Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- “150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.

- “First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

1. You have the right to cancel your agreement for a program of instruction, without any penalty or obligations, through attendance at the first class session or the seventh calendar day after enrollment, whichever is later. After the end of the cancellation period, you also have the right to stop school at any time; and you have the right to receive a full refund for any module paid for but not received.

Cancellation of this agreement can occur up to October 8, 2021.

2. Cancellation occurs when you provide written, hand-delivered, or electronic notice of cancellation. Written or hand-delivered notice should be made to an Executive Director at the following address: Nizhoni Institute of Midwifery, 3944 Murphy Canyon Rd, Suite C-200, San Diego, CA 92123. Electronic notification of cancellation should be sent to nizhoni@nizhoniinstitute.edu. Written notice of cancellation, if sent by postal or other delivery service, is effective when deposited in the mail properly addressed with correct postage affixed. You should obtain official proof from the delivery service of the date and delivery address to which the document was sent in the event that there is need for validation of the same. Electronic notice of cancellation is effective when it is received in the electronic inbox of the Institution. Written notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by the Enrollment Agreement. Notice of cancellation must be made in writing and cannot be made via telephone call or declared by student absence.
3. If the Enrollment Agreement is cancelled, the Institution will refund the money you have paid, less the registration fee of $100.00, and deduction for books and/or equipment not returned in good condition, within 45 days after notice of cancellation is received. Should Nizhoni Institute become eligible to administer federal student financial aid, students using federal student financial aid will be entitled to a refund of monies not paid from federal student financial aid funds.
4. Upon signing this agreement, students are required to make a deposit of $800.00 to hold their place in the cohort. This deposit will be credited towards charges due upon enrollment, which include registration, tuition, supply & sustaining fees. Following the cancellation period, these fees will not be refunded.

WITHDRAWAL FROM THE PROGRAM

You may withdraw from Nizhoni Institute of Midwifery (the "School" or "Institution") at any time after the cancellation period as described above and receive a prorated refund of tuition. Students who have paid for a year in advance and withdraw before the year is complete will only pay for months/modules attended. Tuition is refunded by calculating the amount of tuition paid in advance ($7150) and subtracting the number of months/modules received multiplied by the cost per module ($650). Students withdrawing prior to completing 60% of the month/module will be given the option of completing the current module or receiving a prorated refund for that module. Students re-entering the program following withdrawal will be required to pay the full current tuition for any module for which they received a full or partial refund. Refunds will be prorated as follows:

Notice of withdrawal given prior to the first day of class (0% complete): 100%

Notice of withdrawal given prior to the second day of class (25% complete): 75%

Notice of withdrawal given prior to the third day of class (50% complete): 25%

Students withdrawing on or after the third day of class will have completed 75% of the month/module and are not eligible for a refund.

Nizhoni Institute has the right to subtract the cost of unpaid registration, tuition, supply & sustaining fees and to deduct the full cost of texts and/or equipment not returned in good condition within 30 days of withdrawal from the program.

You shall be deemed to have withdrawn from the program of instruction when any of the following occurs:-----

- You notify Nizhoni Institute of your withdrawal, or as of the date of your withdrawal, whichever is later.
- Nizhoni Institute terminates your enrollment for failure to maintain satisfactory progress; failure to abide by the rules and regulations of Nizhoni Institute of Midwifery; absences in excess of the maximum set forth by Nizhoni Institute; and/or failure to meet financial obligations to Nizhoni Institute of Midwifery.
- You fail to attend class for a three-week period without prior arrangement with the instructor and an Executive Director.

For the purpose of determining the amount of the refund, the date of your withdrawal shall be your last recorded attendance date.

Should Nizhoni Institute become eligible to administer federal student financial aid, and you have received federal student financial aid funds, you are entitled to a refund of monies not paid from federal student financial aid program funds. If any portion of the tuition was paid from the proceeds of a loan or third party, the refund shall be sent to the lender, third party or, if appropriate, to the state or federal agency that guaranteed or reinsured the loan.

If you are a student who is Withdrawn in any standing, you remain responsible for the payment of any tuition and/or fees that are outstanding at the time that you withdrew from the program.
