Definitions

• "Number of Students Who Began the Program" means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.

• "Students Available for Graduation" is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.

• "Number of On-time Graduates" is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.

• "On-time Completion Rate" is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.

• "150% Graduates" is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).

• "150% Completion Rate" is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.

• "Graduates Available for Employment" means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.

• "Graduates Unavailable for Employment" means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.

• "Graduates Employed in the Field" means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.

• "Placement Rate Employed in the Field" is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.

• "Number of Graduates Taking Exam" is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.

• "First Available Exam Date" is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.

• "Passage Rate" is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.

• "Number Who Passed First Available Exam" is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.

• "Salary" is as reported by graduate or graduate's employer.

• "No Salary Information Reported" is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL: Cancellation/Refund Policy

You have a right to withdraw from the program at any point after signing your enrollment agreement. You have the right to cancel your enrollment and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever comes later. A full refund of all refundable charges will be made within 10 days. If cancellation is made after the seventh day of enrollment, refunds for the return of unearned institutional charges for students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance shall be a pro-rata refund. The period of attendance is the period designated on the enrollment agreement. After 60% of the program has been provided, no refunds will be made. All refunds made to students will be made within 30 days of the date of postmark or receipt of written notice of cancellation. Since most of our students pay monthly, refunds are not as common as they are for institutions that require full payment in advance. The application fee is non-refundable.

Withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not necessarily limited to, a student's lack of attendance.

If you want to withdraw and cancel your enrollment contract, you must do so via mail. Please see the following page for the Notice of Cancellation.
