Student's Right to Cancel

A student has the right to cancel his or her agreement for a course of instruction, without any penalty or obligation if notice of cancellation is made through attendance of the first class session or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

Cancellation may occur for the following reasons:

- Rejection of Applicant: If an applicant is rejected for enrollment, or if a prospective international student has his/her visa application rejected, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
 - NOTE: NHI provides minimal visa assistance through issuing an I-20, thereby allowing the student to apply for a visa. Once the individual is an officially active student, NHI will vouch for both Active and then Completed status. NHI does not incur any associated charges regarding a student's visa.
- Program Cancellation: If an institution cancels a program subsequent to a student's enrollment, a full refund all monies paid will be made to the applicant
- Cancellation Prior to the Start of Class or No Show: If an applicant accepted for admission cancels prior to the start of scheduled classes or never attends class (no-show), a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
- Cancellation after the Start of Class: If an applicant cancels after class begins, but before the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.

If any books and supplies were distributed to the student prior to cancellation, the student is responsible for the charges associated with those distributions. The student has the option to return any books and supplies, and receive full credit to their account, within 30 days following the date of cancellation.

NHI will refund any credit balance from payments made on a student's account within 45 days of cancellation.

If the student has received federal financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from student financial aid program funds.

Student's Right to Cancel

A student has the right to cancel his or her agreement for a course of instruction, without any penalty or obligation if notice of cancellation is made through attendance of the first class session or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

- Rejection of Applicant: If an applicant is rejected for enrollment, or if a prospective international student has his/her visa application rejected, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
 - NOTE: NHI provides minimal visa assistance through issuing an I-20, thereby allowing the student to apply for a visa. Once the individual is an officially active student, NHI will vouch for both Active and then Completed status. NHI does not incur any associated charges regarding a student's visa.
- Program Cancellation: If an institution cancels a program subsequent to a student's enrollment, a full refund all monies paid will be made to the applicant

If any books and supplies were distributed to the student prior to cancellation, the student is responsible for the charges associated with those distributions. The student has the option to return any books and supplies, and receive full credit to their account, within 30 days following the date of cancellation.

NHI will refund any credit balance from payments made on a student's account within 45 days of cancellation.

If the student has received federal financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from student financial aid program funds.

- Rejection of Applicant: If an applicant is rejected for enrollment, or if a prospective international student has his/her visa application rejected, a full refund of all monies paid will be made to the applicant.
 - NOTE: NHI provides minimal visa assistance through issuing an I-20, thereby allowing the student to apply for a visa. - Program Cancellation: If an institution cancels a program subsequent to a student's enrollment, a full refund all monies paid will be made to the applicant

If any books and supplies were distributed to the student prior to cancellation, the student is responsible for the charges associated with those distributions. The student has the option to return any books and supplies, and receive full credit to their account, within 30 days following the date of cancellation.

NHI will refund any credit balance from payments made on a student's account within 45 days of cancellation.

If the student has received federal financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from student financial aid program funds.
