Introduction

Congratulations on your interest in Occupational Training at Arriba Juntos! Here, you have the opportunity to move into a new career with opportunities for advancement.

Occupational Training provides you with the opportunity to learn specific skills that will make you successful in a new career. Some of these skills are taught in a classroom session, while others are learned through practical experience. Our goal is to provide you with the qualifications that employers look for when hiring.

For our Occupational Training programs, we have chosen to concentrate in two areas that are predicted to have high and large growth in the next few years – the health care industry and business/ clerical support occupations. The Nursing Assistant Training, Home Health Care Aide Training (which together we call the Health Careers Training) prepares students to enter and advance in nursing fields. Our Automated Office Skills Training prepares students to enter and advance in computerized office and business support positions. Our ESL/VESL program provides the language, vocational, and cultural skills for our participants to achieve economic independence.

Included with the training programs are other necessary services for your success, such as preparation for a job search and referrals to jobs. In addition to the Occupation Training services described in this catalog, Arriba Juntos offers a variety of other employment, training and education services. Please feel free to ask about these services at any time.

As a prospective student, you are encouraged to review this catalog prior to signing an enrollment agreement. You are also encouraged to review the School Performance Fact Sheet, which must be provided to you prior to signing an enrollment agreement.

Congratulations again. If you have any questions that this catalog cannot answer, or you would like to enroll in a course, please come to our offices at 1850 Mission Street in San Francisco (between 14th and 15th) or call us at (415) 487-3240.

Any questions a student may have regarding this catalog that have not been satisfactorily answered by the institution may be directed to the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education at 1747 N. Occupational and Training Programs

ESL/VESL Training

Overview/Objectives

The ESL/VESL program will provide a continuum of job-readiness, search, placement, and retention services to participants. The individualized training program is not tied to a specific industry or occupation. It is meant to provide all programs participants with a comprehensive array of work-directed services to help them transition to sustained economic independence.

The ESL/VESL program teaches Communicative Functions in both spoken and written English, employing the language, vocabulary, and etiquette appropriate for the workplace. The training includes a multi-level, multi-contextual modularized curriculum for persons wanting to advance in workplace terminology. This system of prescribed training according to the needs of the participants will upgrade their proficiency in hopes of them achieving long-term retention in employment and career upgrades. The participants in the English-as-a-Second-Language (ESL) training may receive of up to 360 hours of instruction, depending on the needs of the individual.

Culturally competent case management is the essential strategy Arriba Juntos utilizes for success. Arriba Juntos has developed an in-house culturally competent case management support system capable of addressing many of the issues affecting the participants, such as domestic violence, substance abuse, and financial instability. This system is complemented by an array of workforce development services that will be provided to the client for 12 months after entering the program. A prescription tailored to the needs of each participant will address their individual needs.

Through supervised job search activities and/or agency job placement services, participants will be assisted in obtaining unsubsidized employment. Job development staff will work with human resource personnel at businesses of all sizes to develop new opportunities for program participants.

Participants may also be directed into our very popular Computer Skills Upgrade option. The Computer Skills Upgrade option is a modularized system designed to provide participants with additional skills necessary to secure and maintain a job. The Arriba Juntos computer center offers a variety of learning opportunities to gain computer skills and technological literacy. Specific courses that participants may choose from include: Introduction to Computers, Using the Internet, Microsoft Word, Microsoft Excel, Microsoft PowerPoint, PageMaker, Photoshop, and HTML. Users can choose which skills to acquire.

Objectives

At the completion of this course of study, the student will be able to:

- Communicate effectively in English based upon an increased understanding of language and culture.
- Practice positive interpersonal relationship skills with family, coworkers, classmates, and others.
- Practice safety in the workplace in relation to environment, personal habits, and hygiene.

Targeted Occupations

At successful completion of the ESL/VESL Training, students will be eligible for a wide variety of entry-level jobs. The goal of the program is to upgrade participant's English proficiency and aide in the participant's goal of achieving long-term retention and career upgrades.

Health Careers Training

Overview/Objectives

Our Health Careers Training program is actually three approved occupational training courses, the Nursing Assistant Training, Home Health Aide, and Home Care Training programs. You have the option to enroll in one or more of these programs. The combinations of these three courses provide an increase in the breadth of jobs available, and in starting wages. The combined courses are 262 hours.

The courses are designed to prepare students to provide health services to residents of long-term care facilities, as well as recipients of health care services in the home. Theoretical topics in a classroom setting are complemented by practical skill use in a home and clinical setting.

In the classroom, students will be presented with theory that will enable them to develop knowledge and understanding about the care of the patients in long-term care facilities and home care, and the techniques utilized in providing this care. At the clinical site, students will observe and practice the skills and techniques discussed in the classroom.

Students will be expected to complete reading assignments for each class and to be prepared to participate in classroom discussions. The textbook for the NA (Nursing Assistant) course is:

Nursing Assistant Certification Textbook by Dr. Carrie L. Engelbright RN, CNE, CWP

In this course, the students will learn skills not only related to care of the patients in long-term care, but will also learn information and techniques that will contribute to his/her own healthful living. The education gained in this course and work experience as a Nursing Assistant (NA), Home Health Aide (HHA) or Home-care can result in a lifetime career in the health field. There are opportunities on the career ladder in the nursing profession beginning with these training and employment opportunities.

Eligibility for Licensure

The requirements for eligibility for licensure within the Nursing Assistant/Home Health Aide field are as follows:

- A candidate must pass a criminal background check.
- A candidate must have a negative T.B. test and an up to date physical exam that demonstrates this person can handle the workload of a Nursing Assistant/Home Health Aide, and Home Care
- The candidate must complete the required hours before challenging their state exam; these hours are as follows:
 - Nursing Assistant: 166 hours total: 66 hours in the classroom and 100 hours at a clinical site.
 - Home Health Aide: 40 hours total; 20 hours in the classroom and 20 hours at a clinical site.
 - Home Care: 52 hours total; 40 hours in the classroom, and 12 hours of practice at the home setting. 4 hours of CPR training is available to supplement all three courses here at Arriba Juntos as well.
- Once the candidate's hours are completed, they will need to pass both the written and skills portion of the state exam. When the candidate passes both exams, they will become a Certified Nursing Assistant. (Home Health Aide does not have a state exam).

Objectives

At the completion of this course of study, the students will be able to:

- Describe the role and perimeters of responsibility of the Nursing Assistant (NA)/ Home Health Aide (HHA) and Homecare (HC) as well as the role and function of other members of health care team in a long-term care facility and in the home care situation.
- Describe the function and purpose of the various health care institutions and agencies.
- Communicate effectively with patients based upon an understanding of their physical, psychological, psychosocial, and spiritual needs.
- Practice positive interpersonal relationship skills with patients, families, coworkers, classmates, and others.
- Understand the relationship between microorganisms and infection to go along with how to apply infection control measures in the care of patients.
- Practice safety in daily work with patients in relation to environment, patient care skills, and personal habits and hygiene.
- Describe the function of the nursing procedures performed in patient care.
- Demonstrate competence in performing patient care procedures.
- Respect the rights of patients and perform their duties in an ethical and legal manner.

Targeted Occupations

At the successful completion of the Nursing Assistant course, students will be eligible for certification as a Nursing Assistant (NA) and will be employable within this classification. With the additional training in the Home Health Aide Pre-Certification course, additional employment opportunities will be accessible as a Home Health Aide and Home Care.

The Health Careers Training courses are designed to match the qualifications of the following occupations:

Occupation	Dictionary of Occupations Titles (DOT) Classification	Occupational Employment Statistics (OES) Classification	Standard Occupational Classification (SOC)

Grading/ Assessment and Certification

Grading and certification for the three Health Careers courses is necessarily separate. An overall score of 75% is required to satisfactorily pass and complete each course. You must pass the Nursing Assistant course before proceeding to the Home Health Care Aide training.

Student evaluation will be accomplished through written tests and performance of Return Demonstration of Skills listed. If the student's performance is below standard, corrective counseling will be conducted.

The Nursing Assistant training grading will be based on: The 50% of theory; 5 quizzes will count (25%) of the total grade; the final examination will count (15%) and Workbook (10%).

The 50% of clinical of the training will be based on: clinical skills performance (30%), communication/interpersonal (5%), attendance (5%), and attitude/personal grooming (10%).

The Home Health Care Aide training grading will be based on 50% of theory (final exam) and skills/practice such as: (30%) skills performance, (5%) communication/interpersonal relationship, (5%) attendance, and attitude/personal grooming (10%).

The Home Care training grading will be based on 50% theory (final exam) and 30% skills performance, (5%) communication/interpersonal, (5%) attendance, and (10%) attitude/personal grooming.

Arriba Juntos will help arrange for you to take the state certification examination at different sites. Documentation of this course and the results of the state exam are sent to Sacramento. The California Department of Health Services will usually issue your license in eight to twelve weeks.

Nursing Assistant Training

In the clinical portion, student must perform each of forty patients care skills according to the steps outlined in the Skill Evaluation Sheet. Students will be given copies of the Skill Evaluation Sheet to be used as a guideline for practice and for evaluation. It is the student's responsibility to arrange with the instructor for the auditing and return demonstration of each skill.

Home Health Care Aide Training

The theory component of Home Health Aide Training is evaluated through the final examination only. Clinical skills are evaluated in a similar manner to the Nursing Assistant Training.

Homecare Training

An overall score of 75% is required to satisfactorily complete and pass the course. In the classroom, the average of the final examination will count as 50%. The practice grade will be based upon the satisfactory completion of practice skills. It is the student's responsibility to make arrangements with the instructor for the auditing and return demonstration of each skill. There are a number of other factors considered in the evaluation.

Automated Office Skills Training

Overview/Objectives

Our Automated Office Skills Training (AOST) course is designed to prepare students for employment in a computerized office environment. The course is an intensive, full-time classroom immersion in the latest computer tools. Students get to know the computer one-on-one.

The course focuses on the two main applications of computers in the office environment – word processing and spreadsheets. The students also receive a strong grounding in basic computer concepts and operation, and intensive career and job search instruction.

Instruction in our computer center includes lecture and lab; we aim to provide a wide variety of learning opportunities. Our computer center has many different learning resources available, including videos, Internet-based reference, instructional CD-ROM's, and leading commercial reference and instructional books, including:

Microsoft Official Academic Course 2016 – Wiley Publishing.

The skills and knowledge acquired through the Automated Office Skills Training provide not only basic qualifications for employment in computerized offices, but knowledge applicable to full participation in the "information age."

Objectives

Arriba Juntos aims to empower the successful student with the following:

- Basic knowledge of what a computer is, how it works, and its impact on the world.
- Specific knowledge of computer hardware and software, and operating systems and interfaces (particularly Windows Operating System).
- Introduction to networks and the use of Internet and e-mail.
- Ability to use rapid touch-typing and ten-key; and increase typing proficiency by twenty words-per-minute.
- Knowledge of word processing functions and their specific implementation in Microsoft Word.
- Knowledge of spreadsheet functions and their specific implementation in Microsoft Excel.
- Knowledge of appropriate vocabulary and behaviors for employment in an office environment.
- Knowledge of common tasks and tools required in an office environment.
- Ability to create a résumé and cover letter, interview with confidence and skill, and manage an effective job search.

- Knowledge of computer and office-related careers and opportunities. Ability to realistically explore career goals and develop a career plan.

Targeted Occupations

Upon successful completion of this course, students will have qualifications applicable to a wide variety of occupations and industries. The Automated Office Skills Training course is designed to match the qualifications of the following occupations:

Occupation	Dictionary of Occupations Titles (DOT) Classification	Occupational Employment Statistics (OES) Classification	Standard Occupational Classification (SOC)
Computer Operator	213.362-010	56011	15-1299
Data Entry Clerk/Keyed	203.582-054	56017	43-9021

Administration

Student Services: Placement, Retention, and Other Services

The training courses provide you with the necessary skills to know how to excel at your new job, but how are you going to get that new job? Through Arriba Juntos' extensive placement and follow-up services, which are included in the cost of your tuition.

Because Arriba Juntos specializes in two high-growth fields, we have long and well-established relationships with employers. These employers include hospitals, convalescent homes, nursing registries, financial institutions and other businesses, temporary staffing agencies, and the extensive small business community in San Francisco.

These employers know to list their openings for nurse assistants, home health aides, general office clerks, data entry clerks, or word processors with Arriba Juntos. Our employment specialists build and nurture these relationships and are here to link you with these special opportunities.

Among those employment services (standard for most programs) available to you after completion of the training course are:

1. Job readiness.
We offer an entire series of workshops covering an array of topics on how to get and keep a job. You're welcome to take advantage of these workshops beyond the required amount and to take them again as an alumnus.
2. Job search assistance.
How do you find a job? Besides helping you get a job after training, we provide you with the resources and guidance to conduct your own job search and find a job.
3. Job coaching, screening, and referral.
Our role is to match a person and a job. We'll work with you when you complete the training to prepare you to meet employers and interview for positions match your skills. You'll have all the instructions you need to contact an employer, have a successful interview, and follow-up to see if you have a job.
4. Skills upgrading and continuing education.
In order to succeed in your new career, you need to stay current on what's new and to refresh what's old, even after working. Stay in touch and we can connect you with opportunities to obtain new skills, to refresh old skills, and to maintain your certifications.
5. Re-placement and long-term follow-up.
In the modern economy, you can expect to change employers several times. We'll be here to provide you with your next step in advancing your career and as we hear of new opportunities, expect to hear from us. Through these extensive services, Arriba Juntos has been able to assist training graduates with their educational and employment goals.

In addition to our extensive job placement and retention services, as a student at Arriba Juntos, you may be eligible for services other than occupational training. These services include:

Arriba Juntos Boutique: We provide professional clothing for students at no cost with a referral from a case manager or other authorized Arriba Juntos employee.

Because there is not an extensive library on the premises of Arriba Juntos, instructors are well-equipped with information in-house as well as the information required to obtain access to other libraries, including the San Francisco Public Library and its branches. The facility has an 84 square foot area designated to store books, which the students are strongly encouraged to borrow or utilize for extra studying or reference at any time. Courses provide all the instructional materials, quizzes and tests necessary for students to become proficient in the occupations targeted by the educational services. As an enrolled student at Arriba Juntos, you have complete access to the resources described. However, you must obtain permission from your instructor and/or another authorized member of the staff. Some of these resources include our computer labs, books, study areas, and healthcare equipment.

Admissions and Tuition

Eligibility Requirements

- Be eighteen years of age or older and eligible to work in the United States.*
- Each student admitted into a training program at Arriba Juntos, shall complete the ECS Appraisal CASAS Test Form 130 in order to measure the Reading and Math levels.
- Instruction is taught in English. Students must demonstrate a language proficiency of a 3rd grade level in English (reading, listening, speaking, and writing).

There are also specific health requirements for participation in our Nursing Assistant and Home Health Aide pre-certification training courses. All applicants for the Health Careers Training courses will be screened for prior criminal convictions. Applicants convicted of crimes under Penal Code sections specified by the California Department of Health Services (list available upon request) will not be permitted to enroll in these courses. Arriba Juntos will verify each applicant's eligibility by calling the state registry at (916) 327-2445 before enrollment in the program.

There may be more specific eligibility criteria in order to be matched with organizations and programs that may pay your tuition. These are the criteria of the funder, not of Arriba Juntos' occupational training courses.

Tuition and Fees

Arriba Juntos is a nonprofit organization. Tuition serves only to provide the staff and resources to operate these programs in the community. This institution does not participate in federal and state financial aid programs; however, these programs and services are funded by federal, state, and city public entities; business consortia; foundation and corporate grants; and individual donations. Some of these funds are available to pay your tuition in our Occupational Training programs. To obtain these funds though, you will have to go outside Arriba Juntos to the given entities, as we ourselves do not handle the distribution of these funds. In most cases, the representatives of each program match the students to one of these entities or sponsors. These sponsors/entities may be Arriba Juntos contracts with funders to serve specific groups, or individual referral contracts with sponsoring organizations like ours that help individuals access training for free. Each sponsor/entity has its own eligibility criteria above and beyond those for Arriba Juntos.

Arriba Juntos does not participate in federal and state financial aid programs.

The following information explains the rights of the individual or organization that sponsors the training for the student. Costs for the training courses and placement services are as follows:

Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) will be added to cost of training as follows: Zero Dollars ($0.00) Estimated charges, and total charges are the same.

For more information about tuition and sponsorship, please speak directly to an Arriba Juntos counselor.

Disclaimer: Students are not obligated to pay fees. Student fees are funded and paid for by the local and state government agencies.

If a student obtains a loan to pay for an educational program, the student will have to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund, and that, if the student receives federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of the money not paid from federal financial aid funds.

Cancellation and Refund

Prior to enrollment AJ's will provide a prospective student, either in writing or electronically, the school catalog containing: name address, telephone number, and, and internet web site address of AJ. If student has a question regarding this catalog/or fact sheet that has not been satisfactory answered by the institution may be directed to the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education at by calling at (916-431-6959).

Your enrollment begins once you have completed and signed the enrollment agreement (see Admissions Procedures, below). Should you decide to cancel your enrollment in the training course, you or your sponsor may be eligible for a full or partial refund of tuition. You have the right to a full refund of all charges, should you cancel your enrollment on or prior to the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

After the enrollment period ends, you will receive a pro rata refund if completing 60% or less of the program.

For example, the AOST course is 400 hours and tuition is $5,000. If you cancel after attending 100 hours 12.5 days of instruction (25%), you are entitled to a refund of 75%, or $3,750.00. Similarly, if you cancel after 200 hours 25 days (50%), you are entitled to a 50% refund, or $2,500. However, if you cancel after 240 hours 30 days (60% or more), you are no longer entitled to a refund.

You must issue your cancellation in writing in order to be eligible for refund. If you fail to return equipment or materials issued by the course, their value will be deducted from your refund. All refunds will be made within thirty days.

If a student obtains a loan to pay for an educational program, the student will have responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund, and that, if the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of the money's not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

Student Tuition Recovery Fund

The State of California established the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic loss suffered by a student in an educational program at a qualifying institution, who is or was a California resident while enrolled, or was enrolled in a residency program, if the student enrolled in the institution, prepaid tuition, and suffered an economic loss. Unless relieved of the obligation to do so, you must pay the state-imposed assessment for the STRF, or it must be paid on your behalf, if you are a student in an educational program, who is a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and prepay all or part of your tuition.

You are eligible for protection from the STRF and you are not required to pay the STRF assessment, if you are not a California resident, or are not enrolled in a residency program"

"It is important that you keep copies of your enrollment agreement, financial aid documents, receipts, or any other information that documented the amount paid to the school. Questions regarding the STRF may be directed to the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education, 2535 Capitol Oaks, Suite 400, Sacramento, CA 95833, (916) 431-6959 or (888) 370-7589.

To be eligible for STRF, you may be a California resident or are enrolled in residency program, prepaid tuition, paid or deemed to have paid the STRF assessment, and suffered an economic loss as a result of any of the following:

1. The institution, a location of the institution , or an educational program offered by the institution was closed or discontinued, and you did not choose to participate in a teach-out plan approved by the Bureau or did not complete a chosen teach-out plan approve by the Bureau.
2. You were enrolled at an institution or a location of the institution within the 120 day period before the closure of the institution or location of the institution, or were enrolled in an education program within the 120 day period the program was discontinued.
3. You were enrolled at an institution or a location of the institution more than 120 days before the closure of the institution or location of the institution, in an educational program offered by the institution as to which the Bureau determined there was a significant decline in the quality or valued of the program more than 120 days before closure.
4. The institution has been ordered to pay a refund by the Bureau but has failed to do so.
5. The institution has failed to pay or reimburse loan proceeds under a federal loan program as required by law, or has failed to pay or reimburse proceeds received by the institution in excess of tuition and other costs.
6. You have been awarded restitution, a refund, or any other monetary award by an arbitrator or court, based on a violation of this chapter by an institution or representative of an institution, but have been unable to collect the award from the institution.

7. You sought legal counsel that resulted in the cancellation of one or more of your student loans and have an invoice for services rendered and evidence of the cancellation of the student loan or loans.

To qualify for STRF reimbursement, the application must be received within (4) years from the date of the action or event that made the student eligible for recovery from STRF.

A student whose loan is revived by loan holder or debt collector after a period of non-collection may, at any time, file a written application for recovery from STRF for the debt that would have otherwise been eligible for recovery. If it has more than four (4) years since the action or event that made the student eligible, the student must have file a written application for recovery within the original four (4) year period, unless the period has been extended by another act of law.

However, no claim can be paid to any student without a social security number or taxpayer identification number.

Record Retention Policy

It is important that you keep copies of the enrollment agreement, financial aid papers, receipts or any other information that documents the monies paid to the school. Questions regarding the STRF may be directed to the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education.

Physical address: 1747 N. Market Blvd. Suite 225, Sacramento, CA 95834

Mailing address: P.O. Box 980818, West Sacramento, CA 95798-0818

Phone number: (916) 431-6959

Student's records are kept in confidential storage. Records remain onsite for 5 years and transcripts are kept permanently.

 - Familiarize yourself with the policies and procedures (see the following section), and complete the enrollment form.

This institution only admits students who have proper documentation to be or work in the United States. We need a social security card and a Government issued photo ID, Permanent Residence Green Card or U.S passport to accept a prospective student into our classes. We do not admit foreign students on an F-1 Student Visa.

In addition, this institution does not award credit for prior trainings or educational experiences. There are no procedures or provisions for appeal that will affect charges a student might be required to pay for prior experiences. Everyone pays the same for a class regardless of your educational experience beforehand.

Standard for Student Achievement

As a participant in your training activities, you play an active and important role in your preparation for employment. As a participant in our programs, there are certain rights to which you are entitled, rules by which you must abide, and responsibilities expected of you.

Rights

As a participant in Arriba Juntos' programs, you have the following rights:

- To be treated with respect.
- To be free from harassment of any kind.
- To be free from discrimination on the grounds of race, color, religion, sex, sexual preference, national origin, age, disability, or political affiliation or belief.
- To voice grievances if you feel your rights have been compromised.
- To be given written notice of termination or disciplinary action with a complete reason for such.
- To have these and all other rights, rules, and responsibilities explained to you and available to you.

Rules

In order to be enrolled in Arriba Juntos' programs, you must adhere to these rules, or you will be subject to termination:

- No smoking in Arriba Juntos or at an external training site. Smoke only at designated times and in designated areas.
- Treat all staff, other participants, and all people with respect.
- No harassment of any kind, toward staff or other participants.
- No discrimination of any kind, toward staff or other participants.
- No use or possession of drugs or alcohol, unless prescribed by a medical doctor.
- No violence or threat of violence of any kind, verbal or physical, against any other person or thing.
- No possession of a weapon of any kind.
- No use of Arriba Juntos equipment and other resources without permission and supervision of staff.
- No behavior, including noise, which is disruptive to the activities at Arriba Juntos.
- No use of cell phone inside the classroom.
- No food or beverage inside the classroom.

Responsibilities

The following will be expected of you during the course of your participation in Arriba Juntos programs:

- Know and be familiar with your rights, rules, and responsibilities from this form and other policies from specific programs.
- Follow all rules of Arriba Juntos, rules of the specific program in which you are enrolled, and instructions given to you by Arriba Juntos staff.

- Be present at Arriba Juntos for all scheduled activities.
- Maintain the academic standard (75%) put forward for classroom activities, while completing classroom work in a prompt and timely manner.
- Follow all the policies and procedures of an external training site (OJT employer, NA clinical site, internship) and be present when scheduled.
- Use the established procedures to file a grievance.

It is important for you to read and understand these policies. If you have any questions at all, you have the right to ask and receive an explanation that you understand. These rights, rules, and responsibilities apply as long as you are enrolled in a program at Arriba Juntos.

Attendance Policies

Attendance is extremely important in Arriba Juntos occupational training courses because, (1) the classes cover a great deal of material at a rapid pace, (2) we are aiming to prepare you to be a good employee, and your employer will expect good attendance behaviors, and (3) certification by Arriba Juntos and the State of California requires completion of all the class hours. The following policies and procedures are designed to reinforce this importance.

Absence

- Should a student need to be absent from training (either in the classroom or at an external training site), the student must notify the instructor or case manager on the day of the absence.
- Legitimate excuses for absence include only the following: medical or dental appointment, court appearance, illness of the student or serious illness or death in the family, or other emergency. Proof of any and all of these is required.
- Because the number of available make-up hours is limited, students who miss more than 35 hours (excused or unexcused) may be dismissed from the program.

Tardiness

Prompt arrival in the mornings and prompt arrival from breaks and lunch are imperative. Lateness will not be tolerated. Two instances of tardiness (ten or more minutes late) will require a case conference with the student to address the problem. If the problem persists, the student may be dismissed.

Dropout Policy

- If a student should be absent without notification or an excuse (no call/no show), he or she will be considered a dropout and is grounds for immediate dismissal from the course.
- Continual tardiness or lack of attendance is also grounds for dismissal.

Leave-of-Absence Policy

- Due to the brief duration of our training programs, students are NOT permitted to request Vacation Leave or non-emergency Personal Leave while attending our courses. Any student who has vacation plans or personal obligations that would interfere with their attendance of the training should not enroll in the course.

Special Guidelines and Rules for Clinical Nursing Sites

We are grateful to the San Francisco Health Care and Rehabilitation Center for providing a practical learning environment for potential Nursing Assistants and Home Health Aides. Because of the special nature of patient care facilities, we must pay special attention to the following guidelines. The clinical site will also have its own set of rules and expectations. Students will be held to the highest expectations of professional and ethical behavior at all times.

It is important that the student is at all-time cognizant of the environment. In the long-term care facility, some patients need the stimulation of conversation and the activity with others. Some patients may require a quiet environment because of ill health. Thus, students must be aware of the individual patient's needs and adjust their behavior accordingly.

Attendance Policy and Procedures

It is the policy of Arriba Juntos to provide the required hours of theory and clinical instruction to each student. The school shall also provide sufficient time for each student to make up any time missed due to illness or other reasons.

It is a policy of Arriba Juntos that scheduling of clinical rotation for the Nurse Assistant training program be implemented with the consultation and consent of the contracted skilled nursing facility.

It is a policy of Arriba Juntos to hire a qualified License Nurse as a Director of Staff Development who is fully responsible for the management of the 100 hours of nursing training.

It is the policy of Arriba Juntos to prohibit mistreatment, neglect, and abuse of residents and misappropriation of resident property. Students are prohibited from subjecting residents to verbal, mental, sexual, or physical abuse, corporal punishment, or involuntary seclusion.

Good hygiene and personal appearance are important factors in maintaining a clean and safe environment for patient care. Therefore, standards for cleanliness, personal hygiene and appearance are established for personnel working in hospital settings. Students are expected to wear white clothes and white shoes during clinical assignments. Arriba Juntos will provide apron/smock and name tag. Students are expected to be clean and well-groomed at all times.

The facility or hospital reserves the general staff lounge for the use of the hospital staff. Students will be provided with an area for breaks and lunch.

The student-teacher ratio must remain at or below 15-to-1, in order to provide the least disruptive and most learning-centered environment. Students should remain close under the supervision of the instructor at all times.

Probation and Dismissal Policies

Because of the serious nature of these courses and the occupations they target, there may be instances where disciplinary action is required. The previous policy sections should clearly describe our expectations for occupational training students. Failure to work within these expectations is cause for dismissal from our occupational training, with or without written notice.

Students who violate the terms of their agreement to a minor degree might be subject to a case conference, in which the student and institution sign an agreement that student shall not commit said violation again. This agreement is to serve as a final warning, as if the said violations continue, the subject will be dismissed

Furthermore, Arriba Juntos will dismiss students for issues including the following:

- Criminal activity: use, sale, distribution, possession of controlled substances; theft or destruction of property; assault/battery or other violence against students, staff, patients, others; weapons possession or use.
- Classroom disruption: extreme insubordination; disruptive noise or language.
- Academic disqualification: failure to meet and maintain the minimum passing grade of all courses (75%).
- Absence and tardiness: unexcused absence; continual tardiness; failure to make up hours.

Grievance Procedure

If you have a grievance about the manner in which a staff member or another participant/student has treated you, or you disagree with some condition of the program, you have the right to file a formal grievance. It is also your responsibility to use this established procedure to voice any grievances.

During your enrollment in employment and training activities at Arriba Juntos, you may be enrolled in different programs and be responsible to different staff members. You should refer grievances within the program in which you are enrolled, following the proper chain of responsibility as outlined below:

1. The participant will discuss the matter first with the manager of the program in which they are enrolled and have a grievance. The participant may choose oral or written issuance of grievance.
2. If the matter remains unresolved or it involves a dispute with a staff person, the participant should put the grievance in writing and submit it to the program manager, who will meet with the individuals to resolve the matter.
3. If the matter is unresolved by the program, a written or verbal grievance may be submitted to the Deputy Director or Executive Director, whose decision will be final.

You also have external authorities with which you may file a grievance if you feel your grievance is not resolved. A student or any member of the public may file a complaint about this institution with the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education by calling (888) 370-7589 toll-free or by completing a complaint form, which can be obtained on the bureau's internet web site www.bppe.ca.gov
