Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- “150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.

- “First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
  - “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
  - “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
  - “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
  - “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

The right to cancel this enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid, is available through attendance at the first-class session (August 19, 2023), or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. Enrollment is defined as the date on which the student is enrolled in a scheduled class. The decision to cancel must be delivered by mail, email, or fax. The student will then be refunded 100% of the amount paid for institutional charges, less the enrollment deposit and partial enrollment fees ($250.00).

You may cancel this enrollment agreement and receive a refund by providing a written notice to the Dean of Administrative Services of The Young Americans College of the Performing Arts, 1112 Olympic Drive, Corona, CA 92881.

If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

If the student obtains a loan to pay for an educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund. If the student is eligible for a loan guaranteed by the federal or state government and the student defaults on the loan, both of the following may occur:

1. The federal or state government or a loan guarantee agency may take action against the student, including applying any income tax refund to which the person is entitled to reduce the balance owed on the loan.
2. The student may not be eligible for any other federal student financial aid at another institution or other government assistance until the loan is repaid.

Students who withdraw entirely from a program will not be liable for the tuition applicable to any course for which they have not yet enrolled. Monies paid above the tuition for the courses they have attempted will be refunded within 30 days of withdrawal.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

The right to cancel this enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid, is available through attendance at the first-class session (August 19, 2023), or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. Enrollment is defined as the date on which the student is enrolled in a scheduled class. The decision to cancel must be delivered by mail, email, or fax. The student will then be refunded 100% of the amount paid for institutional charges, less the enrollment deposit and partial enrollment fees ($250.00).

You may cancel this enrollment agreement and receive a refund by providing a written notice to the Dean of Administrative Services of The Young Americans College of the Performing Arts, 1112 Olympic Drive, Corona, CA 92881.

If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

If the student obtains a loan to pay for an educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund. If the student is eligible for a loan guaranteed by the federal or state government and the student defaults on the loan, both of the following may occur:

5. The federal or state government or a loan guarantee agency may take action against the student, including applying any income tax refund to which the person is entitled to reduce the balance owed on the loan.
6. The student may not be eligible for any other federal student financial aid at another institution or other government assistance until the loan is repaid.

Students who withdraw entirely from a program will not be liable for the tuition applicable to any course for which they have not yet enrolled. Monies paid above the tuition for the courses they have attempted will be refunded within 30 days of withdrawal.
