STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

A student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or on the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later (refer to the Refund/Tuition Reimbursement Policy on page 7 for details); for any questions regarding a refund, contact a school official for details. If the school closes before you graduate or complete the course instruction, you may be entitled to a refund (refer to the Student Tuition Recovery Fund on pages 8-9 for details as well as for contact information); for any questions, contact a school official for details.

Any complaint lodged by a student, employee, or independent contractor must either be brought to the attention of an instructor or the clinical director verbally or they may prefer to fill out a complaint form found in the office of the clinical director. Any complaints brought to the attention of the director will not result in any reprisals or threats. It is presumed that anyone lodging a complaint is doing so in good faith. The school will take all the necessary steps to keep confidential both the identity of the person making the complaint as well as the complaint. Once the complaint has been lodged by someone, the clinical director will investigate the complaint. The clinical director has ten working days after receiving the complaint to find resolution of the complaint with the individual who filed the complaint. They will then be informed of the findings and any actions if any taken by American EMT Academy Training Program. If the complaint is rejected, the reason for the rejection will be provided in writing.

The student, employee, or independent contractor's participation in the complaint procedure and the disposition of the complaint will not waive or limit any of their rights or remedies.

If, however they feel the complaint has not been addressed to their satisfaction or they have questions that cannot be answered by the staff at American EMT Academy, and or a student has questions regarding this catalog that have not been satisfactorily answered by the institution may be directed to "The Office of Student Assistance and Relief is available to support prospective students, current students, or past students of private postsecondary educational institutions in making informed decisions, understanding their rights, and navigating available services and relief options.
