"STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL"

The student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first-class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. The student who cancels the enrollment agreement shall have no penalty or obligations outside of the non-refundable items.

PROCEDURES TO FOLLOW TO CANCEL THE ENROLLMENT AGREEMENT OR WITHDRAW AFTER THE CANCELLATION PERIOD: The period of cancellation ends on: _____. Notice of cancellation or withdrawal by the student must be in writing, or by the student's conduct, including but not necessarily limited to, a student's lack of attendance. Cancellation requests must be addressed to the Program Director and must include the student's contact information such as name, mailing address, phone number and email address. Requests may be mailed, hand delivered or faxed to the school. Cancellation is effective on the date postmarked, if mailed.

A student who withdraws from the educational program after the cancellation period will be entitled to a refund of any overpayment as of the date of withdrawal notice. The amount owed as of the date of withdrawal notice will be pro-rated according to hours of attendance. To withdraw from the program, the student must notify the Program Director. Students who withdraw are responsible for any outstanding financial obligations.

If the student has received federal student financial aid, the student is entitled to a refund of money not paid from federal student financial aid program funds. If the student obtains a loan to pay for an educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund.

If the student is eligible for a loan guaranteed by the federal or state government and the student defaults on the loan, both of the following may occur:

- a. The federal or state government or a loan guarantee agency may take action against the student, including applying any income tax refund to which the person is entitled to reduce the balance owed on the loan.
- b. The student may not be eligible for any other federal student financial aid at another institution or other government assistance until the loan is repaid.
