has received federal student financial aid funds, s/he is entitled to a refund of refundable monies not paid from Federal Direct Loan Program

 - “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
 - “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
 - “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

Cancellation or withdrawal from Pacific College will occur when the student or applicant gives notice with reason for cancellation or withdrawal to the Registrar's office or when the college has reasonably determined that the student is no longer attending classes, including classes the student is auditing. (DOD – Date of Determination). A "Petition to Withdraw from Program" may be obtained from the Registrar, Dean, or Student Advisor for this purpose or in an area where student forms are kept for student use. WITHDRAWAL – REFUND POLICY Up until the 7th day of the term start date: without penalty within three business days following either the regularly scheduled orientation or following a tour of the school facilities and inspection of equipment where training and services are provided. 2. All monies paid by an applicant will be refunded if requested within three days after signing an enrollment agreement and making an initial payment. 3. An applicant requesting cancellation more than three days after signing an enrollment agreement and making an initial payment, but prior to entering the school, is entitled to a refund of all monies paid minus the application and registration fee (Total $80). 4. A student or applicant may cancel the enrollment agreement for a program at any time until the close of business on the eighth day of the term. (For any classes starting after the first 7 days of the term, the student has 3 business days from the start of the class to drop the course with no fees or tuition charges. A full refund of tuition will be made if the student cancels or the DOD is within the first 7 days of the term either to the Federal Direct Loan Program or to the non-financial aid student. The refund will be issued within 60 days after the date of cancellation or 60 days after the LDA (Last Date of Attendance). Certain fees in addition to the Application and Registration Fee may be nonrefundable. (See "Fees and Charges") For example only: A student who pays $2000 in tuition and $80 in fees (non-refundable resident application and term registration fee), $2080 total, in advance for the term, and then cancels before the close of business on the fifteenth day of the term receives $2000 as a refund. (Payable to the Federal Direct Loan Program, if a financial aid student.)

•In addition, if a student has received federal student financial aid funds, s/he is entitled to a refund of refundable monies not paid from Federal Direct Loan Program
