ADDRESS OF INSTRUCTIONAL LOCATION #5

IPS Nationwide or IPS is located at 1911 Carnegie Avenue Santa Ana, CA 92705.

Office: (323) 77-4JOBS Fax: (323) 774-3321

DESCRIPTION OF THE FACILITIES #11

The school is located on the first floor of a business office suite located in a commercial zone. The structure is of concrete tilt up design. CEO office, Administrative Office, Admissions Offices, Placement Services, and Receptionist area are located at this location. The facility is ADA compliant.

ADMISSION POLICIES #17, 21

The requirements are as follows:

- Proof of citizenship or legal status (INS card)
- Must be 18+ years old
- Have a valid photo identification
- Have no felony or severe misdemeanors
- Undergo a criminal background check through the Department of Justice (DOJ) and the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI)
- English Proficiency equivalent to the 10th Grade level
- Show a copy of high school diploma/GED or higher, or DD214 for veterans

Other helpful resources are available to help those who do not possess high school diplomas or GEDs: High School Equivalency Test (HiTest) or Test Assessing Secondary Completion (TASC) offered by California Department of Education.

ACADEMIC FREEDOM

The institute is committed to assuring academic freedom to all faculty members. Confident in the qualifications and expertise of its faculty members, the institute encourages its faculty to exercise their individual judgments regarding the content of the assigned courses, organization of topics, and instructional methods, providing only that these judgments are made within the context of the course descriptions as currently published, and providing that the instructional methods are those sanctioned by the institution.

ATTENDANCE POLICY #31, 32

The student must attend all classes in order to receive all certifications offered in this program. If any class is missed, the student must make it up the following session. The program hours necessitates full attendance from beginning to end in order to graduate. Students that arrive 15 minutes or more later or leave fifteen minutes or more they will be considered tardy. Three tardies equals one absence.

Instructors are required to submit attendance records after each class. If known in advance, the student is encouraged to disclose to the instructor the day he or she will be absent.

CANCELLATION AND WITHDRAWAL #25, 26

STUDENTS RIGHT TO CANCEL & REFUND POLICY

Student's notice of cancellation must be in writing, and that withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not limited to, a student's lack of attendance. IPS Nationwide shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh class day after enrollment, whichever is later. Refunds will be made within thirty (30) days of official withdrawal or thirty (30) days of determination of withdrawal if the student does not officially withdraw.

For purposes of determining a refund, a student shall be considered to have withdrawn from an educational program when he or she withdraws or is deemed withdrawn in accordance with the withdrawal policy stated in this institution's catalog.

You have the right to cancel your enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance of the first day of class or the seventh (7) calendar day of signing the enrollment agreement, whichever is later. YOU MUST CANCEL IN WRITING. Students do not have the right to cancel by telephoning the school or by not coming to class.

For official cancellations the cancellation date will be determined by the postmark on written notification at the following address: Attention: Student Services IPS Nationwide, 1911 Carnegie Avenue Santa Ana, CA 92705, or by the date said information is delivered to the school administrator/owner in person. Written cancellations need not take any particular form.

If an institution has collected money from a student for transmittal on the student's behalf to a third party for a bond, library usage, or fees for a license, application, or examination and the institution has not paid the money to the third party at the time of the student's withdrawal or cancellation, the institution shall refund the money to the student within 10 days of the student's withdrawal or cancellation.

If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.

Any monies due the student shall be refunded within 45 days of official cancellation or withdrawal.

REFUND POLICY #25 #26

The student shall receive a full refund of student paid fees prior to starting the program.

If an institution has collected money from a student for transmittal on the student's behalf to a third party for fees for a license, live scans, range fees, application, or examination and the institution has not paid the money to the third party at the time of the student's withdrawal or cancellation, the institution shall refund the money to the student within 45 days of the student's withdrawal or cancellation.

The amount of the refund owed to the student equals the total charges paid by the student, minus the daily or hourly tuition charge for the program (total institutional charge minus any nonrefundable charges, divided by the number of days or hours in the program), multiplied by the number of days or hours the student attended prior to withdrawal, and minus any nonrefundable charges. Any hours or days prior to the student's last day of attendance for which the student was scheduled to attend but was absent shall be included in the calculation of days or hours attended.

After the cancellation period, pro rata refunds are given to students who have completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance.

The notice to withdraw is considered effective, which shall be no later than the date received by the institution. The notice of withdrawal and cancellation should be sent to:

NOTICE CONCERNING TRANSFERABILITY OF CREDITS & CREDENTIALS EARNED #15

The transferability of credits you earn at IPS Nationwide is at the complete discretion of an institution to which you may seek to transfer. Acceptance of the certificates you earn in Security Training or Supply Chain Logistic is also at the complete discretion of the institution to which you may seek to transfer. If the certificate that you earn at this institution are not accepted at the institution to which you seek to transfer, you may be required to repeat some or all of your coursework at that institution. For this reason you should make certain that your attendance at this institution will meet your educational goals. This may include contacting an institution to which you may seek to transfer after attending IPS Nationwide to determine if your certificate will transfer.

IPS does not have an articulation agreement with any other institutions and that includes colleges, universities or any other training facilities. IPS does not accept transfer students from any outside school.

Credits earned from any other institution are not acceptable by IPS unless it is a continuation for the Guard Card levels as well as other additional courses.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES REGARDING EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING

#18

The Bureau of Security and Investigative Services does not allow any institution to provide credit for prior experience; unless it is a continuation for the Guard card levels. If the student currently holds a Guard Card from the 8hour training, he or she will still need to complete the required hours of training including the 40 hours. IPS does not give credit for previous educational training or professional experience.

ADMISSION OF STUDENTS FROM OTHER COUNTRIES #17

IPS is proud to welcome all students from all over the world. IPS does not provide I-20 forms for individuals seeking student visas or any type of visa services. Furthermore, it does not vouch student status.

ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE #19

All security training classes at IPS are taught in English. No English program is offered at this moment; therefore, the student is expected to have the necessary English proficiency level in order to be part of this training. Foreign students may show proof of language proficiency, such as a passing score on TOEFL of 450 on the paper test (Test of English as a Foreign Language). This test should be taken at a third party agency.

Language Assistance Policy

If a students primary language is not English the student may bring an interpreter, when signing the enrollment agreement to obtain a clear understanding of the terms and conditions of the enrollment agreement in the students primary language.

FINANCIAL AID, LOAN POLICIES AND OTHER DISCLOSURES #27, 29

IPS does not participate in federal and state financial aid programs. Any student enrolled in an unaccredited institution is not eligible for federal financial aid.

If a student obtains a loan to pay for an educational program, the student will have to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund, and that, if the student receives federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of the moneys not paid from federal financial aid funds.. #28, 29

IPS Nationwide is not accredited or recognized by the United States Department of Education. No accredited or unaccredited degree program is offered at IPS and that includes bachelors, masters, and doctoral degrees. IPS shall maintain records of the name, address, e-mail address, and telephone number of each student who is enrolled in the program.

STUDENT TUITION RECOVERY FUND (STRF) #24

The State of California established the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic loss suffered by a student in an educational program at a qualifying institution, who is or was a California resident while enrolled, or was enrolled in a residency program, if the student enrolled in the institution, prepaid tuition, and suffered an economic loss. Unless relieved of the obligation to do so, you must pay the state-imposed assessment for the STRF, or it must be paid on your behalf, if you are a student in an educational program, who is a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and prepay all or part of your tuition. You are not eligible for protection from the STRF and you are not required to pay the STRF assessment, if you are not a California resident, or are not enrolled in a residency program.”

“It is important that you keep copies of your enrollment agreement, financial aid documents, receipts, or any other information that documents the amount paid to the school. Questions regarding the STRF may be directed to the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education, 1747 N. Market Blvd. Ste 225, Sacramento, CA 95834, (916) 574-8900 or (888) 370-7589. To be eligible for STRF, you must be a California resident or are enrolled in a residency program, prepaid tuition, paid or deemed to have paid the STRF assessment, and suffered an economic loss as a result of any of the following:

1. The institution, a location of the institution, or an educational program offered by the institution was closed or discontinued, and you did not choose to participate in a teach-out plan approved by the Bureau or did not complete a chosen teach-out plan approved by the Bureau.
2. You were enrolled at an institution or a location of the institution within the 120-day period before the closure of the institution or location of the institution, or were enrolled in an educational program within the 120-day period before the program was discontinued.
3. You were enrolled at an institution or a location of the institution more than 120 days before the closure of the institution or location of the institution in an educational program offered by the institution as to which the Bureau determined there was a significant decline in the quality or value of the program more than 120 days before closure.
4. The institution has been ordered to pay a refund by the Bureau but has failed to do so.
5. The institution has failed to pay or reimburse loan proceeds under a federal student loan program as required by law or has failed to pay or reimburse proceeds received by the institution in excess of tuition and other costs.
6. You have been awarded restitution, a refund, or other monetary award by an arbitrator or court, based on a violation of this chapter by an institution or representative of an institution, but have been unable to collect the award from the institution.
7. You sought legal counsel that resulted in the cancellation of one or more of your student loans and have an invoice for services rendered and evidence of the cancellation of the student loan or loans.

To qualify for STRF reimbursement, the application must be received within four (4) years from the date of the action or event that made the student eligible for recovery from STRF. A student whose loan is revived by a loan holder or debt collector after a period of non-collection may, at any time, file a written application for recovery from STRF for the debt that would have otherwise been eligible for recovery. If it has been more than four (4) years since the action or event that made the student eligible, the student must have filed a written application for recovery within the original four (4) year period, unless the period has been extended by another act of law. However, no claim can be paid to any student without a social security number or a taxpayer identification number.” Reference: CEC §94909(a)(14), 5, CCR §76215(a), and §76215(b)
