- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

Cancellation will occur

1. When a student does not attend the first day of class - "No Show", OR
2. When the student gives written notice of cancellation to the school at the address specified in the agreement by the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. A cancellation request can be initiated by the student or the school. If the institution cancels a program, a full refund will be issued to the enrolled student(s) at the time of the cancellation. The institution will refund any consideration paid by the student. Any refunds then due will be made within 45 days following the date of determination. The institution has the unilateral right to cancel a student who is determined to have not met admissions eligibility or who has not been truthful in his or her application for admission and the institution shall be relieved of any and all obligations to the student.

- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

Cancellation will occur

1. When a student does not attend the first day of class - "No Show", OR
2. When the student gives written notice of cancellation to the school at the address specified in the agreement by the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. A cancellation request can be initiated by the student or the school. If the institution cancels a program, a full refund will be issued to the enrolled student(s) at the time of the cancellation. The institution will refund any consideration paid by the student. Any refunds then due will be made within 45 days following the date of determination. The institution has the unilateral right to cancel a student who is determined to have not met admissions eligibility or who has not been truthful in his or her application for admission and the institution shall be relieved of any and all obligations to the student.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

Cancellation will occur

1. When a student does not attend the first day of class - "No Show", OR
2. When the student gives written notice of cancellation to the school at the address specified in the agreement by the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. A cancellation request can be initiated by the student or the school. If the institution cancels a program, a full refund will be issued to the enrolled student(s) at the time of the cancellation. The institution will refund any consideration paid by the student. Any refunds then due will be made within 45 days following the date of determination. The institution has the unilateral right to cancel a student who is determined to have not met admissions eligibility or who has not been truthful in his or her application for admission and the institution shall be relieved of any and all obligations to the student.

- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

Cancellation will occur

1. When a student does not attend the first day of class - "No Show", OR
2. When the student gives written notice of cancellation to the school at the address specified in the agreement by the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. A cancellation request can be initiated by the student or the school. If the institution cancels a program, a full refund will be issued to the enrolled student(s) at the time of the cancellation. The institution will refund any consideration paid by the student. Any refunds then due will be made within 45 days following the date of determination. The institution has the unilateral right to cancel a student who is determined to have not met admissions eligibility or who has not been truthful in his or her application for admission and the institution shall be relieved of any and all obligations to the student.

- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

Cancellation will occur

1. When a student does not attend the first day of class - "No Show", OR
2. When the student gives written notice of cancellation to the school at the address specified in the agreement by the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. A cancellation request can be initiated by the student or the school. If the institution cancels a program, a full refund will be issued to the enrolled student(s) at the time of the cancellation. The institution will refund any consideration paid by the student. Any refunds then due will be made within 45 days following the date of determination. The institution has the unilateral right to cancel a student who is determined to have not met admissions eligibility or who has not been truthful in his or her application for admission and the institution shall be relieved of any and all obligations to the student.

- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

Cancellation will occur

1. When a student does not attend the first day of class - "No Show", OR
2. When the student gives written notice of cancellation to the school at the address specified in the agreement by the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. A cancellation request can be initiated by the student or the school. If the institution cancels a program, a full refund will be issued to the enrolled student(s) at the time of the cancellation. The institution will refund any consideration paid by the student. Any refunds then due will be made within 45 days following the date of determination. The institution has the unilateral right to cancel a student who is determined to have not met admissions eligibility or who has not been truthful in his or her application for admission and the institution shall be relieved of any and all obligations to the student.

- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

Cancellation will occur

1. When a student does not attend the first day of class - "No Show", OR
2. When the student gives written notice of cancellation to the school at the address specified in the agreement by the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. A cancellation request can be initiated by the student or the school. If the institution cancels a program, a full refund will be issued to the enrolled student(s) at the time of the cancellation. The institution will refund any consideration paid by the student. Any refunds then due will be made within 45 days following the date of determination. The institution has the unilateral right to cancel a student who is determined to have not met admissions eligibility or who has not been truthful in his or her application for admission and the institution shall be relieved of any and all obligations to the student.

- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

Cancellation will occur

1. When a student does not attend the first day of class - "No Show", OR
2. When the student gives written notice of cancellation to the school at the address specified in the agreement by the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. A cancellation request can be initiated by the student or the school. If the institution cancels a program, a full refund will be issued to the enrolled student(s) at the time of the cancellation. The institution will refund any consideration paid by the student. Any refunds then due will be made within 45 days following the date of determination. The institution has the unilateral right to cancel a student who is determined to have not met admissions eligibility or who has not been truthful in his or her application for admission and the institution shall be relieved of any and all obligations to the student.
