Should the student terminate the program for any reason, refunds will be made according to the following refund policy:
 - Cancellations must be given in verbal or written notice, either in person; by phone; or by mail, through at the first-class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.
 - If the refund petition has met the requirements listed above, then the student executing the enrollment agreement is entitled to a refund of all monies paid excluding the non-refundable registration fee.
 - If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of monies not paid from federal student financial aid program funds

 - If special circumstances arise, a student may request, in writing, a leave of absence, which should include the date the student anticipates the leave beginning and ending. The withdrawal date will be the date the student is scheduled to return from the leave of absence but fails to do so.
 - If the student wishes to withdraw and transfer to another course or start a new course at a later date, the student must meet with the RNPD or Executive Director with (7) seven days of LDA and develop a remediation agreement for the student. - If an applicant never attends class (no-show) or cancels the contract through at the first-class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, all refunds due must be made within forty (40) calendar days of the first scheduled day of class or the date of cancellation, whichever is earlier
- For a withdrawal student, the refund due must be calculated using the last date of attendance (LDA) and be paid within forty (40) calendar days from the documented date of determination (DOD). The date of determination is the date the student gives written or verbal notice of withdrawal to the institution or the date the institution terminates the student, by applying the institution's attendance, conduct, or Satisfactory Academic Progress

4. FULL REFUND:

- A student will be eligible for a full refund if:
 - All classes have been dropped through at the first-class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.
 - The courses for which the tuition and other fees were assessed were cancelled by VTI.

 - The student was activated for compulsory military service.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

1. Cancellation: STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL: The student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through at the first-class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. Should the student terminate the program for any reason, refunds will be made according to the following refund policy:
 - Cancellations must be given in verbal or written notice, either in person; by phone; or by mail, through at the first-class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.
 - If the refund petition has met the requirements listed above, then the student executing the enrollment agreement is entitled to a refund of all monies paid excluding the non-refundable registration fee.
 - If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of monies not paid from federal student financial aid program funds
2. Withdrawal:
 - A student choosing to withdraw from the school after the commencement of classes is to provide a verbal or written notice. The notice must include the last date of attendance (LDA) and be signed and dated by the student.
 - If special circumstances arise, a student may request, in writing, a leave of absence, which should include the date the student anticipates the leave beginning and ending. The withdrawal date will be the date the student is scheduled to return from the leave of absence but fails to do so.
 - If the student wishes to withdraw and transfer to another course or start a new course at a later date, the student must meet with the RNPD or Executive Director with (7) seven days of LDA and develop a remediation agreement for the student. If the student does not adhere to the remediation agreement, they will be dismissed without readmission. There will be a $100 transfer fee applied to their account for each transfer request.
 - If the student is withdrawn from the class by VTI due to academic probation, absences, etc., the student will receive an automatic fail for the course.
3. Refund:
 - This school has and maintains a policy for the refund of the unused portion of tuition, fees and other charges in the event the veteran or eligible person fails to enter the course or withdraws, or is discontinued therefrom at any time prior to the completion. VTI may charge a sum which does not vary more than 10 percent from the exact pro rata portion of such tuition, fees, and other charges that the length of the completed portion of the course bears to its total length. The exact proration will be determined on the ratio of the number of days of instruction completed by the student to the total number of instructional days in the course.

- If an applicant never attends class (no-show) or cancels the contract through at the first-class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, all refunds due must be made within forty (40) calendar days of the first scheduled day of class or the date of cancellation, whichever is earlier
- For a withdrawal student, the refund due must be calculated using the last date of attendance (LDA) and be paid within forty (40) calendar days from the documented date of determination (DOD). The date of determination is the date the student gives written or verbal notice of withdrawal to the institution or the date the institution terminates the student, by applying the institution's attendance, conduct, or Satisfactory Academic Progress

4. FULL REFUND:

- A student will be eligible for a full refund if:
 - All classes have been dropped through at the first-class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.
 - The courses for which the tuition and other fees were assessed were cancelled by VTI.
 - VTI makes a delayed decision that the student was not eligible to enroll in the term for which the tuition and other fees were assessed and collected and the delayed decision was not due to incomplete or inaccurate information provided by the student.
 - The student was activated for compulsory military service.

5. PRORATED REFUND:
