Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- “150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
- “First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

You have the right to cancel your agreement for a program of instruction, without any penalty or obligations, through attendance at the first-class session or the seventh calendar day after enrollment, whichever is later.

If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, then the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

CANCELLATION POLICY

1. If an applicant is rejected for enrollment by TALK, or if a prospective student has his/her visa application rejected, a full refund of all monies paid, less non-refundable charges and any actual housing costs incurred by TALK, will be made.
2. If TALK cancels a program subsequent to a student's enrollment, TALK will refund all monies paid by the student.
3. Cancellation Prior to the Start of Class or No Show: Except under the circumstance identified in # 4 below, if an applicant accepted by TALK cancels prior to the start of scheduled classes or never attends class (no show), TALK will refund all monies paid, less any housing and other costs incurred by TALK and a maximum total of US $500 identified non-refundable charges including any application/registration fee, courier fees, and insurance.
4. Cancellation Prior to the Start of Class or No Show: If an applicant accepted by TALK enters the United States on an I-20 obtained through TALK and subsequently cancels prior to the start of scheduled classes or never attends class (no show), TALK will retain:
  - For a program of less than 12 weeks, the tuition charges according to the scaled price list for four weeks, actual housing and other costs incurred by TALK, and a maximum total of $500 for non-refundable charges including any application fees, courier fees, change fees and insurance.
  - For a program of 12 weeks or more, the tuition charges according to the scaled price list for six weeks, any actual housing and other costs incurred by TALK and, a maximum total of $500 for non-refundable charges, including any application fees, courier fees, change fees and insurance.

WITHDRAWAL OR TERMINATION AFTER START OF CLASS:

TUITION REFUNDS/MODIFICATION TO PAYMENT AGREEMENTS

Students have the option to pay in cash for the entire period of enrollment or agree to be financially obligated for the same period of enrollment by entering into a recurring payment agreement (to take advantage of long term pricing). The Period of Financial Obligation is the period for which the student is legally obligated to pay for the enrollment period to which it relates. The Period of Financial Obligation always equals the enrollment period and cannot exceed 12 months. Refunds or modifications to the recurring payment agreement may only be done as follows:

1. Tuition: Used weeks of tuition will be prorated according to the scaled price list and charged back to the student when any refund or modification to the recurring payment agreement is calculated.

Waived application fees will not be charged back to the student.

2. Refund amounts will be based on a student's last date of attendance (LDA). When determining the number of weeks completed by the student, a partial week will be calculated as a full week, provided the student was present at least one day during that week.
3. First Period of Financial Obligation: For students whose last day of attendance occurs at any point in the first four weeks of their initial period of financial obligation, TALK will retain the charges applicable to the first four weeks. For students, whose last date of attendance occurs after the first four weeks but before or at the mid-point of their period of financial obligation, TALK will retain a prorated amount of tuition. For students whose last date of attendance occurs after the mid-point of their period of financial obligation, TALK will retain all of the charges for that period.
4. Subsequent Periods of Financial Obligation or Enrollment periods: For students who have completed the first period of financial obligation or extended their enrollment at the institution but whose last date of attendance occurs before or at the mid-point of any subsequent period of financial obligation, the institution may retain a prorated amount of tuition for that period. For students whose last date of attendance occurs after the mid-point of any subsequent period of financial obligation, the institution may retain all of the tuition for that period.

REFUND PAYMENT PROCEDURE

The student is not required to give notification of cancellation or withdrawal. Refunds are due as follows:

1. If an applicant never attends class or cancels prior to the course start date, all refunds due will be made within 45 days of the course start date or the date of cancellation, whichever is earlier;
2. For an enrolled student, the refund due will be calculated using the last date of attendance (LDA) and be paid within 45 days from the date of determination (DOD).

Date of Determination (DOD): The date: (1) the student gives notice of withdrawal to the institution, (2) the institution administratively withdraws the student; or (3) the date the institution terminates the student for cause.

Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- “150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
- “First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

You have the right to cancel your agreement for a program of instruction, without any penalty or obligations, through attendance at the first class session or the seventh calendar day after enrollment, whichever is later.

If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, then the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

CANCELLATION POLICY

1. If an applicant is rejected for enrollment by TALK, or if a prospective student has his/her visa application rejected, a full refund of all monies paid, less non-refundable charges and any actual housing costs incurred by TALK, will be made.
2. If TALK cancels a program subsequent to a student's enrollment, TALK will refund all monies paid by the student.
3. Cancellation Prior to the Start of Class or No Show: Except under the circumstance identified in # 4 below, if an applicant accepted by TALK cancels prior to the start of scheduled classes or never attends class (no show), TALK will refund all monies paid, less any housing and other costs incurred by TALK and a maximum total of US $500 identified non-refundable charges including any application/registration fee, courier fees, and insurance.
4. Cancellation Prior to the Start of Class or No Show: If an applicant accepted by TALK enters the United States on an I-20 obtained through TALK and subsequently cancels prior to the start of scheduled classes or never attends class (no show), TALK will retain:
  - For a program of less than 12 weeks, the tuition charges according to the scaled price list for four weeks, actual housing and other costs incurred by TALK, and a maximum total of $500 for non-refundable charges including any application fees, courier fees, change fees and insurance.
  - For a program of 12 weeks or more, the tuition charges according to the scaled price list for six weeks, any actual housing and other costs incurred by TALK and, a maximum total of $500 for non-refundable charges, including any application fees, courier fees, change fees and insurance.

TUITION REFUNDS/MODIFICATION TO PAYMENT AGREEMENTS

Students have the option to pay in cash for the entire period of enrollment or agree to be financially obligated for the same period of enrollment by entering into a recurring payment agreement (to take advantage of long term pricing). The Period of Financial Obligation is the period for which the student is legally obligated to pay for the enrollment period to which it relates. The Period of Financial Obligation always equals the enrollment period and cannot exceed 12 months. Refunds or modifications to the recurring payment agreement may only be done as follows:

1. Tuition: Used weeks of tuition will be prorated according to the scaled price list and charged back to the student when any refund or modification to the recurring payment agreement is calculated. Waived application fees will not be charged back to the student.

2. Refund amounts will be based on a student's last date of attendance (LDA). When determining the number of weeks completed by the student, a partial week will be calculated as a full week, provided the student was present at least one day during that week.
3. First Period of Financial Obligation: For students whose last day of attendance occurs at any point in the first four weeks of their initial period of financial obligation, TALK will retain the charges applicable to the first four weeks. For students, whose last date of attendance occurs after the first four weeks but before or at the mid-point of their period of financial obligation, TALK will retain a prorated amount of tuition. For students whose last date of attendance occurs after the mid-point of their period of financial obligation, TALK will retain all of the charges for that period.
4. Subsequent Periods of Financial Obligation or Enrollment periods: For students who have completed the first period of financial obligation or extended their enrollment at the institution but whose last date of attendance occurs before or at the mid-point of any subsequent period of financial obligation, the institution may retain a prorated amount of tuition for that period. For students whose last date of attendance occurs after the mid-point of any subsequent period of financial obligation, the institution may retain all of the tuition for that period.

REFUND PAYMENT PROCEDURE

The student is not required to give notification of cancellation or withdrawal. Refunds are due as follows:

1. If an applicant never attends class or cancels prior to the course start date, all refunds due will be made within 45 days of the course start date or the date of cancellation, whichever is earlier;
2. For an enrolled student, the refund due will be calculated using the last date of attendance (LDA) and be paid within 45 days from the date of determination (DOD).

Date of Determination (DOD): The date: (1) the student gives notice of withdrawal to the institution, (2) the institution administratively withdraws the student; or (3) the date the institution terminates the student for cause.

Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- “150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
- “First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

You have the right to cancel your agreement for a program of instruction, without any penalty or obligations, through attendance at the first class session or the seventh calendar day after enrollment, whichever is later.

If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, then the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

CANCELLATION POLICY

1. If an applicant is rejected for enrollment by TALK, or if a prospective student has his/her visa application rejected, a full refund of all monies paid, less non-refundable charges and any actual housing costs incurred by TALK, will be made.
2. If TALK cancels a program subsequent to a student's enrollment, TALK will refund all monies paid by the student.
3. Cancellation Prior to the Start of Class or No Show: Except under the circumstance identified in # 4 below, if an applicant accepted by TALK cancels prior to the start of scheduled classes or never attends class (no show), TALK will refund all monies paid, less any housing and other costs incurred by TALK and a maximum total of US $500 identified non-refundable charges including any application/registration fee, courier fees, and insurance.
4. Cancellation Prior to the Start of Class or No Show: If an applicant accepted by TALK enters the United States on an I-20 obtained through TALK and subsequently cancels prior to the start of scheduled classes or never attends class (no show), TALK will retain:
  - For a program of less than 12 weeks, the tuition charges according to the scaled price list for four weeks, actual housing and other costs incurred by TALK, and a maximum total of $500 for non-refundable charges including any application fees, courier fees, change fees and insurance.
  - For a program of 12 weeks or more, the tuition charges according to the scaled price list for six weeks, any actual housing and other costs incurred by TALK and, a maximum total of $500 for non-refundable charges, including any application fees, courier fees, change fees and insurance.

TUITION REFUNDS/MODIFICATION TO PAYMENT AGREEMENTS

Students have the option to pay in cash for the entire period of enrollment or agree to be financially obligated for the same period of enrollment by entering into a recurring payment agreement (to take advantage of long term pricing). The Period of Financial Obligation is the period for which the student is legally obligated to pay for the enrollment period to which it relates. The Period of Financial Obligation always equals the enrollment period and cannot exceed 12 months. Refunds or modifications to the recurring payment agreement may only be done as follows:

1. Tuition: Used weeks of tuition will be prorated according to the scaled price list and charged back to the student when any refund or modification to the recurring payment agreement is calculated. Waived application fees will not be charged back to the student.

2. Refund amounts will be based on a student's last date of attendance (LDA). When determining the number of weeks completed by the student, a partial week will be calculated as a full week, provided the student was present at least one day during that week.
3. First Period of Financial Obligation: For students whose last day of attendance occurs at any point in the first four weeks of their initial period of financial obligation, TALK will retain the charges applicable to the first four weeks. For students, whose last date of attendance occurs after the first four weeks but before or at the mid-point of their period of financial obligation, TALK will retain a prorated amount of tuition. For students whose last date of attendance occurs after the mid-point of their period of financial obligation, TALK will retain all of the charges for that period.
4. Subsequent Periods of Financial Obligation or Enrollment periods: For students who have completed the first period of financial obligation or extended their enrollment at the institution but whose last date of attendance occurs before or at the mid-point of any subsequent period of financial obligation, the institution may retain a prorated amount of tuition for that period. For students whose last date of attendance occurs after the mid-point of any subsequent period of financial obligation, the institution may retain all of the tuition for that period.

REFUND PAYMENT PROCEDURE

The student is not required to give notification of cancellation or withdrawal. Refunds are due as follows:

1. If an applicant never attends class or cancels prior to the course start date, all refunds due will be made within 45 days of the course start date or the date of cancellation, whichever is earlier;
2. For an enrolled student, the refund due will be calculated using the last date of attendance (LDA) and be paid within 45 days from the date of determination (DOD).

Date of Determination (DOD): The date: (1) the student gives notice of withdrawal to the institution, (2) the institution administratively withdraws the student; or (3) the date the institution terminates the student for cause.

Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- “150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
- “First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

You have the right to cancel your agreement for a program of instruction, without any penalty or obligations, through attendance at the first class session or the seventh calendar day after enrollment, whichever is later.

If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, then the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

CANCELLATION POLICY

1. If an applicant is rejected for enrollment by TALK, or if a prospective student has his/her visa application rejected, a full refund of all monies paid, less non-refundable charges and any actual housing costs incurred by TALK, will be made.
2. If TALK cancels a program subsequent to a student's enrollment, TALK will refund all monies paid by the student.
3. Cancellation Prior to the Start of Class or No Show: Except under the circumstance identified in # 4 below, if an applicant accepted by TALK cancels prior to the start of scheduled classes or never attends class (no show), TALK will refund all monies paid, less any housing and other costs incurred by TALK and a maximum total of US $500 identified non-refundable charges including any application/registration fee, courier fees, and insurance.
4. Cancellation Prior to the Start of Class or No Show: If an applicant accepted by TALK enters the United States on an I-20 obtained through TALK and subsequently cancels prior to the start of scheduled classes or never attends class (no show), TALK will retain:
  - For a program of less than 12 weeks, the tuition charges according to the scaled price list for four weeks, actual housing and other costs incurred by TALK, and a maximum total of $500 for non-refundable charges including any application fees, courier fees, change fees and insurance.
  - For a program of 12 weeks or more, the tuition charges according to the scaled price list for six weeks, any actual housing and other costs incurred by TALK and, a maximum total of $500 for non-refundable charges, including any application fees, courier fees, change fees and insurance.

TUITION REFUNDS/MODIFICATION TO PAYMENT AGREEMENTS

Students have the option to pay in cash for the entire period of enrollment or agree to be financially obligated for the same period of enrollment by entering into a recurring payment agreement (to take advantage of long term pricing). The Period of Financial Obligation is the period for which the student is legally obligated to pay for the enrollment period to which it relates. The Period of Financial Obligation always equals the enrollment period and cannot exceed 12 months. Refunds or modifications to the recurring payment agreement may only be done as follows:

1. Tuition: Used weeks of tuition will be prorated according to the scaled price list and charged back to the student when any refund or modification to the recurring payment agreement is calculated. Waived application fees will not be charged back to the student.

2. Refund amounts will be based on a student's last date of attendance (LDA). When determining the number of weeks completed by the student, a partial week will be calculated as a full week, provided the student was present at least one day during that week.
3. First Period of Financial Obligation: For students whose last day of attendance occurs at any point in the first four weeks of their initial period of financial obligation, TALK will retain the charges applicable to the first four weeks. For students, whose last date of attendance occurs after the first four weeks but before or at the mid-point of their period of financial obligation, TALK will retain a prorated amount of tuition. For students whose last date of attendance occurs after the mid-point of their period of financial obligation, TALK will retain all of the charges for that period.
4. Subsequent Periods of Financial Obligation or Enrollment periods: For students who have completed the first period of financial obligation or extended their enrollment at the institution but whose last date of attendance occurs before or at the mid-point of any subsequent period of financial obligation, the institution may retain a prorated amount of tuition for that period. For students whose last date of attendance occurs after the mid-point of any subsequent period of financial obligation, the institution may retain all of the tuition for that period.

REFUND PAYMENT PROCEDURE

The student is not required to give notification of cancellation or withdrawal. Refunds are due as follows:

1. If an applicant never attends class or cancels prior to the course start date, all refunds due will be made within 45 days of the course start date or the date of cancellation, whichever is earlier;
2. For an enrolled student, the refund due will be calculated using the last date of attendance (LDA) and be paid within 45 days from the date of determination (DOD).

Date of Determination (DOD): The date: (1) the student gives notice of withdrawal to the institution, (2) the institution administratively withdraws the student; or (3) the date the institution terminates the student for cause.
