Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.

STUDENT’S RIGHT TO CANCEL

Cancellation, Withdrawal, Refund Policy

Cancellation

If the student is unable to start class, 100% of the program refund can be requested no later than 2 weeks from the program start date. If the student has not requested a refund prior to 2 weeks from the class start date, refunds are not applicable. The refund request must be handed in writing and submitted to the TTL College office at the address listed above.

For programs that provide the program materials prior to the first-class date, a two-week notice to drop the course is required or a $75 administrative fee will be charged to the student’s file. Class materials must be returned within 5 business days of withdrawing from the course or the student’s account will be charged for the material’s full amount.

TTL College

345 East Santa Clara Street, Suite, San Jose, CA 95113

408-998-4534 www.ttlcollege.com

Withdrawal

After the end of the cancellation period, the student may also have the right to drop out of school at any time and the right to receive a pro rata refund. Please note that the refund WILL NOT include the registration fee of $75.

Pro rata refund = Number days the student had attended class divided by the number of instruction days of the whole program.

Amount of Refund = Program tuition - Pro rata refund

However, if a student paid tuition through monthly installments, tuition is nonrefundable if he/she already had attended at least one of the classes for the correlating month(s). However, monthly tuition payments may be stopped for the following months the student withdraws from class.

The student is obligated to pay only for the educational services rendered any unreturned supplies or equipment (if any) as well as the registration fee. If a student completes over 60% of the scheduled attendance at the time the student is withdrawing, a refund will not be processed.

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.

STUDENT’S RIGHT TO CANCEL

Cancellation, Withdrawal, Refund Policy

Cancellation

If the student is unable to start class, 100% of the program refund can be requested no later than 2 weeks from the program start date. If the student has not requested a refund prior to 2 weeks from the class start date, refunds are not applicable. The refund request must be handed in writing and submitted to the TTL College office at the address listed above.

For programs that provide the program materials prior to the first-class date, a two-week notice to drop the course is required or a $75 administrative fee will be charged to the student’s file. Class materials must be returned within 5 business days of withdrawing from the course or the student’s account will be charged for the material’s full amount.

Withdrawal

TTL College

345 East Santa Clara Street, Suite, San Jose, CA 95113

408-998-4534 www.ttlcollege.com

After the end of the cancellation period, the student may also have the right to drop out of school at any time and the right to receive a pro rata refund. Please note that the refund WILL NOT include the registration fee of $75.

Pro rata refund = Number days the student had attended class divided by the number of instruction days of the whole program.

Amount of Refund = Program tuition - Pro rata refund

However, if a student paid tuition through monthly installments, tuition is nonrefundable if he/she already had attended at least one of the classes for the correlating month(s). However, monthly tuition payments may be stopped for the following months the student withdraws from class.

The student is obligated to pay only for the educational services rendered any unreturned supplies or equipment (if any) as well as the registration fee. If a student completes over 60% of the scheduled attendance at the time the student is withdrawing, a refund will not be processed.

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.

STUDENT’S RIGHT TO CANCEL

Cancellation

If the student is unable to start class, 100% of the program refund can be requested no later than 2 weeks from the program start date. If the student has not requested a refund prior to 2 weeks from the class start date, refunds are not applicable. The refund request must be handed in writing and submitted to the TTL College office at the address listed above.

For programs that provide the program materials prior to the first-class date, a two-week notice to drop the course is required or a $75 administrative fee will be charged to the student’s file. Class materials must be returned within 5 business days of withdrawing from the course or the student’s account will be charged for the material’s full amount.

Withdrawal

TTL College

345 East Santa Clara Street, Suite, San Jose, CA 95113

408-998-4534 www.ttlcollege.com

After the end of the cancellation period, the student may also have the right to drop out of school at any time and the right to receive a pro rata refund. Please note that the refund WILL NOT include the registration fee of $75.

Pro rata refund = Number days the student had attended class divided by the number of instruction days of the whole program.

Amount of Refund = Program tuition - Pro rata refund

However, if a student paid tuition through monthly installments, tuition is nonrefundable if he/she already had attended at least one of the classes for the correlating month(s). However, monthly tuition payments may be stopped for the following months the student withdraws from class.

The student is obligated to pay only for the educational services rendered any unreturned supplies or equipment (if any) as well as the registration fee. If a student completes over 60% of the scheduled attendance at the time the student is withdrawing, a refund will not be processed.

Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.

STUDENT’S RIGHT TO CANCEL

Cancellation

If the student is unable to start class, 100% of the program refund can be requested no later than 2 weeks from the program start date. If the student has not requested a refund prior to 2 weeks from the class start date, refunds are not applicable. The refund request must be handed in writing and submitted to the TTL College office at the address listed above.

For programs that provide the program materials prior to the first-class date, a two-week notice to drop the course is required or a $75 administrative fee will be charged to the student’s file. Class materials must be returned within 5 business days of withdrawing from the course or the student’s account will be charged for the material’s full amount.

TTL College

Withdrawal

After the end of the cancellation period, the student may also have the right to drop out of school at any time and the right to receive a pro rata refund. Please note that the refund WILL NOT include the registration fee of $75.

Pro rata refund = Number days the student had attended class divided by the number of instruction days of the whole program.

Amount of Refund = Program tuition - Pro rata refund

However, if a student paid tuition through monthly installments, tuition is nonrefundable if he/she already had attended at least one of the classes for the correlating month(s). However, monthly tuition payments may be stopped for the following months the student withdraws from class.

The student is obligated to pay only for the educational services rendered any unreturned supplies or equipment (if any) as well as the registration fee. If a student completes over 60% of the scheduled attendance at the time the student is withdrawing, a refund will not be processed.

Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.

STUDENT’S RIGHT TO CANCEL

Cancellation

If the student is unable to start class, 100% of the program refund can be requested no later than 2 weeks from the program start date. If the student has not requested a refund prior to 2 weeks from the class start date, refunds are not applicable. The refund request must be handed in writing and submitted to the TTL College office at the address listed above.

For programs that provide the program materials prior to the first-class date, a two-week notice to drop the course is required or a $75 administrative fee will be charged to the student’s file. Class materials must be returned within 5 business days of withdrawing from the course or the student’s account will be charged for the material’s full amount.

TTL College

345 East Santa Clara Street, Suite, San Jose, CA 95113

Withdrawal

After the end of the cancellation period, the student may also have the right to drop out of school at any time and the right to receive a pro rata refund. Please note that the refund WILL NOT include the registration fee of $75.

Pro rata refund = Number days the student had attended class divided by the number of instruction days of the whole program.

Amount of Refund = Program tuition - Pro rata refund

However, if a student paid tuition through monthly installments, tuition is nonrefundable if he/she already had attended at least one of the classes for the correlating month(s). However, monthly tuition payments may be stopped for the following months the student withdraws from class.

The student is obligated to pay only for the educational services rendered any unreturned supplies or equipment (if any) as well as the registration fee. If a student completes over 60% of the scheduled attendance at the time the student is withdrawing, a refund will not be processed.

Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.

STUDENT’S RIGHT TO CANCEL

Cancellation

If the student is unable to start class, 100% of the program refund can be requested no later than 2 weeks from the program start date. If the student has not requested a refund prior to 2 weeks from the class start date, refunds are not applicable. The refund request must be handed in writing and submitted to the TTL College office at the address listed above.

For programs that provide the program materials prior to the first-class date, a two-week notice to drop the course is required or a $75 administrative fee will be charged to the student’s file. Class materials must be returned within 5 business days of withdrawing from the course or the student’s account will be charged for the material’s full amount.

Withdrawal

After the end of the cancellation period, the student may also have the right to drop out of school at any time and the right to receive a pro rata refund. Please note that the refund WILL NOT include the registration fee of $75.

Pro rata refund = Number days the student had attended class divided by the number of instruction days of the whole program.

Amount of Refund = Program tuition - Pro rata refund

However, if a student paid tuition through monthly installments, tuition is nonrefundable if he/she already had attended at least one of the classes for the correlating month(s). However, monthly tuition payments may be stopped for the following months the student withdraws from class.

The student is obligated to pay only for the educational services rendered any unreturned supplies or equipment (if any) as well as the registration fee. If a student completes over 60% of the scheduled attendance at the time the student is withdrawing, a refund will not be processed.
