STUDENT’S RIGHT TO CANCEL

The Colburn Conservatory of Music is accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music (NASM) and observes NASM policies regarding the commitment to enroll. The state of California requires that a student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first-class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

The Colburn school’s cancellation policy extends the student’s right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of charges up thru Friday of the second week of class.

- Cancellation before the Friday in the second week of classes: The school will refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250). (includes a complete refund of comprehensive fee and parking amounts paid to date.)

The refund policy for students who cancel the enrollment agreement after the cancellation period, (the second week of class) and complete 60 percent or less of the period of attendance shall be a pro rata refund. For your convenience see below the approximate time frame for refund in weeks.

- Withdrawal beginning the Monday in week three through the Friday of week Eight of classes: a prorated refund of institutional charges including the comprehensive fee and parking amounts paid to date, calculated on a 15-week semester
- Withdrawal beginning on the Monday of week nine of the semester a student will have received 60% or more of the education, and there will be no refund.

If you have received any equipment (including musical instruments), you must return it within 30 days of the date you signed your notice of withdrawal, in accordance with the lease agreement.

To cancel your enrollment in the Colburn Conservatory of Music, mail, email, or deliver a signed and dated copy of your written notice to:

Colburn Conservatory of Music Office of Admissions
 200 South Grand Avenue
 Los Angeles, CA 90012
admissions@colburnschool.edu

REMEMBER THAT YOU MUST CANCEL IN WRITING. You do not have the right to cancel simply by telephoning the Conservatory or by not coming to class.

Complete the following ONLY IF YOU HAVE ALREADY ENROLLED AND ARE NOW CANCELLING YOUR COMMITMENT:

STUDENT’S RIGHT TO CANCEL

The Colburn Conservatory of Music is accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music (NASM) and observes NASM policies regarding the commitment to enroll. The state of California requires that a student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first-class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

The Colburn school’s cancellation policy extends the student’s right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of charges up thru Friday of the second week of class.

- Cancellation before the Friday in the second week of classes: The school will refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250). (includes a complete refund of comprehensive fee and parking amounts paid to date.)

The refund policy for students who cancel the enrollment agreement after the cancellation period, (the second week of class) and complete 60 percent or less of the period of attendance shall be a pro rata refund. For your convenience see below the approximate time frame for refund in weeks.

- Withdrawal beginning the Monday in week three through the Friday of week Eight of classes: a prorated refund of institutional charges including the comprehensive fee and parking amounts paid to date, calculated on a 15-week semester
- Withdrawal beginning on the Monday of week nine of the semester a student will have received 60% or more of the education, and there will be no refund.

If you have received any equipment (including musical instruments), you must return it within 30 days of the date you signed your notice of withdrawal, in accordance with the lease agreement.

To cancel your enrollment in the Colburn Conservatory of Music, mail, email, or deliver a signed and dated copy of your written notice to:

Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- “150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
- “First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom; after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT’S RIGHT TO CANCEL

The Colburn Conservatory of Music is accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music (NASM) and observes NASM policies regarding the commitment to enroll. The state of California requires that a student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first-class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

The Colburn school’s cancellation policy extends the student’s right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of charges up thru Friday of the second week of class.

- Cancellation before the Friday in the second week of classes: The school will refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250). (includes a complete refund of comprehensive fee and parking amounts paid to date.)

The refund policy for students who cancel the enrollment agreement after the cancellation period, (the second week of class) and complete 60 percent or less of the period of attendance shall be a pro rata refund. For your convenience see below the approximate time frame for refund in weeks.

- Withdrawal beginning the Monday in week three through the Friday of week Eight of classes: a prorated refund of institutional charges including the comprehensive fee and parking amounts paid to date, calculated on a 15-week semester
- Withdrawal beginning on the Monday of week nine of the semester a student will have received 60% or more of the education, and there will be no refund.

If you have received any equipment (including musical instruments), you must return it within 30 days of the date you signed your notice of withdrawal, in accordance with the lease agreement.

To cancel your enrollment in the Colburn Conservatory of Music, mail, email, or deliver a signed and dated copy of your written notice to:

Colburn Conservatory of Music Office of Admissions
 200 South Grand Avenue
 Los Angeles, CA 90012
admissions@colburnschool.edu

REMEMBER THAT YOU MUST CANCEL IN WRITING. You do not have the right to cancel simply by telephoning the Conservatory or by not coming to class.

Complete the following ONLY IF YOU HAVE ALREADY ENROLLED AND ARE NOW CANCELLING YOUR COMMITMENT:

I [print your full name] , _____ choose to CANCEL enrollment in the Professional Studies Certificate program, according to the policy stated above.
