Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- “150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
- “First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

Student's Right to Cancel

Students have the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and withdraw from the course at any time during the course. To obtain a full refund (less non-refundable charges), the student must cancel within seven days of signing the enrollment agreement or by the first day of class, whichever is later. If less than 60% of the course has been completed, a refund will be granted based on, (a) the percentage of the course that has been completed, and (b) the amount of tuition that has been paid to date. Payment option 1: Total course cost of $6100 is due on or before the start of classes. Payment option 2: $700 is due on or before the start of classes, and the remaining tuition of $5400 is due in monthly payments of $600 (plus a $10 processing fee), on the same day of each month, until paid in full. Prior to the first day of instruction, or the 7th day after enrollment, whichever is later, a full refund of tuition only will be granted. However, if classes have begun, and/or the student has received their textbooks/study guides/materials, the fees for these items are non-refundable. Students who have been enrolled for 60% of the course, or more, are not entitled to a refund.

The enrollment agreement must be canceled in writing. You must complete the Cancellation/Withdrawal form, provided when your enrollment agreement is signed, and mail it or hand it in to the school director. The refund will be calculated based on the postmark date, or the date the form is handed in. Your refund will be made within 45 days of this date. Any outstanding materials must be returned within 7 days of this date, or the full cost of new replacement equipment will be subtracted from any refund due. Only tuition is refundable. A full refund will be made (minus non-refundable fees) if enrollment is cancelled on the first day of class or within 7 calendar days of enrollment/registration. If mailed, the

Cancellation/Withdrawal form must be mailed to:

Sierra Massage School
Attn: Steven R. Mathews
1629 Pollasky, Suite 102
Clovis, CA 93612

If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid funds. If the student defaults on a federal or state loan, both of the following may occur: 1) The federal or state government or a loan guarantee agency may take action against the student, including garnishing an income tax refund, and 2) The student may not be eligible for any other government financial assistance at another institution until the loan is repaid.

If the student obtains a loan to pay for an educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan, plus interest, less the amount of any refund.
