WELCOME FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Friends,

Welcome to Haven University. Haven University is an educational institution serving the Lord Jesus Christ and His Church.

As a university, the institution provides learning, training, and resources through which men and women may acquire knowledge and gain skills to develop their ministries in the Lord.

We are an evangelical, multi-denominational, international, and multi-ethnic community. We seek to help fulfill the Church's commitment to the ministry of the Word of God. Through professional development, spiritual formation, the dynamics of ministry, and the encouragement of Christian lay-leadership, we hope to provide a unique basis for the Church's outreach in the world.

We are committed both to academic excellence and practical relevance, both to personal piety and social responsibility, both to historic orthodoxy and its expression in the scientific culture of our modern world.

Striving to re-shape the institution, the Board of Directors, Faculty, and Administration are making every effort to revise, adjust, and update the school's goals and structures. May Haven University truly be a spiritual center providing the finest learning opportunities possible for our students.

Warmly in Christ,

Kang Won Lee
President

NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY

Recognizing that all persons are God's creation, Haven University is committed to providing equal opportunity and access in its educational and spiritual programs and activities. The institution provides full compliance with the provision of Title VI of the Civil Rights Acts of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendment of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Age Discrimination Act of 1975.

Haven University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin or ethnic origin, gender, or disability in any of its policies, practices, or procedures.

DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

I. INTRODUCTION TO HAVEN UNIVERSITY

1. HISTORY

Haven University was established as Cal Grad in 1969. From the beginning, Cal Grad committed itself to providing the finest in theological education with a particular focus on preparing men for pastoral ministry to serve the church and society. Committed to a learned ministry for church society, the school welcomes qualified students without regard to denomination, race, sex, or physical disabilities. The school seeks to strengthen and deepen the spiritual life of students, and through classroom and other academic activities, to engage them in critical discussions about the Bible and theology with probing questions and challenges regarding faith and life in modern world.

Cal Grad established a comprehensive curriculum and a faculty of teachers who were both experienced pastors and experts in their academic disciplines. From its inception, the school has attracted students from over fifty-three denominations worldwide. They are men and women holding graduate degrees who are denominational leaders, psychologists in Christian counseling, administrators and faculty members of colleges and universities, pastors of prominent growing churches, evangelists, and radio-television personalities. The faculty's teaching and writing heavily influenced Christian leaders in America and abroad, including James Kennedy and Jerry Falwell.

Cal Grad responded to higher calling to train the men and women of God from foreign countries and commission them back to their countries as missionaries, pastors, and teachers to bring genuine transformation. The expert faculty empowers students with exegetically grounded systematic theology, biblical counseling, apologetics, redemptive-historical hermeneutics, Christ-centered preaching, and extensive historical theology. Today, the school offers various programs to equip students from 13 countries, such as America, South Korea, Japan, Iran, Vietnam, Romania, Philippines, Germany, France, Kenya, Mong tribes, China, etc.

With the addition of the Business school and school of Professional Studies Cal Grad became Haven University. Haven University moved to its current location in Garden Grove in August 2020 to improve the quality of education. Haven University received Candidacy status in April 2017, followed by an Accredited Status as a Category IV institution by the Transnational Association of Christian Colleges and Schools (TRACS), a nationally recognized accrediting agency in October 2018.

The graduates of Haven University now number over 6,000. Many of Haven University's graduates are filling important places of ministry as professors, pastors, missionaries, administrators, and directors of Christian Education and Youth Departments.

2. MISSION

Haven University exists to bring glory to God through excellence in theological and business education centered on Christ, faithful to the Scriptures, and rooted in the historical-theological tradition, with the aim of equipping Christian leaders who serve the church and advance the kingdom of God throughout the world.

3. INSTITUTIONAL OBJECTIVES

1. Students will be prepared with a foundation for lifetime learning
2. Students will develop an understanding of a wide variety of academic disciplines, an ability to find and evaluate information related to various disciplines, and the ability to continue their education beyond their current degree program.
3. Students will be equipped with professional competence
4. Students will be confirmed in an understanding of the niche in which they fit for careers and other service
5. Students will become knowledgeable of God's inerrant Word, as well as basic presentation skills
6. Students will develop a deepened passion for spiritual growth by an increasing commitment to spiritual disciplines.
7. Students will develop the ability to articulate the Gospel, articulate principles of spiritual growth, and to explain why these are important to them personally.

4. PHILOSOPHY OF EDUCATION

The Religious Character of Education

The Word of God indicates very explicitly that the education must be fundamentally religious.

In religion, there is no place for neutrality. Although the Progressives in education (John Dewey, Kilpatrick, Bode, et al.) said that "education is life," it should be quickly noted that their conception of life is basically wrong. Central to their philosophy is the pragmatic existence of man, rather than the sovereignty of the Creator-Provider God. They were wrong in failing to give God the central place in man's life.

Education is by logical necessity either Christian or non-Christian. Also, because there is no such human being as an irreligious person, since all persons fall into either the true-religion or false-religion category, we can now go on to assert that there is no such thing as an uneducated person. All men are educated, not only to greater or lesser degrees, but most significantly along either true or false lines.

Consequently, it becomes of great importance that we distinguish between Christian and non-Christian, between true and false (pseudo- or mis-) education rather than between the educated and the uneducated.

Any restoration of true beliefs or knowledge must involve the work of the sovereign God. Since knowledge has previously been characterized as a gift from God, and since the sovereignty of God is a central doctrine of Scripture, any partial or complete restoration to that position enjoyed by Adam and Eve before the Fall must include the re-creative work of the Triune God.

This re-creative work of God does not take place apart from the work of man. Human responsibility is also a central doctrine of the Bible: man is called to aid in that restoration.

Our definition must also involve the understandings and relationships which existed between Adam and God, between Adam and Eve, and between Adam and the physical universe. Seeking a restoration of those understandings and those relationships, the Christian recognizes that there is no other way to such restoration than through the last Adam, the Christ. Desiring true understanding and true relationships between himself and the world of nature, the Christian accepts Christ's claim that He is the Truth. All those understandings and all those relationships, finally, must be focused on Him if they are to be true. Constantly striving for such restoration in and through the Christ, education for the Christian will most certainly be sanctification.

Education is the divinely initiated and humanly cooperating process whereby persons grow and develop in Life, that is, in Godly knowledge, faith, hope, and love through Christ. So stated, the adjective Christian is superfluous to the word education.

Any process, any growth, and any development which takes place apart from the Truth is false. Any education which is not Christian is ultimately not education. It is pseudo- or mis-education. All education, then, is religious, but not all religion is Christianity. And any form of education in which Christ is not acknowledged as King is ultimately anti-Christianity.

Theology must be central to the educational ministry of the church if the ministry is to be true: Bibliology, the doctrine of God, Christology, Pneumatology, Anthropology, Soteriology, Ecclesiology and Eschatology.

The Unity of Education

The soul is a unit and education is a unitary process, aiming at the development of man's essential nature into a harmonious life, full and rich and beautiful.

It is utter folly to think that you can inform the intellect without giving direction to the will, that you store the head with knowledge without affecting the emotions, the inclinations, the desires, and the aspirations of the heart. The training of the head and of the heart go together, and in both the fundamental fact that the student is the image-bearer of God must be a determining factor.

Curriculum in education should be comprehensive in dealing with the whole counsel of God.

Education is Covenantal

Life is covenantal from the very beginning. God made a covenant with Adam. But man became a covenant breaker. We are all covenant breakers in that we "fall short of the glory of God." But in Christ God has established a new covenant. In distinction from the first covenant, a covenant of works, it is a covenant of grace. In Christ God is reconstructing the human race. A new racial continuity is established; that of the redeemed. The redeemed, they who accept Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord, are one in Him, who is the Head of the new covenant.

To the redeemed and their children is the promise, "I will establish my covenant between me and thee and thy seed after thee throughout their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be a God unto thee and thy seed after thee." Likewise, "For to you is the promise, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call unto him." In all covenants, however, there are contained two parts. In this case the promise of God and the obligation that promise brings with it constitute these parts. The obligation is the life of the new obedience, namely, that we cleave to this one God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; that we trust in him, and love him with all our heart, with all our soul, with all our mind, and with all our strength; that we forsake the world, crucify our old nature, and walk in a godly life.

Christ is the Master Teacher

God is the first and great Educator. God's revelation is the content of our teaching (truth, salvation, and the will of God.)

Jesus was the quintessential Teacher. Jesus was both rabbinic and non-rabbinic. He brought a new paradigm to the rabbinic tradition. Jesus taught using new and distinctive instructional content and methodology in a multicultural setting. He provides the teaching template, the paragon of pedagogy. He was the ultimate authority and the prototype for teaching though He never discussed the subject.

Education is an essential part of Christ's Great Commission to disciple the nations. Pauline epistles are in agreement with the teaching in the gospels. Pastoring is never separated from teaching. Pastor and teacher (Eph. 4:11) is one and the same office.

5. ETHICAL AND MORAL VALUES STATEMENT

As a Christian higher education institution, character is very important at Haven University. As the Lord Jesus taught, character is more than a list of rules. Character is achieved when the reason for rules is written on our hearts. Therefore, our aspiration is that all who study or work at Haven University will be so motivated to be people of character that a list of rules would be unnecessary. However, we do list a few essential rules:

- Whether we are students or employees, we will treat each other with respect, striving for harmonious relationships
- Whether we are students or employees, we will do our work with integrity (e.g., plagiarism will be avoided, school property will not be misused or used for personal benefit)
- Whether we are students or employees, laws will be obeyed.
- Faculty, staff of Haven University are committed to providing quality service and teaching to students and community in a responsive and caring manner
- We all embrace difference, treating others the way they want to be treated

6. STATEMENT OF FAITH (CHRISTIAN BIBLICAL FOUNDATIONS STATEMENT)

Haven University adheres to the following articles of Faith.

The Bible

The Bible, in its entirety, is the infallible, inerrant, and inspired Word of God; it is divine revelation that carries the full weight of God's authority and to which we are obliged to submit.

The Trinity

Within the Godhead there is a unity of three distinct yet fully divine persons, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit; these three are one true, eternal God, the same in substance, equal in power and glory.

God

God is a Spirit, infinite, eternal, and unchangeable in His being, wisdom, power, holiness, justice, goodness, and truth. God is omniscient, omnipotent, and omnipresent, not given to learning or "openness."

Jesus Christ

Jesus Christ is truly God and truly man, having two natures inseparably united in one divine person without confusion, mixture, separation, or division. Each nature retains its own attributes. In the incarnation, Jesus was born of the Virgin Mary, lived a perfect life among us, was crucified, dead, and buried, rose on the third day, ascended to heaven, and will come again in glory and judgment. He is the only Mediator between God and man.

The Holy Spirit

The Holy Spirit is of one substance with the Father and the Son. He eternally proceeds from the Father and the Son, and He dwells in the hearts of believers, effecting their regeneration monergistically and operating in their sanctification synergistically.

Creation

God, by the word of His power, created from nothing the heavens and the earth and all that is in them. He further preserves and governs all His creatures and all their actions according to His most holy, wise, and powerful providence.

Man

After God made the other creatures, He created man, both male and female, in His own image, but because Adam sinned and woefully fell in his responsibility, he and his posterity entered into a state of moral corruption and moral inability and became estranged from their Creator, thus deserving death as the punishment for sin.

Atonement

Because all have sinned, atonement must be made in order for man to be reconciled to God. Jesus Christ made a complete atonement through His substitutionary atoning death on the cross. He imputes His righteousness to all believers securing us full redemption for all who repent of their sin and trust in Him alone for salvation.

The Law

The moral law perfectly reflects the unchangeable character of God and forever binds all people, believers as well as unbelievers.

The Church

Christ has established a visible church, which is called to live in the power of the Holy Spirit under the regulation of the authority of Holy Scripture, preaching the gospel of Christ, administering the sacraments, and exercising discipline.

Christianity and Culture

Haven University supports the work of Christian organizations and institutions that confess the sole authority of Scripture and lordship of Jesus Christ, and are committed to the implementation of the social and cultural implications of God's commandments for the well-being of man and his environment. Haven University especially supports those organizations that condemn the murder of defenseless human beings at the earliest stages of their development and that reject unbiblical definitions of gender, sexuality, and marriage.

Satan

Satan is the evil accuser who slanders God to man and man to God. He is the tempter of men who continually solicits men to sin. He is to be resisted by submitting to God. Satan's final destiny is that of a conquered enemy who now abides under a perpetual curse, whereby he is finally to be cast alive into the lake of fire. There he is to be tormented forever, along with all who refuse repentance and faith in Jesus Christ.

The Last Things

The bodies of men, after death, return to dust, and see corruption: but their spirits, which neither die or sleep, having an immortal subsistence, immediately returns to God who gave them; the souls of the righteous, being then made perfect in holiness, are received into the highest heavens, where they behold the face of God, in light and glory, waiting for the full redemption of their bodies. And the souls of the wicked are cast into hell, where they remain in torments and utter darkness, reserved to the judgment of the great day. Beside these two places, for souls separated from their bodies, the Scripture acknowledges none.

7. LOCATION AND FEATURES

Location

Haven University is located at 12761 Euclid St. in the City of Garden Grove, California. This is approximately 25 miles southeast of downtown Los Angeles. We are situated in Orange County, within minutes of churches, parks, playgrounds, and schools, Disneyland, Anaheim Angels stadium, etc. There is an abundance of housing available in the area. The school is conveniently located in proximity to the Los Angeles International Airport and John Wayne International Airport (Santa Ana).

Some classes are offered at teaching sites located in Irvine, and Los Angeles in California, Las Vegas in Nevada and overseas in Thailand. The Los Angeles teaching sites are located within 30 miles of the main campus in Garden Grove, California.

Main Campus Site

All educational and administrative facilities are located in an educational building, with several large lecture rooms, an administrative office cluster, and a central hall to accommodate personal interaction. In addition, there is an area for the students to enjoy relaxation, reading, or casual conversation with others.

Library

The library is open from 9am to 6pm, Monday through Friday, except on School holidays. The Library has a collection of materials that adequately undergirds the curriculum. It is the center for scholarly pursuits and has the responsibility to help faculty and students develop intellectually, culturally, and spiritually. Therefore, it provides materials and services necessary for research and study. The library houses thousands of catalogued volumes, including adequate theological, biographical, reference, and computer/digital materials, which are all catalogued in Haven University's online library system Populi.

If students would like to check out a book, they would need to check it out through the library staff. Students would need to bring an ID that shows proof they are a student of this school.

Haven University has an agreement with Grace Mission University and Evangelia University which allows Haven University students to use their library resources and online subscription databases such as EBSCO host. Our students have full access of the whole library and study area for their use.

II. ADMISSIONS

1. INTRODUCTION

Haven University requires minimum of high school completion or its equivalents for consideration for admission to the undergraduate program. Our graduate programs are open to men and women who show completion of any prerequisite coursework/degree or its equivalent from an accredited college or institution in the United States. In the case of coursework/degree completed in foreign institutions, it shall be evaluated from an agency recognized by the U.S. Department of Education. Any evaluation of foreign transcripts needs to be done at the student's cost. Haven University recommends the company, Education Evaluators International, Inc, 3000 Marcus Ave, Suite 1E6, Lake Success, NY 11042, Tel.401-521-5340, Email: eval@educei.com.

Haven University does not accept ability-to-benefit students at this time.

In requiring the B.A. or B.S. degree or its equivalent for admission to graduate degree programs, Haven University recognizes the importance of a broad education as a foundation for specialized theological study. A bachelor's degree must include works in the major fields of humanity and science which gives students the discipline and general information valuable for theological study and the work of the ministry. Adequate attention should be devoted to English grammar and composition, literature, speech, logic, and history.

Furthermore, part of the admissions process is to see those that demonstrate evidence of being born again, and are endowed with the necessary spiritual gifts.

Applicants are considered without regard to gender, national origin, or handicap. However, the school reserves the right to refuse admission to any individual who does not confess Christ as his or her personal Savior.

2. ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Evaluation

When all required information is received by the Director of Admissions & Records, applicants are evaluated on the basis of their academic, professional record, and/or the extent and quality of their involvement in Christian and community service, and their references.

Notification of Admission

After reviewing the credentials submitted, the office of Admission will notify the applicant of its decision regarding admission by email. Matriculation for course work is contingent upon receipt of an official transcript showing completion of any prerequisite coursework/degree.

4. INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

English Proficiency

In addition to the general requirements stated above, all international students applying for admission in the English-language program must submit at the time of application a score of not less than 70 (Internet Based Test) on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), or its equivalent. The test must include the writing section (TWE). To register for the TOEFL/TWE test, applicants may check the web address <http://www.ets.org>

In most cases, if less than three years of applicants' secondary schooling was with English as the language of instruction, they must meet Haven University's English proficiency requirement. This requirement, therefore, may be waived for BA applicants who have earned a high school degree in which the language of instruction was in English. It can also be waived for the Masters and Doctorate applicants who have come from an accredited institution of higher learning in which the language of instruction was English.

Those who do not meet that standard should take a WebCAPE English proficiency placement exam of Haven University's ESL program before starting their study at Haven University and take the necessary courses of ESL program to obtain a passing score before taking the regular degree classes.

Student Visa

Haven University is a SEVIS approved school, authorized by the USCIS to issue certificate of eligibility documents for the F-1 student visa (I-20). International students who need an I-20 form to apply for a student visa must be accepted for admission to Haven University and provide a financial guarantee for themselves and all dependents who will accompany them to the United States.

The financial guarantee must be from the source(s) that will actually provide the funds for the student's study and living expenses. This can be done by:

- (a) showing that they are sponsored by a responsible Christian organization which will commit itself to guarantee the necessary support and round- trip transportation for the student and his or her dependents (if they are to accompany the student to the school); or
- (b) demonstrating by a letter from a bank or savings institution that the student has on deposit sufficient funds to cover tuition, other school fees, living expenses for the student and family, and round-trip airfare; or
- (c) providing the same proof from other individuals or organizations who wish to contribute to the student's support.

International applicants who require an F-1 visa should submit their applications at least six months prior to the semester in which they intend to enroll. The application file should be completed (including transcripts, financial guarantees, etc.) at least 90 days before the student's planned date of arrival to allow sufficient time for the visa application process. International applicants are required to submit official documentation of all postsecondary (college level) education. Appropriate visa documents (I-20) will be sent to the student upon admission to Haven University and receipt of an acceptable financial guarantee.

The student may be required to deposit in advance to the school a portion of the financial guarantee to ensure that sufficient funds are available for initial expenses upon the student's arrival in the United States.

Questions regarding visas should be addressed to the School DSO, by phone 714-592-7878, by fax 714-636-1725, or by email at admin@haven.edu

International students on F-1 visas are required to maintain valid visa status throughout their stay at Haven University. These students must comply with all federal regulations pertaining to their visa status including, but not limited to, full-time enrollment throughout their stay at Haven University in order to remain in good standing with the school.

However, Haven University cannot vouch for student status, nor any associated charges. All it can offer are F-1 student visas (I-20).

5. OTHER ADMISSION POLICIES

Readmission

Students, who have withdrawn from Haven University and were in good academic standing at the time of withdrawal, must apply for readmission through the Admissions & Record's Office. An application for readmission, an application fee, a letter of endorsement and references are required for readmission. Students are readmitted under the same academic standing as at the time they left Haven University. The same policy holds for those who have been dismissed from the school due to academic performance: they must submit a new application for readmission, and if approved, he or she will be readmitted under probationary status for one semester.

Auditing

Most courses may be audited by individuals who want to learn more about the Word of God, but do not desire a degree. In addition, most courses may be audited by regularly admitted students with permission of the instructor and subject to availability of classroom space. Full-time students may audit courses free of tuition, but will not receive any credit. Audited courses are recorded on the transcripts of all students as "Audit."

Transfer Credits

NOTICE CONCERNING TRANSFERABILITY OF CREDITS AND CREDENTIALS EARNED AT OUR INSTITUTION

The transferability of credits you earn at Haven University is at the complete discretion of an institution to which you may seek to transfer. Acceptance of the degree, diploma, or certificate you earn in the educational program is also at the complete discretion of the institution to which you may seek to transfer. If the credits or degree, diploma, or certificate that you earn at this institution are not accepted at the institution to which you seek to transfer, you may be required to repeat some or all of your coursework at that institution. For this reason, you should make certain that your attendance at this institution will meet your educational goals. This may include contacting an institution to which you may seek to transfer after attending Haven University to determine if your credits or degree, diploma or certificate will transfer.

In regard to accepting credits from other institutions, Haven University accepts credits from any accredited institutions and/or from the articulation list below. Transcripts are evaluated by the Dean of Academic Affairs and the Director of Admissions and Records under the guidelines established by the academic committee. Course credits with a minimum grade of "C" earned at other educational institute are accepted at full value to the extent that the courses are comparable to Haven University's stated requirements. The maximum amount of credit transferable is listed under each degree description. Haven University does offer or award credits for prior experiential learning. For specific amount of credits accepted, look at each respective degree's description page.

III. FINANCIAL INFORMATION

1. TUITION AND FEES PAYMENT POLICIES

At Haven University, every effort is made to maintain student school expenses at a moderate level. However, tuition, fees, and other expenses are subject to change without notice.

Payment may be made online or in person during the listed office hours Monday through Friday. Tuition and fees are due during the registration period for each semester and winter/summer intensive sessions.

Delayed Payment Plan

Students unable to make full payment at the time of registration may elect to pay under the Delayed Payment Plan. A $25.00 handling fee is assessed for this plan. This plan breaks the tuition into three payments: the first one-third payment is due at the time of registration together with the $25.00 handling fee; the second one-third payment is due by the end of the 4th Week of the semester; and the third and final payment must be made by the end of the 8th Week of the semester. Failure to make either the second or third payment on time will result in an additional $25.00 handling fee. All account balances must be cleared by the time of final examinations.

Cancellation, Withdrawal

Students have the right to cancel their enrollment. The school shall refund 100% of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed $250, if notice of cancellation is made through the attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later.

Non-attendance does not constitute withdrawal. Withdrawing without approval will result in a failing grade.

Any notification of withdrawal or cancellation, and any requests for refund must be made in writing. To cancel enrollment/registration or withdraw completely from Haven University, the student must deliver or send electronically or via certified mail a signed and dated "Withdrawal/Cancellation Form" to:

Office of Admissions and Records
Haven University
12761 Euclid St., Garden Grove, CA 92840

Student Loans

If a student obtains a loan to pay for an educational program, the student will have to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund, and that, if the student receives federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of the money not paid from federal financial aid funds.

2. FINANCIAL AID

Federal Student Aid (FSA)

Haven University is approved for, and does participate in the USDE Title IV, Federal PELL Grant program. Haven University is committed to helping students apply and receive Federal Student Aid (FSA) based on their eligibility. The financial aid office at Haven University will do its best to assist students in the application process for FSA, answer questions, and process all FSA in a professional and timely manner.

Requirements for eligibility are as follows:

- The student must be a citizen or eligible non-citizen.
- Have a high school diploma or GED.
- Must be enrolling in an eligible educational program.
- Working toward a degree or certificate.
- Making satisfactory academic progress.
- Must not be in default of a previous federal educational loan or Pell grant.
- If a student already has a Bachelor's degree, he/she is not eligible to receive Pell grants.
- Register with the Selective Service (if a male between the age of 18-25).

If a student wishes to apply for financial aid or he/she has questions, or needs sections of the handbook clarified, contact the financial aid office at the school. Additional information regarding the student aid programs available at Haven University financial aid office may be found in student guide "Funding Education Beyond High School" and the "Free Application for Federal Student Aid" published by the U.S. Department of Education. Additional information may be obtained by calling the Federal Student Aid Information Center at 1 (800) 433-3243, TTY 1 (800) 730-8913, or logging on to the Internet at <http://studentaid.ed.gov>.

Scholarship

Haven University offers scholarships for students in good academic standing (minimum 3.5 semester GPA), and/or missionaries on furlough, and/or missionary candidate, and/or their family.

3. INSTITUTIONAL REFUND POLICIES

General Refund Policies

For the purpose of determining a refund under these criteria, a student shall be deemed to have withdrawn if any of the following occurs:

1. The student notifies the school of the student's withdrawal or the actual date of withdrawal, whichever is later.

2. Class or classes were canceled by the school.
3. The student was not officially added to the class from the waiting list.
4. The school terminates the student's enrollment for failure to maintain satisfactory progress, failure to abide by the rules and regulations of the school, unexcused absences in the excess of maximum set forth by the school, and/or failure to meet financial obligations to the school.

The date the completed withdrawal petition is submitted by the student will be the official withdrawal date. The withdrawal petition may be submitted electronically, by mail or in person.

The student has the right to withdraw from a course after instruction has started and receive a pro rata refund for unused portion of the tuition and other refundable charges if the student has completed 60% or less of the period of attendance. If the student has completed more than 60% of the term, there will be no refund.

Furthermore, any charges collected from a student which Haven University had for the purpose of paying to a third party, such as license, transcript evaluation, application, and examination fees, or any other similar fees or charge, shall be refunded in full if they had not already been paid to the third party at the time of the student's withdrawal or cancellation. Refunds will be issued within 15 days of cancellation.

All instructional materials must be returned within fifteen (15) days from the first day of class in its original condition for a full refund. After 15 days, the student will receive a refund only for the materials that have not yet been taught in class.

The refund shall be calculated as follows:

- The amount owed is the total amount of tuition paid multiplied by a fraction, with the numerator as the number of class hours the student has not attended but paid for, and the denominator as the total number of class hours for which the student has paid. The refund does not apply to fees identified as "non-refundable." No refunds are due once the student has received 60% of the scheduled hours of instruction in any given period of attendance.

Nevada Students – Additional Refund Policies - NRS 394.449

In Haven University's compliance with Nevada's NRS 394.449 Requirements of policy for refunds by postsecondary educational institutions, the additional policies apply:

In the event that Haven University substantially fails to furnish a Nevada student's training program, as agreed upon in the enrollment agreement, the institution shall refund to a student all the money the student has paid. The following: "substantially failed to furnish" includes canceling or changing a training program agreed upon in the enrollment agreement without:

- Offering the student a fair chance to complete the same program or another program with a demonstrated possibility of placement equal to or higher than the possibility of placement of the program in which the student is enrolled within approximately the same period at no additional cost; or

- Obtaining the written agreement of the student to the specified changes and a statement that the student is not being coerced or forced into accepting the changes unless the cancellation or change of a program is in response to a change in the requirements to enter an occupation.

In the event that a Haven University Nevada student cancels his or her enrollment before the start of the training program, the institution shall refund to the student all the money the student has paid, minus 10 percent of the tuition agreed upon in the enrollment agreement or $150, whichever is less.

In the event that a Nevada student withdraws or is expelled by the institution after the start of the training program and before the completion of more than 60 percent of the program, the institution shall refund to the student a pro rata amount of the tuition agreed upon in the enrollment agreement, minus 10 percent of the tuition agreed upon in the enrollment agreement or $150, whichever is less.

In the event a refund is owed to the Nevada student, the institution shall pay the refund to the person or entity who paid the tuition within 15 calendar days, as applicable:

- Date of cancellation by a student of his or her enrollment;
- Date of termination by the institution of the enrollment of a student;
- Last day of an authorized leave of absence if a student fails to return after the period of authorized absence; or
- Last day of attendance of a student

The period of a Nevada student's attendance must be measured from the first day of instruction as set forth in the enrollment agreement through the student's last day of actual attendance, regardless of absences.

The period of time for a training program is the period set forth in the enrollment agreement.

Tuition must be calculated using the tuition and fees set forth in the enrollment agreement and does not include books, educational supplies, or equipment that is listed separately from the tuition and fees.

Refund Policies for Financial Aid

- Dropping Classes

A student's final eligibility for aid will be based on the number of hours for which he/she is enrolled on the Day of Registration, as listed in the class schedule. If a student registers for, and then drops a class (or classes) prior to the Official Day of Registration, the student's eligibility for aid will be recalculated based on the hour remaining as of the Day of Registration. Since financial aid is released prior to the Day of Registration, students who receive a financial aid payment based on more hours than those remaining as of the Day of Registration may be responsible for repaying a portion of any financial aid received.

Dropping classes may affect a student's eligibility for future aid. Students should consult the Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy, or the Financial Aid Office to determine if dropping classes will affect their eligibility for future aid.

- Leave of Absence

Student leave of absence is primarily addressed by the Dean of Student Services or the Dean of Academic Affairs. Haven University allows or may require students to leave the school under various circumstances. The Financial Aid Office must sign the student's application for LOA before LOA is approved so student can be informed of impact to federal and institutional aid.

- Total Withdrawal from School

If a student registers and then completely withdraws from all classes, their eligibility for aid will be recalculated based on the number of days they attended class. If a student totally withdraws from all classes prior to the first class day, all financial aid will be canceled, and no funds will be disbursed. If a student withdraws on or after the first class day, the student may have to repay a portion of any cash financial aid received. See Return of Title IV Funds below.

Withdrawal from classes may affect a student's eligibility for future aid. Students should consult the Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy, or the Financial Aid Office to determine if dropping classes will affect their eligibility for future aid.

- Withdrawal Date

A student's withdrawal date is the earlier date of the following:

1. The last date of academically-related activity provided on the drop slip or by the instructors (if the date is provided by the student it may be verified with the instructors).
2. The date the student informed Haven University of their intention to withdraw.

Those students who do not begin attending class must repay all financial aid disbursed for the term. Academic policies on withdrawing from the school are available in the catalog.

4. RETURN OF TITLE IV POLICY

The Financial Aid Office is required by federal regulations to calculate a Return to Title IV Funds for all students who withdraw, are dismissed, take a leave of absence, or stop attending before completing the semester. The policy applies to all students who discontinue enrollment in all classes, on or after the first day of the semester.

Title IV financial aid funds are awarded under the assumption that a student will attend the institution for the entire period in which federal assistance is awarded. The return of funds is based upon the premise that students earn their financial aid in proportion to the amount of time in which they are enrolled. A pro-rated schedule is used to determine the amount of federal aid a student will have earned at the time of the withdrawal. Thus, a student who withdraws in the second week of classes has earned less of their financial aid than a student who withdraws in the seventh week. Students who complete more than 60 percent of the semester are considered to have earned 100 percent of their financial aid.

Based on these federal guidelines, any student who receives federal financial aid and does not complete at least 60% of the semester could be responsible for repaying a portion of the aid they received. Students who do not begin attendance must repay all financial aid disbursed for the term. Academic policies on withdrawing from the school are available in the catalog.

The Return of Title IV Funds policy is separate from the school's refund policy. A student who withdraws from the school may be required to return unearned federal aid and still owe the school for tuition and fees. If the student received more than the earned amount, the overpayment is called unearned funds and must be returned within 45 calendar days to the programs in the following order: 1. Pell Grant, 2. Loans, 3. Other Recourse and 4. The student.

If the calculation shows that the student owes funds to the grant and loan programs, the liability of the student is limited to the amount by which the original overpayment amount exceeds half of the total Title IV grant funds received by student. A student does not have to repay a grant overpayment of $25 or less per program. These funds are due from the student within 45 days. If not paid in that time and if the student has not made arrangements with the Department to pay that amount, the student will be referred to NSLDS, a central system that will show the student ineligible for aid until the matter is taken care of by the student.

NOTE: If the institution were required by this calculation to return to the programs some of the funds it has collected as tuition payment, the student's tuition account would be adjusted accordingly. Therefore, if the tuition was paid in full, but if the institution returned funds to the programs, the tuition account will show that the student owes that amount returned by the institution to the programs. Those refunds will be paid to the program funds in accordance to the order listed above, limited to the amount of funds that came from each aid program within 45 calendar days from the determination of withdrawal from school date.

POST WITHDRAWAL DISBURSEMENT: If the calculation shows that the student received less aid than what the student earned within the payment period or enrollment period, and then the student would be notified by the institution of the amount of Grant funds used to cover institutional charges incurred by the student, or the available amount from Grant funds for direct disbursement to the student for other educational related expenses. If loan funds are involved in this calculation, the institution will notify the student or parent of the loan amount it wishes to utilize to cover educational charges, the financial aid program where the funds are coming from and the student will be reminded of the responsibilities involved in receiving loan funds. The student or parent in the case of PLUS will be given 14 days to respond and accept or reject part or all of the loan funds available. The institution will honor late acceptances only at the institutional discretion. Once this calculation is finalized, the institution will then perform a second and different calculation using the net funds retained (original tuition payments minus amounts refunded) to determine the amount of institutional charges earned by the institution during the payment or enrollment period. That calculation is known as the institutional refund policy calculation.

7. STUDENT TUITION RECOVERY FUND

California STRF Fund

“The State of California established the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic loss suffered by a student in an educational program at a qualifying institution, who is or was a California resident while enrolled, or was enrolled in a residency program, if the student enrolled in the institution, prepaid tuition, and suffered an economic loss. Unless relieved of the obligation to do so, you must pay the state-imposed assessment for the STRF, or it must be paid on your behalf, if you are a student in an educational program, who is a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and prepay all or part of your tuition. STRF is $0.50 per $1,000 of institutional charges collected for State of California

You are not eligible for protection from the STRF and you are not required to pay the STRF assessment, if you are not a California resident, or are not enrolled in a residency program.”

“It is important that you keep copies of your enrollment agreement, financial aid documents, receipts, or any other information that documents the amount paid to the school. Questions regarding the STRF may be directed to the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education, 1747 N. Market Blvd., Suite 225, Sacramento, CA 95834, (916) 574-8900 or (888) 370-7589.

To be eligible for STRF, you must be a California resident or are enrolled in a residency program, prepaid tuition, paid or deemed to have paid the STRF assessment, and suffered an economic loss as a result of any of the following:

1. The institution, a location of the institution, or an educational program offered by the institution was closed or discontinued, and you did not choose to participate in a teach-out plan approved by the Bureau or did not complete a chosen teach-out plan approved by the Bureau.
2. You were enrolled at an institution or a location of the institution within the 120-day period before the closure of the institution or location of the institution, or were enrolled in an educational program within the 120 day period before the program was discontinued.
3. You were enrolled at an institution or a location of the institution more than 120 days before the closure of the institution or location of the institution, in an educational program offered by the institution as to which the Bureau determined there was a significant decline in the quality or value of the program more than 120 days before closure.
4. The institution has been ordered to pay a refund by the Bureau but has failed to do so.
5. The institution has failed to pay or reimburse loan proceeds under a federal student loan program as required by law, or has failed to pay or reimburse proceeds received by the institution in excess of tuition and other costs.
6. You have been awarded restitution, a refund, or other monetary award by an arbitrator or court, based on a violation of this chapter by an institution or representative of an institution, but have been unable to collect the award from the institution.
7. You sought legal counsel that resulted in the cancellation of one or more of your student loans and have an invoice for services rendered and evidence of the cancellation of the student loan or loans.

To qualify for STRF reimbursement, the application must be received within four (4) years from the date of the action or event that made the student eligible for recovery from STRF.

A student whose loan is revived by a loan holder or debt collector after a period of non-collection may, at any time, file a written application for recovery from STRF for the debt that would have otherwise been eligible for recovery. If it has been more than four (4) years since the action or event that made the student eligible, the student must have filed a written application for recovery within the original four (4) year period, unless the period has been extended by another act of law.

However, no claim can be paid to any student without a social security number or a taxpayer identification number.”

IV. ACADEMIC REGULATIONS

1. COURSE PLANNING AND REGISTRATION

Semester System

Haven University operates on the semester system that consists of two sessions called semesters during the academic year with about 15 weeks for each semester of instruction. The unit for counting credit is the semester hour, which consists of one fifty-minute period of class work per week in a normal semester.

In addition to the normal Fall and Spring semesters, concentrated modular periods are offered in the summer and winter in short intensive time- frames. These course schedules are designed especially for the busy pastor, Christian school teacher, administrator, businessman or entrepreneur, who cannot make long term commitments toward an advanced degree program.

Full-Time Equivalent Student

Enrollment in Haven University is measured in full-time equivalent (FTE) students. A FTE status is the equivalent of 12 units of student course credit in bachelor's program, and 9 units in master's program and doctorate programs. If a student wants to be considered as a full scholarship beneficiary, he or she should keep this FTE status in all times.

Definition of a Credit Hour

A credit hour is defined as being one hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction with a minimum of two hours of out-of-class work each week of an academic term. Haven University is on a semester system and credit hours are designated as semester units. A regular semester has a minimum of 15 weeks of instruction.

Course Selections

Each student upon entering Haven University is assigned to an advisor. Students should understand that all questions concerning academic problems should be taken first to the advisor and only later, when a problem remains unresolved, to the Office of Admissions & Records. Required courses are offered on a regular basis and elective courses are generally offered on a rotating basis. Information on the elective courses offered for any given semester can be obtained from the Office of Admissions & Records.

Registration

Registration is the process whereby students sign up for specific classes and pay all assessed fees. All students will not be admitted into classes without formal registration. Registration instructions for students are listed in the College Management System. The Class Schedule is issued prior to the beginning of each semester.

A student who does not register during the official registration period will be assessed a Late Registration Fee.

Adding and Dropping

Any changes after a student and an advisor have arranged the student's semester program are discouraged. No course can be added after the third week of classes. Any course dropped during the first three weeks will not be recorded on the student's permanent record. From the beginning of the fourth week of classes through the end of the fifth week of instruction, all drops will be recorded as a "W," Withdrawal. No course is considered officially added or dropped until the proper form is submitted to the Office of Admissions & Records in order that the student's schedule may be properly changed.

Auditing

A student who wishes to audit, or take courses without credit, must indicate his or her intention at the time of registration. Audit students do not take examinations and are not required to complete assignments. Courses audited cannot be counted toward meeting graduation requirements, and also cannot be taken in subsequent semesters for credit. Only lecture courses may be audited.

Independent Study

Students are allowed to apply for a certain amount of Independent Study units each semester for the M.A.R., M.Div. and D.Min. degrees. Details on how many are permitted for each degree are listed under each degree program description in the Degree Programs section of this catalog.

2. DISTANCE EDUCATION

Students who cannot attend the university physically can get distance education from Haven University without attending the physical campus. Haven University will offer six programs in distance education: Bachelor of Arts in Religion, Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration, Master in Business Administration, Master of Arts in Religion, Master of Divinity and Doctor of Ministry. Students can earn the degrees by taking whole courses via distance learning.

Definition of Distance Education

Haven University's distance education is regulated by the definition of California Education Code in section 94834 of the Code. Haven University's distance education program is appropriate for delivery methods, quality of education, and management. Haven University's distance education programs and the materials are current, well organized, designed by faculty competent in distance education techniques, and delivered using readily available, reliable technology. The admission requirements are same as the on-campus students. A student who applies to distance education program must have consultation for her/ his ability to take distance education, because the student needs appropriate technical knowledge and skills to receive educational materials and to interact with the professor. A student can get help from the technological department of Haven University to learn the appropriate technical knowledge and skills for taking distance education. Haven University demands distance education students receive the same quality of study as general students who are regularly attending at school in order to provide a high quality of distance education. Haven University expects that distance education students observe the following school regulations for distance education. A student can get detailed information about distance education from the Distance Education Handbook.

Goals of Distance Education

The mission of Haven University's distance education program is to provide quality instruction through electronic technologies to enable students to attain their educational goals. The university seeks to offer its students technological support that is continually evaluated and changed in order to offer its students a means to a better education. 1. To provide students around the world an opportunity for proper theological training and business education which could not be attained otherwise. 2. To provide the best technological means to enhance student learning by providing distance students with such opportunities as developing faculty/student relationships, getting feedback on work completed, and opportunities to associate with fellow students. 3. To develop and maintain up-to-date technological resources to further enhance student learning. Regular evaluation of technological resources will be conducted to review current resources, and administration will seek to make necessary changes as they see fit. 4. To provide students with relevant and useful online resources that can be accessed via the internet and the university's website.

Resources and Procedures

The primary means of educational delivery is via audio-video recordings on Haven University's Learning (www.haven.populiweb.com). Lectures are recorded, and the lecture audio-video recording can be accessed through the online learning management system. Students can login each course and download the syllabus, lecture notes, and relevant materials by PDF format files. The audio-video recordings are available to students three days after the lectures are given at campus. Distance education students are currently required to take weekly lectures and write a one-page report on the content of the lecture and email it to the professor with questions and discussion topics (or upload on Populi assignment folder).

Upon receipt of the student educational materials (lessons, projects, dissertations) for distance education students, Haven university faculty will return the evaluation of the materials within two calendar weeks. Students are also required to take same exams with the on-campus students. Exams are sent to the proctor directly and proctored by whom Haven University office accept as a proctor before the exam at the beginning of the semester. Haven University uses a proctor report form to ensure the quality and appropriate procedure of exams. Students submit all work for the course on time, usually within a week of the course schedule maximum delay will be allowed for two weeks with the permission of each professor. Afterwards, the faculty members grade the student's work, and feedback is given for the work completed in the course. Students and professors are encouraged to frequently exchange their opinions as much as they need.

Learning Management Systems

Haven's learning management systems will be implemented to assist in the facilitation of course objectives and assignments. The LMS will be utilized to provide lecture notes and recordings, assignment submission and feedback, and forums for class discussions and instruction. Audio-video recordings will be uploaded per course in their respective course sites. Students will be able to access these recordings at their convenience with course password. Assignments will also be submitted via the LMS system per course sites. Students will upload assignments and instructors will provide feedback through the same means.

The Learning Management System will also be used to promote student social interaction as well as student/faculty relationships through discussion sessions and course faculty office hours. Discussion sessions may be conducted per instructor's request. Students can then log on and join discussion chat sessions to ask questions and comment on work. Instructors and students will need to be trained and assisted to use the learning management systems by the Haven's technology staff.

The learning management system includes:

- Providing class management by each instructor
- Providing assignments and teaching materials
- Providing operating manuals
- Scheduling instructor workshops

3. GRADING SYSTEM

All work is graded with letters which are assigned points as follows:

Grade	Description	GPA	Percentage
A	Excellent	4.00	93-100
A-		3.70	90-92
B+		3.30	87-89
B	Good	3.00	83-86
B-		2.70	80-82
C+		2.30	77-79
C	Satisfactory	2.00	73-76
C-		1.70	70-72
D+		1.30	67-69
D	Poor	1.00	63-66
D-		0.70	60-62
F	Fail	0.00	0-59
FN	Fail for Not Enough Attendance
I	Incomplete
W	Withdrawal
AU	Audit
P	Pass (70% or above)
NP	No Pass (below 70%)
R	Retake

Grade Point Average

A student's GPA is calculated by dividing the student's total number of earned points by the number of semester hours attempted. The grade of W is not used in calculation of the GPA.

Incomplete

The grade of "I" will be assigned by the instructor only if the student has been unable to complete the course on time due to extenuating circumstances, including illness, but not, for example, time conflicts with work. Students must submit a petition for an Incomplete grade to the instructor and must be approved by the Office of Admissions and Records prior to the deadline for grades for all work submitted, which is two weeks after the close of the term.

Each Incomplete must be made up by the end of the semester following the semester for which it was granted. If the work is not completed and submitted by the deadline, the grade designated by the instructor at the time the request for the "I" was made will be recorded. Extensions of Incompletes are rarely granted, only in exceptional circumstances.

Changes in Grades

All grades will be recorded in the Office of Admissions & Records as reported by the instructor in each course. Once grades are recorded, only the instructor, or in special cases, the Academic Dean, can submit requests for changes in writing to the Office of Admissions and Records.

4. ACADEMIC PERFORMANCE

Class Attendance Requirement

All students are expected to attend all classes, except under extenuating circumstances. Excusable circumstances include illness, injury, childbirth, death of a family member, or other serious events.

Three (3) instances of tardiness are also counted as an absence. Tardiness would be left to the discretion of each professor. All students must have 80% attendance of all courses, regardless of the nature of the absences. Those students who fail to maintain satisfactory class attendance in any subject shall not be permitted to take the final exam in that particular subject. If attendance fails to improve, the instructor, at his/her discretion, may dismiss a student for unsatisfactory attendance.

Leave of Absence

All leaves of absence which must not exceed 180 days in any 12-month period must be approved by the Dean of Academic Affairs. Time during an approved leave of absence will not be included in the calculation of the maximum program length. A student who wishes to take a leave of absence must make the request prior to or on the first day of instruction by completing the Leave of Absence form.

The leave of absence is effective only when the Dean of Academic Affairs has granted permission for this leave. A student who has taken a leave of absence without the Dean of Academic Affairs' permission will not be considered a continuing student and may be considered as withdrawn. Non-compliance with Federal regulations regarding leave of absence can jeopardize a student's eligibility for future financial aid and loan payment deferment.

In accordance with Haven University Regulations and Federal Title IV Student Financial Aid requirements, a student may request a leave of absence and maintain enrollment status under the following conditions:

1. Submit a leave of absence form signed and dated by the student unless unforeseen circumstances occur.

2. Receive approval for the leave of absence request by the Dean of Academic Affairs, and either by the Financial Aid Officer (if receiving Title IV Financial Aid) or by the International Student Advisor (if on F-1Visa)
3. Generally, one leave of absence may be granted in a 12-month period. However, more than one leave of absence may be granted for well-documented and unforeseen circumstances provided that the total number of days for all leaves of absence does not exceed 180 days in any given 12-month period. The 12-month period would begin on the first day of the quarter the student requests the leave of absence.
4. Students receiving Financial Aid Title IV loans who fail to return to Haven University from an approved leave of absence will be considered as withdrawn and will be reported to the lending institution by Haven University. Consequently, loan deferment and repayment schedule may be affected.
5. The student's withdrawal date and the beginning of the student's grace period for loan repayment is the last date of academic attendance as determined by Haven University from attendance records.
6. The Haven University may be required to refund unearned funds to the Title IV Programs when a student withdraws from Haven University.

Program Length

Students are usually expected to complete each program within the following time frame:

- B.A.R. degree in 4 years;
- B.S.B.A. degree in 4 years;
- M.A.R. degree in 3 years;
- M. Div. degree in 4 years;
- M.B.A. degree in 2 years;
- D. Min. degree in 3 years;

The maximum time frame allowed for students to complete a program is 150% of the normal program length, namely 6 years for the bachelors programs; 4.5 years for M.A.R. and D.Min. programs, 6 years for M.Div. programs, 3 years for M.B.A. programs. An extension may be granted for special circumstances.

Academic Probation, Suspension, and Dismissal

Students are encouraged to frequently check their GPA on their student profile in the College management system or with the Office of Admissions & Records. Office hours are from 9am-5pm Monday through Friday. If students who do not maintain a cumulative grade point average of 2.0, they will be placed on academic probation for one semester, and will be notified in writing. Students will still be able to attend school, and can always check the status of their GPA. They also have a right to ask Instructor/Professor on how they are doing in each respective class. However, at the end of the probationary semester, if the student has not achieved the required minimum grade point average, the student will be suspended from Haven University.

Under extenuating circumstances, the student may appeal the suspension in writing to the Admissions Committee. All decisions made by the committee shall be final. Requests for an appeal must be made within the first five days of the semester of suspension. The results of an appeal are conveyed to the student as soon as possible. In the event that the appeal is denied, the student will be dismissed from the school, and will receive a "W" in all courses for the semester. Dismissals are considered final.

Satisfactory Academic Progress

Federal regulations (CFR 668.34) require that, in order to be eligible to receive Title IV student aid, all students (full-time, part-time, undergraduate, and graduate) applying for financial aid must maintain satisfactory academic progress toward completion of their degree. All students who receive institutional, federal, and state financial aid must meet the academic standards of Haven University and the standards of satisfactory academic progress defined by federal regulations as follows:

- Maximum Time Frame – students must complete their degree within a maximum period of 150% of the published length of the academic program. Federal regulations state that students ineligible when it becomes mathematically impossible to complete their program within 150% of the published program length.
- Minimum Pace of Progression – students must complete 66.67% of all attempted courses. To calculate the Pace of Progression, divide the cumulative number of credits successfully completed by the cumulative number of credits attempted.
- Minimum GPA – students must maintain a cumulative GPA of 2.30 for undergraduate and 3.00 for graduate at the end of each term.

5. DEGREE COMPLETION

Students must be in good academic standing in order to graduate. Some degree programs have additional requirements that must be met before a student is able to graduate. Details are outlined under each degree program description in this catalog. Students are responsible for meeting the graduation requirements set forth in the catalog published at the time of their matriculation for the degree they are seeking. All candidates for graduation must be approved by the Degree Committee. To receive this endorsement, students must have acted responsibly in manifesting wholesome Christian character and adhering to the standards of this school.

Students who change programs are responsible for meeting the graduation requirements of the new program. Students who take an extended leave of absence for more than one year are subject to the graduation requirements in effect at the time of their reinstatement unless written permission was obtained prior to the extended leave.

Intent to Graduate

Students who plan to participate in commencement must complete and submit an Intent to Graduate application to the Office of Admissions and Records. This must be done no later than the beginning of the Spring Semester of the year in which the student plans to graduate. Prior to commencement, the Office of Admissions & Records will evaluate each candidate's academic record. Copies of the evaluations will be sent to the student, his or her advisor, and the Academic Dean.

Financial Obligations

In addition, students must clear their accounts of any remaining balances before graduation. Students who fail to do this will not have access to any services, including transcripts, conferral of degree, diploma, or enrollment into another degree program.

Bible Contents Exam students

B.A.R., M.Div., and M.A.R. students must pass basic knowledge of the content of the Bible as an essential prerequisite for ministry. The Bible Content examination is intended to assess one's knowledge of stories, themes, and pertinent passages in the Old and New Testaments. All entering students shall take the exam to show the level of their Bible content knowledge before the registration. For the entering students, there is no minimum score. The B.A.R. graduating students should be able to demonstrate above 70% of score for graduation while M.A.R. and M.Div. students should be above 80 % of score for graduation.

Comprehensive Exam

Upon successful completion of course work, Master students, both M.A.R. and M.Div. students must take a qualifying exit exam with a score of 80% or above. This exam serves as a capstone to the program by testing students' comprehension of course work.

Dissertation Requirements

Students are encouraged to give thought to the choice of a dissertation topic from the very beginning of their programs. Dissertation proposals must be submitted to the Dean of Academic Affairs within two years of initial admission into the program. Upon approval of a proposal, an advisor will be selected and assigned according to the student's topic of research. Dissertations must be worthy of publication and demonstrate the student's ability to conduct independent research, deal constructively with major issues, and communicate clearly and effectively in written English. Specific instructions and due dates appear in the manual on dissertations.

Students who wish to attend commencement services in May must finalize their dissertation by the first of May. If they cannot complete it by this time but still wish to participate in commencement ceremonies, they may petition for an extension. The student must show that he or she is able to complete his or her dissertation by August 31 of the same year in order to be approved for an extension. In the case that the student is not able to complete it by August 31, the student will graduate the following May.

Maximum Time Limit

D.Min. candidates must pass their dissertations within two years after the completion of their coursework. Students are required to be enrolled continuously until completion of their doctoral degree. Also, all doctoral students should accomplish their degree within 6 years from the admitted year. A student who needs more than seven years is required to submit an application to the Administrative Committee stating specific reasons for one two-year extension and upon review, approval will be given.

Commencement

All candidates for graduation are expected to participate in the annual commencement exercises which take place at the close of the Spring Semester. Those who cannot attend the commencement because of extenuating circumstances must make a formal request in writing to the Office of Admissions & Records to receive the degree in his or her absence.

6. STUDENT RECORDS AND TRANSCRIPTS

Confidentiality of Student Records

Haven University follows the Federal Family Education Rights and Privacy Acts of 1974 (20 U.S.C. 1232g) and regulations adopted thereunder (34 C.F.R. 99) and California Education Code, Section 67100 et seq., which state that educational institutions shall not release educational records to non- school employees without prior consent of the student.

Right of Access

Also in accordance with the same regulations, with a few exceptions provided by law, students at Haven University may see any of their educational records upon request. Students are also entitled to copies of all records to which they have access. Students further have the right, under established procedures, to challenge the factual accuracy of the records, should they find discrepancies between the school records and their own. Students also have the right of access to recommendations and evaluations in the cases of admissions and applications for employment.

Transcripts

Official transcripts are issued by the Office of Admissions & Records only at the written request of the student together with the $20.00 transcript fee. The student must give his/her full name used while enrolled in the school, date of birth, Student or Social Security number, dates of attendance, and degree(s) received, if any. No transcripts will be issued for anyone who has failed to meet any financial obligations to Cal Grad.

Retention

Student transcripts will be permanently retained by Haven University and other pertinent student records will be maintained for a period of 5 years from the student's date of completion or withdrawal. Other school documents (educational programs, curriculum, institution member's information, etc.) shall be maintained for a period of five years at the school's main campus in the State of California.

V. ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

1. DESCRIPTION

Mission and Purpose

The purpose of the ESL program is to prepare men and women for furthering their education, so they can eventually take courses to fulfil their calling in the Church and in society. The school welcomes qualified students without regard to denomination, race, sex, or physical disabilities. The school seeks to strengthen and deepen the spiritual life of students, and through classroom and other academic activities, to engage them in critical discussions about the Bible and theology with probing questions regarding faith and life in today's world.

Objective

The ESL program provides students, prospective employers, and others with documented evidence of persistence and academic accomplishment in ESL. Each course must be completed with a "P" (Pass) grade. Students will be in classroom settings, and each program will require class textbooks to be used. Each course will provide apt methods of instruction. Those may range from Power point presentations, whiteboards, and/or handouts depending on the discretion of the Instructor or Professor.

Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this certificate, students will be able to:

- Demonstrate comprehension of an ability to read critically a variety of genres of authentic texts.
- Demonstrate ability to write expository essays and academic summaries
- Demonstrate ability to use various grammatical structures to establish sequence and coherence
- Speak with increasing confidence, fluency, and control in formal and informal oral communication
- Recognize and correct pronunciation and speech problems that impede successful communication

Admission

A minimum of high school diploma or equivalent is required for admission to the ESL program. Initial recommended placement in the credit ESL program is based on results of the ESL Placement Examination (WebCAPE); for continuing students, successful completion of courses with letter grades requires a grade of "C" or higher. ESL courses are not intended for native speakers of English.

2. COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Courses Required for the English as a Second Language program: Required Courses [160 hours each course, 960 hours total]

- ESL111 Beginning Level 1
- ESL112 Beginning Level 2
- ESL121 Intermediate Level 1
- ESL122 Intermediate Level 2

ESL131 Advanced Level 1
ESL132 Advanced Level 2

3. COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

ESL111 Beginning Level 1 (160 hours)

The objective of this course is to provide an introductory understanding of English. It primarily focuses on basic grammar acquisition, vocabulary building, pronunciation, and spelling, and strengthening listening comprehension.

ESL112 Beginning Level 2 (160 hours)

Prerequisite: ESL111 or placement test

Continuation of introductory level of English. Focus on basic grammar structure and simple verb tenses, writing short descriptive sentences and questions. Confidence building in using English for simple everyday situations in speaking and listening. Basic vocabulary building, spelling patterns, and reading comprehension.

VI. TESOL

1. DESCRIPTION

Mission and Purpose

TESOL is the acronym for Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages. Contextually informed by the Christian Worldview, the TESOL Certificate program is for inexperienced or unqualified teachers, professionals, or those in Christian service with the aim to teach English Language Learners. The certificate's curriculum is designed to provide the basic competencies and knowledge necessary in the TESOL field. With a focus on the development of practical classroom skills and effective teaching techniques, there is also a foundation in second-language acquisition theory and the general structure of the English language. Each class covers concepts, methods, techniques, materials, and resources directly applicable to the classroom.

Objective

The following are the Objectives of the TESOL Certificate program:

- Through a classroom setting, to introduce inexperienced or unqualified teachers and other professionals to TESOL theory, research, and practice that is accessible and that is supported by a wide range of teaching materials, teaching ideas, and classroom extracts.
- To encourage self-direction on the part of students through the provision of follow-up TESOL resources and ideas
- To develop the necessary knowledge, attitudes, and skills to enable those students who desire it to go on to higher study in TESOL education
- Within the context of a Christian Worldview, to foster a sufficient comprehension of TESOL, which helps a student understand how language and culture interact with one another.
- To present content through a range of print, audio, internet, and video media.
- To foster the development of higher-level thinking skills such as the critical evaluation of TESOL pedagogical methods and materials
- Provide students, prospective employers, and others with documented evidence of persistence and academic accomplishment in TESOL.

Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this certificate, students will be able to:

Assess English Language learners and teach them effectively in all aspects of language: speaking, listening, reading, pronunciation, grammar, and writing.

Discuss some of the research findings that have influenced language teaching methodology. Through the development of higher-level thinking skills to create, evaluate, and use English language teaching materials.

Utilize basic knowledge of the structure of the English language to better teach it to English Language Learners.

Understand how languages function socially and culturally to better teach English Language Learners

Identify major learning styles and strategies and explain why they are important considerations in second language teaching.

Identify ethical and moral Christian principles and utilize companion strategies to teach English to English Language Learners.

Develop classroom assessment tasks that are linked to TESOL learning outcomes.

Admission

A minimum of a high school diploma or equivalent is required for admission to the TESOL program. A TOEFL score of 580 (paper test) is required. (Students with a bachelor's degree in English or other bachelor's degrees from English-speaking countries do not have to take TOEFL Test.) Successful completion of courses with letter grades requires a grade of "C" or higher.

2. COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Courses Required for the TESOL program:

1. TESOL 519: General and Descriptive Linguistics for TESOL
2. TESOL 529: Second Language Acquisition for TESOL
3. TESOL 539: Methods and Post-Methods of
4. TESOL 549: Teaching Fluent American English.
5. TESOL 559: Teaching Vocabulary with Semantics

7. TESOL 579: Teaching Culture in ESOL Classrooms

Linguistic awareness

8. TESOL 589: TESOL Curriculum and Program Evaluation
9. TESOL 599: Project – TESOL Program Evaluation
10. TESOL 600: Christian Ethics for TESOL or

Ethical

11. TESOL 601: Independent Study

3. COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Courses:

(Student teachers must pass with a grade of C - albeit the grading standard Pass or Non-Pass)

TESOL 519: General and Descriptive Linguistics for TESOL

Modern structural linguistics, on the base of Saussure's langue and parole, developed for phonology, phonetics, morphology, syntax, semantics, pragmatics, psycholinguistics, language variation, language change, language contact, animal communication, writing system, and language and computer.

TESOL 529: Second Language Acquisition for TESOL

Contrastive analysis hypothesis with error analysis for teaching methodology, Interlanguage with morphological and syntactic issues, Universal Grammar with Plato's problem for first and second language acquisition, critical period theory in second language acquisition, Krashen's models of second language acquisition and learning.

TESOL 539: Methods and Post-Methods of

History of teaching methods over time with comprehension-based method, communicative language teaching method, designer method, and post methods in post-modern era for maximizing teachable moments and minimizing inappropriate strategies for implicit and explicit motivations to second or foreign language students in the classroom.

TESOL 549: Teaching Fluent American English.

Teacher students, whose native language is not English or English with the pragmatics of the rhythm of General American English, learn to speak in thought groups, with primary and secondary stress for important and unimportant words (reduction), linking words in a thought group, stress and intonation in semantics, and auxiliary verb stress.

TESOL 559: Teaching Vocabulary with Semantics

Student teachers learn how to understand vocabulary in the contexts of semantic range and semantic fields for effectiveness in teaching and learning activities through the receptive and productive process of comprehension in the context of sense and reference in word distribution in syntactic structure.

TESOL 569: Teaching Reading and Writing for TESOL

The necessity of reading for writing for student teachers with summarizing, analyzing, and synthesizing each paragraph for their reading comprehension with the methods of logos, pathos, and ethos in preparation for the writing modes and process along with language style and skills in writing.

TESOL 579: Teaching Culture in ESOL Classrooms

Linguistic awareness is the necessity for teachers in the second language or foreign language classrooms in the context of historical-socio and cultural issues in teaching English to speakers of another language, especially language instruction in the context of linguistic diversity and intercultural language education.

TESOL 589: TESOL Curriculum and Program Evaluation

The need of language learners, the development of students' needs, and the textbooks and materials of instruction are the focus on active teaching and learning for effectiveness towards students' learning outcomes. The textbooks and materials need to be analyzed and evaluated for the learners' needs and achievements. Building the learning environments, the interactions, and the communication is pedagogical. The student teachers complete their practicum project for graduation.

TESOL 599: Project – TESOL Program Evaluation

The student teachers design and develop the curriculum to a level of readiness for actual implementation in an educational setting. The student may also participate in the actual implementation of part or all the materials. The following are the sections that comprise the curriculum development project and evaluation.

TESOL 600: Christian Ethics for TESOL

Ethical and moral Christian principles with strategies for student teachers in teaching English in second, foreign, and international language classrooms – even with co-teaching colleagues - through behavioral codes of discrimination harassment, and sexual harassment

Student teachers can work on their independent study instead of learning TESOL 369*

TESOL 601: Independent study

Student teachers in TESOL work on the independent study for ethics for TESOL in classrooms with regards to discrimination harassment and sexual harassment.

IV. Certificate in Higher Education Teaching (Optional)

Professors who teach in the TESOL Certificate Program should attend the course with eight modules for 8 weeks.

Job Placement Information– Haven University does not offer a job placement service. No single degree, certificate, or license authorizes an individual to teach ESL/EFL in all fields or all parts of the world. Job requirements are specific to the job and the employer and may vary a great deal from one job to another.

VII. CHRISTIAN LEGAL STUDIES CERTIFICATE

1. DESCRIPTION

Mission and Purpose

A Christian Legal Studies Certificate is a broad term that signals basic legal learning and skills. Haven University's Christian Legal Studies Certificate program, informed by the Christian worldview, features courses that join critical inquiry with practical application. The certificate program is open to those qualified individuals interested in the study of the development, logic, interpretation, perception, and application of United States law. A student will learn about various areas of law including criminal, family, contract, tort, and estate law. It is not a professional program in paralegal education. This certificate may also be earned in conjunction with any Haven baccalaureate or post-baccalaureate degree.

Objective

Earning a Legal Studies Certificate will show that an individual has an acquired knowledge of the United States legal system from a variety of perspectives. The Christian Legal Studies Certificate provides prospective employers, and others with documented evidence of persistence and academic accomplishment in the issues of Christian Legal Studies. This could provide a valuable background for a variety of future pursuits, including graduate school, social work, community and government service, law school, law enforcement, church or educational administration, career advancement, independent services, and consulting agencies.

Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this certificate, students will be able to:

- Demonstrate the ability to read, understand and analyze court opinions and other legal source materials.
- Demonstrate the ability to understand the principal issues in disputes, ascertain the applicable rules, apply the facts and circumstances to the rules and reach reasonable conclusions.
- Be able to address the concerns of lawyers, paralegals, and others presented by different legally oriented facts and circumstances
- Learn to assist those providing legal insight into areas affecting ministry and other forms of outreach.
- Understand the ethical parameters as well as the applicable issues of a Christian worldview in the context of:
 - a. Understanding the requisite compliance issues
 - b. Reaching and understanding the implications of their agreements
 - c. Understanding the significance of dispute resolution objectives, processes, and potential results.

Admission

High school diploma and the ability to read, write, and articulate issues or concerns to the ministry or other outreach groups with which they are associated and a drive to be helpful with the issues of obligations, compliance agreements, and disputes affecting them.

The successful completion of courses with letter grades requires a grade of “C” or higher. The student is also required to agree and adhere to all Haven University policies, its Christian mission, and Biblical ethical precepts.

Course Requirements

Required for graduation is a total of 30 units of course work with a minimum grade point average of 2.0. The courses are primarily lectures, class discussions, research, and practicums with an expectation that the student can draft college-level papers for each class. There will be no Comprehensive Examination needed to graduate from the program. Mandatory is the satisfactory completion of the minimum course requirements. However, completion of the minimum requirements does not automatically qualify the student for the Certificate of Christian Legal Studies. To the satisfaction of the Certificate Committee, the student must have shown evidence of consistent Christian character, the potential for effectiveness in community, and commitment to the primacy of the divinely authoritative Scriptures, [interpreted in the framework of historically orthodox and credal Christian theology].

Graduation Requirements

A candidate for the Christian Legal Studies Certificate shall have successfully:

1. Completed a minimum of 30 units of coursework, with a cumulative grade point average (CGPA) of 2.0 or higher on a 4.0 scale.

2. Completed all certificate requirements within the Maximum Time Frame (MTF) of four (4) years. The program is normally three (3) semesters in length.
3. Filed all the necessary graduation forms in accordance with the timetable provided by the Office of Administration.
4. Settled all financial obligations to Haven University.

IX. MASTER OF DIVINITY

1. DESCRIPTION

Mission and Purpose

The purpose of Master of Divinity is to prepare men and women for faithful ministry in Church and society. Committed to a learned ministry for church and society, the school welcomes qualified students without regard to denomination, race, sex, or physical disabilities. The school seeks to strengthen and deepen the spiritual life of students, and through classroom and other academic activities, to engage them in critical discussions about the Bible and theology with probing questions regarding faith and life in today's world.

Objective

The Master of Divinity is the recognized program in theological seminaries designed for the purpose of preparing persons for a pastoral ministry. It also prepares students for other church related vocations and graduate study in theology.

It is the philosophy of Haven University that a minister of the gospel should have a comprehensive knowledge of the English Bible, a competency in the original languages of scripture, a Biblically based theology, an understanding of the educational program of the church, the skill to communicate effectively God's word, an awareness of the Church's history, and the ability to apply in the pastoral ministry what has been learned.

The curriculum for this degree implements these goals. In addition, students are given the tools for evangelism and discipleship and are well acquainted with the work of the church through Christian service assignments and internship. Moreover, ample opportunity to pursue special interests is given by means of electives.

Program Outcomes

- A. Students will become knowledgeable of God's inerrant Word, as well as competent in its interpretation, proclamation, and application
- B. Understands the concept of worldview, as well as differences between Christian and other worldviews and evaluate writings based on unstated worldview assumptions
- C. Students will develop ministry skills, demonstrate competency to apply those skills in class assignments, and use those skills by serving as volunteers or professional ministers.
- D. Students will develop knowledge of missions (e.g., theology and history of missions, missionary anthropology, and the work of a missions committee in a local church)
- E. Students will be equipped to serve in their churches as staff members

Admissions

Applicants must possess the Bachelor of Arts degree or the equivalent from an approved school. It is recommended that the applicant's baccalaureate preparation include liberal arts studies such as philosophy, history, modern languages, and some work in human sciences. An interview with a faculty member of Haven University is highly recommended. This can be arranged through the school office.

Course Requirements

Admissions

Applicants must possess a Bachelors degree or the equivalent from an approved school. It is recommended that the applicant's baccalaureate preparation include finance, accounting, business management, and economics. An interview with a faculty member of Haven University is highly recommended. This can be arranged through the school office.

Course Requirements

A total of 39 units of course work with a minimum grade point average of 3.0 is required for graduation.

There will be no examination needed in order to graduate the program. All that would be needed is the completion of the minimum requirements. However, completion of the minimum requirements does not automatically qualify the student for the Master of Business Administration degree. He or she must have shown evidence, to the satisfaction of the Degree Committee.

A maximum of 9 semester units of comparable work may be transferred toward the Master of Business Administration degree from recognized graduate schools, if it is a B or higher. A maximum of 3 units of independent study are allowed per semester, with the total for the degree not to exceed 9 units.

Students will be in classroom settings, and each program will require class textbooks to be used. Each course will provide apt methods of instruction. Those may range from Power point presentations, whiteboards, and/or handouts depending on the discretion of the Instructor or Professor.

Graduation Requirements

A candidate for the Master of Business Administration shall have:

1. Successfully completed a minimum of 39 units of coursework, with a cumulative grade point average (CGPA) of 3.0 or higher on a 4.0 scale.
2. Successfully completed all degree requirements within the Maximum Time Frame (MTF) of three (3) years. The program is normally four (4) semesters in length.
3. Successfully completed the Master of Business Administration Project, GSB750.
4. Filed all the necessary graduation forms in accordance with the timetable provided by the Office of Administration.
5. Settled all financial obligations to Haven University.

XI. DOCTOR OF MINISTRY

1. DESCRIPTION

Mission, Purpose, and Objectives

The purpose of the Doctor of Ministry program is to prepare men and women for faithful and effective ministry in Church and society. The D.Min is the highest “professional” degree for Christian leaders who are actively engaged in vocational ministry. As such, the degree program is focused primarily on the practical investigation and application of Scripture and Christian ministry, supported by vigorous academic research. Those qualified leaders pursuing the Doctor of Ministry degree will experience opportunities of biblical and academic research and practical application.

Haven University welcomes qualified participants without regard to denomination, race, sex, or physical disabilities. The school seeks to strengthen and deepen the spiritual life of those participating through classroom and other academic activities, to engage them in critical discussions about the Bible and theology with probing questions regarding faith and life in today's world. The D.Min program is structured so as to allow participants to complete the program while remaining in vocational ministry.

Goals

The program leading to the Doctor of Ministry is designed to equip those actively involved in a vocational ministry with a higher level of competence in the practice of a Biblically and theologically oriented ministry. This program concentrates on developing expertise in the theory and practice of ministry. The goals of this program are to enable participants:

- To become aware of new trends and literature in their vocation.
- To be challenged and encouraged through dialogue with fellow professionals.
- To acquire a doctoral degree which has a practical orientation.
- To enhance their ability to communicate the Gospel.
- To meet the needs of their constituents in a more effective manner.

Program Outcomes

- A. Students will become knowledgeable of God’s inerrant Word, as well as competent in its interpretation, proclamation, and application
- B. Understands the concept of worldview, as well as differences between Christian and other worldviews and evaluate writings based on unstated worldview assumptions
- C. Students will develop ministry skills, demonstrate competency to apply those skills in class assignments, and use those skills by serving as volunteers or professional ministers.
- D. Students will develop knowledge of missions (e.g., theology and history of missions, missionary anthropology, and the work of a missions committee in a local church)
- E. Students will be equipped to serve in their churches as senior staff members

- F. Students will create a project or dissertation synthesizing knowledge and/or advancing the Kingdom of God

Admission

The D.Min. applicant must hold the M.A., M.Div. or an equivalent degree from a recognized school of theology, and have an overall grade point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale. Applicants also must have a working knowledge of the original languages of the Bible. Applicants with the Master of Arts degree are required to make up deficiencies in basic requirements for the Master of Divinity. This may be done at Haven University prior to admission to the D.Min. program.

The D.Min. applicant must have at least two full years of full-time involvement in a significant professional Christian ministry. The applicant must give evidence of growth and competence in ministerial skills or leadership and must presently be involved in an ongoing ministry. The applicant must supply the requisite written admission materials and must have a personal interview with a member of the faculty or administration.

Degree Requirements

1. A candidate for the D.Min. must have completed a total of 42 units of academic credit. A minimum overall GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale is required.
2. A maximum of 21 semester units of comparable work may be transferred toward the D.Min. degree from recognized graduate theological schools, if it is a B or higher. A maximum of 3 units of independent study are allowed per semester, with the total for the degree not to exceed 9 units.
3. There will be no examination needed in order to graduate the program. All that would be needed is the completion of the minimum requirements. However, completion of the minimum requirements does not automatically qualify the participant for the D.Min. degree. He or she must have shown evidence, to the satisfaction of the Degree Committee, of consistent Christian character, effectiveness in Christian ministry, and commitment to the primacy of the divinely authoritative inerrant Scriptures, which are interpreted in the framework of evangelical theology.

Dissertation

A dissertation with a goal of a minimum of 60,000 words (and not to exceed 90,000 words), on a topic selected in consultation with the participant's academic advisor, must be completed and approved by one internal and one external examiner. The criteria of acceptability for this dissertation are, in order of weight, (1) significant research in and contribution to the field of study, (2) in-depth knowledge of the area of research, and (3) clear, concise presentation according to proper grammar, style, and academic format. A previously written work, or one which has already been awarded academic credit, will not be accepted.

A maximum of two years is the time allowed for writing a dissertation following the completion of all course work. If it is not completed within that time, the participant must file an application in the Office of Admissions & Records for an extension.

Prerequisites: None

This course examines the various approaches to pastoral counseling, a necessary element in Christian ministry. Biblical precedents as well as the insights of modern psychology are examined and evaluated, resulting in an integrated approach to this crucial task. Trends and issues confronting our current culture will be highlighted and discussed

PT880 Christian Issues in Psychology Practicum (3 Units)

Prerequisites: None

Models of integration, critical issues in psychology and contemporary issues are examined in light of the scriptures and modern thinkers in Christian psychology. Current trends in psychological disciplines, especially in light of the current culture, will be explored. Effectiveness in treating the many dysfunctions of our modern society will be analyzed.

RESEARCH AND DISSERTATION

RM811 Phase 1 – Process Seminar and Application (3 Units)

Prerequisites: None

There are three phases required for the doctoral degree program: RM811 is the first phase of the dissertation process and is a prerequisite for RM911 and RM912. RM811 is a seminar format that provides the participant the needed explanations of methods of research, as well as in the technical aspects of writing and formatting the dissertation. This phase concludes with the D.Min candidate presenting the formal application along with the dissertation topic, and a faculty advisor is assigned. .

RM911 Phase 2 – Writing and Editing (3 Units)

Prerequisites: RM811

The D.Min candidate will submit the dissertation title which will be approved by the faculty advisor, and an abstract and outline of the dissertation will then be submitted. Once approved, the doctoral participant begins the writing of the approved dissertation topic and initial drafts of the early chapters will be presented to the faculty advisor for editing, feedback, and suggestions. Once all chapters/sections of the dissertation have been submitted and edited, the candidate can move into the third and final phase, RM912.

RM912 Phase 3 - Presentation and Publication (3 Units)

Prerequisites: RM911

The writing of the dissertation topic will conclude with the formulation of a complete final draft. Regular meetings and consultations will occur between the participant and the faculty advisor. All the sections of the dissertation will have been edited by the advisor and ultimately a full draft will be presented. The draft of the full dissertation may be presented to a secondary reader advisor, and any further editing will be completed. The final draft of the dissertation will then be presented to the school along with the Approval page signed by the Faculty Advisor. The dissertation will then receive an official grade. Options for publication and bookbinding of the dissertation will be offered to the student, with one fully bound copy being presented for the school library.

XIII. STUDENT POLICIES AND SERVICES

1. STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES

Each student is individually responsible for compliance with the regulations printed in this General Catalog and in the official Haven University announcements posted on the official bulletin boards. This includes meeting all the scholastic requirements as well as administrative deadlines for graduation. It is also the responsibility of the student to be well informed on the Student Rights (see below) and the Student Code of Conduct (see below). The students must observe this code of conduct while enrolled at Haven University.

Chapel

Haven University provides meaningful worship services for students on Mondays and Tuesdays during the Fall and Spring Semesters. Chapel services include messages by members of the school's faculty and other outstanding Christian leaders. Chapel attendance is required for theological students and a pass/fail grade is given based on attendance. Students who miss more than three chapel services per semester are required to provide evidence of excused absence and are assigned a devotional project.

Christian Service

Students are expected every semester to have a Christian service assignment. This may be as a member of a pastoral staff, a Sunday School teacher, a youth group leader, or some other Christian work related to a local church or mission. This assignment is for the purpose of serving the Lord and at the same time acquainting students with the work of the church. As a result, when they complete their course of study, they will be better prepared for ministry.

Standards of Academic Honesty

All students at Haven University are expected to adhere to the highest standards of academic honesty in the performance of all academic work. Students will be subject to disciplinary action for committing any form of academic dishonesty, including but not limited to cheating, plagiarism, and/or the use of materials prepared by another, such as commercially prepared term or research papers.

Haven University regards plagiarism as a flagrant violation of the School's academic regulations and violators will be subject to severe disciplinary action. The use of commercially prepared term or research papers will be considered the most serious offense. The California State Legislature, in fact, has enacted a law providing criminal penalty for the sale or distribution of such materials.

2. STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

1. No practice of cheating or plagiarism in connection with an academic and/or internship program.
2. No sale or possession of dangerous drugs, restricted drugs, or narcotics, except when lawfully prescribed.
3. No unauthorized use or misuse of the school's property.
4. No destruction of school's property or the property belonging to the school's administrative personnel, faculty, staff, or student.
5. No theft of the school's property or property owned by a member of the school's administrative personnel, faculty, staff, or student body.
6. No obstruction or disruption, on or off campus, of the educational aims and processes of the School.
7. No entrance to campus of intoxicated or drugged states.
8. No possession or use of explosives, dangerous chemicals, or deadly weapons on campus property without prior authorization of the President of the school.

The term "deadly weapons" used herein includes but is not limited to pistol, handgun, revolver or any other firearm, switchblade, dagger, or any knife having a blade longer than five inches, or any object that can be used as a club, except canes or crutches needed by the disabled.

9. No physically abusive or disrespectful behavior toward a member of the school's administrative personnel, faculty, staff, or students.
10. No engaging in lewd, indecent, or obscene behavior on campus.

Disciplinary Policy

Students are expected to observe the School's student code of conduct and demonstrate a cooperative and respectful attitude towards all. Students should strive to develop a strongly ethical and upright character, well-rounded personality and professional competence and compassion.

A student who violates Haven University's policies and Student Code of Conduct (see above) will be subject to disciplinary action which can result in one of the following seven levels of disciplinary action: (1) official warning; (2) reprimand; (3) property restitution; (4) assignment of failing grade; (5) probation; (6) suspension; and (7) dismissal. Student Code of Conduct adopted by Haven University are based on the California Administrative Code, Title 5, Section 41301.

3. STUDENT RIGHTS

Students at Haven University are entitled to and have the following rights:

1. The right to receive quality educational programs instructed by competent and qualified faculty.
2. The right to receive professional, prompt, and friendly services from the school's administrative personnel and faculty concerning academic, financial, personal or any other matters that may require consultation by the students.
3. The right to receive informed, factual, and prompt responses to all questions that are related to Haven University and its educational programs.
4. The right to cancel enrollment/registration and receive 100 percent refund of all charges paid (less one fee not to exceed $250 through attendance at the first class session or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later). Notice of cancellation/withdrawal is to be delivered or mailed to the Office of Admissions & Records through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.
5. The right to discontinue his or her academic program at any time and receive a refund for the part of the course not taken, subject to the applicable regulations clearly stated in this catalog, and in accordance with the pro-rated refund policy, also stated in this catalog, which is in compliance with the statutory and regulatory requirements.
6. The right to inspect and review his or her records during the normal business hours and seek correction of errors in records through the established administrative procedures.
7. The right to privacy not disclosing "personally identifiable information in education records" without the written consent of an eligible student. (20 U.S.C.S. § 1232g(b)). (FERPA)
8. The right to participate in all the student activities, school sponsored meetings and seminars, and other co-curricular activities.
9. The right to call for a hearing in accordance with the procedures established for this purpose if student is subject to the school's disciplinary action; and
10. The right to contact or write to federal or state regulatory agencies to register complaints and seek remedial action.

4. STUDENT SERVICES

Employment

Many students find it a financial necessity to work part-time while enrolled at Haven University, and are involved in paid positions in local business establishments and churches in the greater Los Angeles and Orange County areas. International students are usually restricted in the kind and amount of employment they can undertake. Haven University does not offer employment placement services.

Housing

Haven University does not have dormitory facilities and does not offer housing for its students. The school does not offer assistance to find housing for students. Some students join together to rent an apartment. Most married students find housing on their own in the general vicinity of the school or in some other convenient location.

Websites like www.apartments.com can provide you with further information about prices and distances from the school.

Apartments/Houses around the school vicinity (1 mile or less) estimate around $1,800 for 1-3 bedrooms for rent. However, students are encouraged to do their own research for an optimal price.

Books

Haven University will make every effort to assist students in locating and/or providing for purchase all of the required books, as well as recommended books, for the courses that are offered.

Counseling

Counseling is available to students through several means. Administrative officers and faculty are available by appointment for general counseling. Specific needs may be met through numerous counseling services in the metropolitan area.

In order to assist new students in adjusting to Haven University's life and in planning their academic programs, a brief orientation is scheduled during the registration period. In addition, academic counseling is planned to help new students become more familiar with the courses and curriculum offered, and to assist them in course selections. The academic Dean and faculty are experienced scholars as well as ministers with many years of pastoral experience behind them.

Placement Services

Haven University does not offer placement services for students either prior to or after graduation.

XIV. GENERAL POLICIES

1. CATALOG ACCURACY SYSTEM

The Haven University's catalog describes the policies, procedures, rules, and regulations by which the school operates the programs and services that it offers. Haven University endeavors to present this information to the public clearly and accurately. Every effort has been made to assure that the information presented is correct and up-to-date. Haven University assumes no responsibility for program changes or publication errors beyond its control. This catalog is updated annually.

2. STATEMENT OF SCHOOL RIGHTS

This catalog is published to aid the student in making decisions leading to the accomplishment of academic goals. The policies, procedures, rules, and regulations stated herein are for information only and in no way constitute an irrevocable contract between the student and Haven University.

Nothing in this catalog shall be construed, operate as, or have the effect of an abridgment or limitation of any rights, powers or privileges of the Board of Trustees or the President of Haven University.

While every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy and timeliness of information in this catalog, changes in laws, rules and policies that occur from time-to-time may alter information contained in this publication. Further, the General Catalog is a generic publication; it is not intended or possible to be inclusive of all the information which pertain to the student and Haven University.

Haven University reserves the right to make program changes and rules revisions; to set and amend tuition, services, and material charges; to make changes in which courses are offered, teaching assignments, degree requirements, student services, and administrative staff at its sole discretion without limitation or prior notice, subject to applicable law.

There are established procedures for making changes - procedures which protect the school's integrity and the individual student's interest and welfare. A curriculum or Haven University graduation requirement, when altered, is not made retroactive unless the alteration is to the advantage of the student and can be accommodated within the span of years normally required for graduation. The student should consult the appropriate office, administrative unit, the published schedule of classes or other appropriate school publications for current information.

Haven University further reserves the right to refuse admission to any applicant at the discretion of the Admission Director and to disqualify, discontinue or exclude any student at the discretion of the President, the Dean of Students or Dean of Administration.

3. POLICY ON SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Harassment and sexual harassment are reprehensible and will not be tolerated by Haven University. Sexual harassment is a violation of a person's privacy and dignity. It creates a hostile and intimidating work or learning environment, and it is illegal; it is a form of gender discrimination prohibited by Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, state regulations and Haven's policy on sexual harassment.

Sexual or other forms of harassment of a Haven University student towards any person, or Haven University employee will not be tolerated. Harassment by a non-employee, for example a contractor, vendor, supplier, or visitor, is prohibited.

Sexual harassment subverts the mission of Haven University and threatens the careers, educational experience, and well-being of the students, staff, and faculty. Haven University is committed to maintaining an environment that is free of sexual harassment.

Sexually harassing conduct, whether physical or verbal, committed by supervisors, non-supervisory personnel, or faculty members, is prohibited. This includes repeated offensive sexual flirtation, advances, propositions, continued or repeated abuse of a sexual nature, sexually-oriented humor, graphic-verbal comments about an individual's body or clothing, sexually-degrading words to describe an individual, the display in the workplace or learning environment of sexually-degrading objects or pictures and any undesired physical contact. Overwhelmingly, the victims of sexual harassment are women; however, men are also victims of sexual harassment by women, and same sex harassment occurs.

Haven University students, faculty or staff who believe that they have been subjected to any form of sexual harassment should promptly contact the office of the President, the Dean of Students or Dean of Administration regarding complaint resolution or grievance procedures.

4. POLICY ON SEXUAL ASSAULT

The term sexual assault includes, but is not limited to: rape, acquaintance rape, sexual battery, forced sodomy, forced-oral copulation, rape by a foreign object, or threat of sexual assault.

Students, faculty, and staff who are victims of a sexual assault committed upon the grounds of the school, or upon off-campus grounds or facilities maintained by affiliated student organizations, are required by law to be advised of specified-remedial information which should include any treatment which may be available.

Rape is the most prevalent, serious-violent crime committed on college campuses. Rape, including acquaintance rape, or any other form of sexual assault, will not be tolerated by Haven University. Where there is evidence that campus-related sexual assault has been committed, severe campus disciplinary action will be initiated. Such campus disciplinary action may include, after due process, the possibility of dismissal, suspension, or disenrollment. Additionally, where the victim initiates criminal action, the perpetrator is subject to criminal penalties which may include fines and imprisonment.

5. POLICY ON PROSECUTION FOR THEFT AND BAD CHECKS

It is the policy of Haven University to prosecute individuals for theft, such as shoplifting, and the issuance of worthless documents, such as bad checks, whenever it occurs on campus. All persons committing such acts are subject to prosecution by civil authorities under the California Penal Code. Such measures include the utilization of Section 1719 of the California Civil Code (AB 1226) which permits the recipient of a bad check to recover the amount owing upon such check plus three times its face value up to a limit of $500 in a court of competent jurisdiction.

6. GRIEVANCE RESOLUTION AND APPEALS PROCEDURES

For simple suggestions or complaints, a student may either use the suggestion box (located in the student lounge) or go to the student dean. (If the student dean is not available, the vice president will be happy to take your complaint. He will keep a record and will either address the issue himself or will take the issue to the administrative council.

The student grievance procedure at Haven University is intended to provide a formal, standardized means for students to seek redress concerning the actions of faculty members, administrators, or staff members of the school-actions that are unauthorized or unjustified and that adversely affect the status, rights, or privileges of the students. Further, the purpose is to establish due process and safeguards that will be followed by the institution in the adjudication of grievances.

A grievance filed under this policy must be initiated within one year of the alleged violation. A grievance may not be filed on the basis of a student's judgment of an instructor's or administrator's competence; such judgments are solely the province of the academic department involved or of the administrator's supervisor.

The grievance procedure is not designed to replace open communication and understanding, which are vital to the academic process. The student may withdraw the grievance at any stage, at which point the process will immediately terminate. During all stages of the grievance, the burden of proof will be on the student.

First the student should call for an informal meeting. If after ten instructional days beyond the initial informal meeting a satisfactory resolution is not reached, the academic dean or President shall meet with the student grievant and the respondent. Within fifteen instructional days of that meeting, the appropriate authority will complete an investigation of the allegations and will reach conclusion. The investigation shall promptly communicate the decision to the student and the respondent. If the grievant is not satisfied with the results of the informal process, he or she may initiate a formal grievance procedure by contacting the appropriate authority within fifteen instructional days of the decision.

To initiate the formal grievance procedure, the student is required to submit a written "statement of grievance" – a clear, concise, signed, and dated statement of events from the student's perspective. The statement should provide enough information to present a complete understanding of the situation and of the remedy sought by the student.

A student initiates the formal procedures by submitting the statement of grievance to the appropriate director: Dean of Academic Affairs, Dean of Students or Dean of Administration. The dean or appropriate administrator has a period of ten instructional days to review the case, during which he or she may opt to seek additional information from the parties involved or from witnesses. By the end of that ten-day period, the dean or administrator will either (1) render a decision or (2) convene an Institution Hearing Committee to investigate further. The student shall have the right to request that an Institution Hearing Committee be convened.

All members of Haven University's administrators, faculty, and staff are dedicated to providing their students with highest quality undergraduate and graduate educational programs. They strive to guide and assist students so that they can complete their graduation requirement as expeditiously and successfully as possible. However, problems may arise, necessitating disciplinary action.

Students who are disciplined as a result of serious violation of student code of conduct shall have the right to appeal to the Grievance Committee composed of administrators, faculty, and academic counselors. It is the aim of Haven University to resolve all complaints, grade disputes, and other problems in a manner that is most fair and just to all parties involved. When submitting a formal appeal to the Grievance Committee, students are advised to assemble the following supportive evidence: (a) the nature of the problem or dispute; (b) the date that the alleged problem or dispute occurred; (c) the name of the individuals involved in the dispute; (d) a brief statement concerning the ruling sought from the Grievance Committee and copies of all relevant supportive documents.

Students have the rights to appeal to the state regulatory agency during any time the event of the complaint or dispute occurs. As clearly stated in the Student's Rights, students have the right to call or write to the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education at:

1747 N. Market Blvd., Suite 225

Sacramento, CA 95834

www.bppe.ca.gov

Toll-free telephone number (888) 370-7589
or by fax (916) 263-1897

Nevada Students who are attending the Nevada teaching site should file a formal complaint to the Nevada Commission on Postsecondary Education at www.cpe.nv.gov

Students also have the right to file a complaint with the Transnational Association for Colleges and Schools. See section VIII of this document: Instructions on Filing a Complaint with TRACS and Government Agencies.

Records of student grievances are to be kept by the Dean of Students.
