The student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first-class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

A notice of cancellation shall be in writing and can be sent by mail or email. A withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not necessarily limited to, a student's lack of attendance or violation of federal or state law.

California Culinary Arts Institute shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less $150.00 registration fee if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first-class session, or the seventh-class day after enrollment, whichever is later.

The refund policy for California Culinary Arts Institute students who have completed 60 percent or less of the periods of attendance shall be a pro rata refund. Students who have completed 60 percent or greater of the contracted period of enrollment as indicated on the student application, shall receive no refund of tuition or of institutional charges incurred.

If a student obtains a loan to pay for an educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund, and that, if the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of the moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

If the student defaults on a federal or state loan, both the following may occur:
(1) The federal or state government or a loan guarantee agency may take action against the student, including applying any income tax refund to which the person is entitled to reduce the balance owed on the loan.
(2) The student may not be eligible for any other federal student financial aid at another institution or other government financial assistance until the loan is repaid.
