Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- “150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.

- “First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

To cancel enrollment, students or their legal guardians must submit a written and signed notice, clearly dated. A withdrawal from the program can be initiated either by submitting such written notice or through the student's actions, such as failure to attend classes.

Before the Program Begins

You may cancel your enrollment for any reason before the program starts. Students are entitled to cancel their enrollment agreement and receive a refund of tuition and fees paid—provided this is done before attending the first class session or within seven (7) days of enrollment, whichever is later. Please note that the registration fee is non-refundable.

After the Program Has Started

If a student withdraws from the program after it begins, they may qualify for a partial refund, calculated according to our Refund Policy. However, no refund will be issued once the student has completed more than 60% of the total program. Additionally, students will be held financially responsible for any expenses the school has paid on their behalf, including but not limited to: DOT Physical, DOT Drug Screening, DMV Licensing, and/or Hazardous Materials Endorsement Background Check fees.

To submit your cancellation, you may either:

- Email your written notice to: info@masterstruckingacademy.com
- Or mail your cancellation letter to the address listed at the top of this page.
