STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

Cancellation and Refund Policies

You have the right to cancel the enrollment agreement you sign for a course of instruction including any equipment, such as books, materials, and supplies, or any other goods and services included in the agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first-class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. Cancellation shall occur when you give written notice of cancellation at the address of the school shown on the top of the front page of the enrollment agreement. You can do this by mail, email, hand delivery, or by fax. The written notice of cancellation, if sent by mail, is effective when deposited in the mail properly addressed with prepaid postage. The written notice of cancellation need not take any form, and, however, expressed, it is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by your enrollment agreement. You will be given notice of cancellation form with this enrollment agreement and on the first day of class, but if you choose to cancel, you can use any written notice that you wish. If the school has given you any equipment, including books or other materials, you shall return it to the school within 30 days following the date of your notice of cancellation. If you fail to return this equipment, including books, or other materials, in good condition within the 30-days period, the school may deduct its documented cost for the equipment from any refund that may be due to you. Once you pay or the paying entity pays for the equipment, it is yours to keep it without further obligation. If you cancel the agreement, the school will refund any money that you or the paying entity paid within 45 days after the written notice is received, less any deduction for equipment, not timely returned in good condition, within 30 days after your notice of cancellation is received.

"PLEASE REMEMBER: Cancellations must be made in writing. You cannot cancel simply by calling the school or by failing to attend class."

Cancellation and Refund Policies

You have the right to cancel the enrollment agreement you sign for a course of instruction including any equipment, such as books, materials, and supplies, or any other goods and services included in the agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first-class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. Cancellation shall occur when you give written notice of cancellation at the address of the school shown on the top of the front page of the enrollment agreement. You can do this by mail, email, hand delivery, or by fax. The written notice of cancellation, if sent by mail, is effective when deposited in the mail properly addressed with prepaid postage. The written notice of cancellation need not take any form, and, however, expressed, it is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by your enrollment agreement. You will be given notice of cancellation form with this enrollment agreement and on the first day of class, but if you choose to cancel, you can use any written notice that you wish. If the school has given you any equipment, including books or other materials, you shall return it to the school within 30 days following the date of your notice of cancellation. If you fail to return this equipment, including books, or other materials, in good condition within the 30-days period, the school may deduct its documented cost for the equipment from any refund that may be due to you. Once you pay or the paying entity pays for the equipment, it is yours to keep it without further obligation. If you cancel the agreement, the school will refund any money that you or the paying entity paid within 45 days after the written notice is received, less any deduction for equipment, not timely returned in good condition, within 30 days after your notice of cancellation is received.

"PLEASE REMEMBER: Cancellations must be made in writing. You cannot cancel simply by calling the school or by failing to attend class."
