- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

The latest day for the student to exercise a right to cancel is: _____

A student may cancel an Enrollment Agreement or withdraw from the University at any time. A student has the right to cancel the Enrollment Agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. If notice of cancellation is given through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, the student will obtain a full (100%) refund of all tuition paid less the application fee.

A student who withdraws after the first class session, or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, will be subject to a one-time per program non-refundable Registration Fee of $200, as well as prorated amounts of refundable fees, as appropriate. A student may withdraw from a course or program and receive a refund by providing a written notice to the Registrar via email to registrar@alu.edu. Any money due to the student will be refunded within 30 days.

The student shall have the right to cancel the agreement and receive a full refund pursuant to 5 CCR §71750 before the first lesson and materials are received. Cancellation is effective on the date written notice of cancellation is sent. The institution shall make the refund pursuant to §71750. If the institution sent the first lesson and materials before an effective cancellation notice was received, the institution shall make a refund within 45 days after the student's return of materials.

The student will receive a full refund for paid courses that were not started at the time of withdrawal. If the student received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial program funds. If you are a California resident, the amount of assessment for the Student Tuition Recovery Fund is nonrefundable and will not be returned to students who are California residents. The remaining tuition will be refunded on a pro-rata basis using the student's last day of attendance for students who have completed 60% or less of the period of attendance.

- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

The latest day for the student to exercise a right to cancel is: _____

A student may cancel an Enrollment Agreement or withdraw from the University at any time. A student has the right to cancel the Enrollment Agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. If notice of cancellation is given through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, the student will obtain a full (100%) refund of all tuition paid less the application fee.

A student who withdraws after the first class session, or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, will be subject to a one-time per program non-refundable Registration Fee of $200, as well as prorated amounts of refundable fees, as appropriate. A student may withdraw from a course or program and receive a refund by providing a written notice to the Registrar via email to registrar@alu.edu. Any money due to the student will be refunded within 30 days.

The student shall have the right to cancel the agreement and receive a full refund pursuant to 5 CCR §71750 before the first lesson and materials are received. Cancellation is effective on the date written notice of cancellation is sent. The institution shall make the refund pursuant to §71750. If the institution sent the first lesson and materials before an effective cancellation notice was received, the institution shall make a refund within 45 days after the student's return of materials.

The student will receive a full refund for paid courses that were not started at the time of withdrawal. If the student received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial program funds. If you are a California resident, the amount of assessment for the Student Tuition Recovery Fund is nonrefundable and will not be returned to students who are California residents. The remaining tuition will be refunded on a pro-rata basis using the student's last day of attendance for students who have completed 60% or less of the period of attendance.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

The latest day for the student to exercise a right to cancel is: _____

A student may cancel an Enrollment Agreement or withdraw from the University at any time. A student has the right to cancel the Enrollment Agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. If notice of cancellation is given through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, the student will obtain a full (100%) refund of all tuition paid less the application fee.

A student who withdraws after the first class session, or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, will be subject to a one-time per program non-refundable Registration Fee of $200, as well as prorated amounts of refundable fees, as appropriate. A student may withdraw from a course or program and receive a refund by providing a written notice to the Registrar via email to registrar@alu.edu. Any money due to the student will be refunded within 30 days.

The student shall have the right to cancel the agreement and receive a full refund pursuant to 5 CCR §71750 before the first lesson and materials are received. Cancellation is effective on the date written notice of cancellation is sent. The institution shall make the refund pursuant to §71750. If the institution sent the first lesson and materials before an effective cancellation notice was received, the institution shall make a refund within 45 days after the student's return of materials.

The student will receive a full refund for paid courses that were not started at the time of withdrawal. If the student received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial program funds. If you are a California resident, the amount of assessment for the Student Tuition Recovery Fund is nonrefundable and will not be returned to students who are California residents. The remaining tuition will be refunded on a pro-rata basis using the student's last day of attendance for students who have completed 60% or less of the period of attendance.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

The latest day for the student to exercise a right to cancel is: _____

A student may cancel an Enrollment Agreement or withdraw from the University at any time. A student has the right to cancel the Enrollment Agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. If notice of cancellation is given through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, the student will obtain a full (100%) refund of all tuition paid less the application fee.

A student who withdraws after the first class session, or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, will be subject to a one-time per program non-refundable Registration Fee of $200, as well as prorated amounts of refundable fees, as appropriate. A student may withdraw from a course or program and receive a refund by providing a written notice to the Registrar via email to registrar@alu.edu. Any money due to the student will be refunded within 30 days.

The student shall have the right to cancel the agreement and receive a full refund pursuant to 5 CCR §71750 before the first lesson and materials are received. Cancellation is effective on the date written notice of cancellation is sent. The institution shall make the refund pursuant to §71750. If the institution sent the first lesson and materials before an effective cancellation notice was received, the institution shall make a refund within 45 days after the student's return of materials.

The student will receive a full refund for paid courses that were not started at the time of withdrawal. If the student received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial program funds. If you are a California resident, the amount of assessment for the Student Tuition Recovery Fund is nonrefundable and will not be returned to students who are California residents. The remaining tuition will be refunded on a pro-rata basis using the student's last day of attendance for students who have completed 60% or less of the period of attendance.

A student may cancel an Enrollment Agreement or withdraw from the University at any time. A student has the right to cancel the Enrollment Agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. If notice of cancellation is given through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, the student will obtain a full (100%) refund of all tuition paid less the application fee.

A student who withdraws after the first class session, or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, will be subject to a one-time per program non-refundable Registration Fee of $200, as well as prorated amounts of refundable fees, as appropriate. A student may withdraw from a course or program and receive a refund by providing a written notice to the Registrar via email to registrar@alu.edu. Any money due to the student will be refunded within 30 days.

The student shall have the right to cancel the agreement and receive a full refund pursuant to 5 CCR §71750 before the first lesson and materials are received. Cancellation is effective on the date written notice of cancellation is sent. The institution shall make the refund pursuant to §71750. If the institution sent the first lesson and materials before an effective cancellation notice was received, the institution shall make a refund within 45 days after the student's return of materials.

The student will receive a full refund for paid courses that were not started at the time of withdrawal. If the student received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial program funds. If you are a California resident, the amount of assessment for the Student Tuition Recovery Fund is nonrefundable and will not be returned to students who are California residents. The remaining tuition will be refunded on a pro-rata basis using the student's last day of attendance for students who have completed 60% or less of the period of attendance.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

The latest day for the student to exercise a right to cancel is: _____

A student may cancel an Enrollment Agreement or withdraw from the University at any time. A student has the right to cancel the Enrollment Agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. If notice of cancellation is given through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, the student will obtain a full (100%) refund of all tuition paid less the application fee.

A student who withdraws after the first class session, or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, will be subject to a one-time per program non-refundable Registration Fee of $200, as well as prorated amounts of refundable fees, as appropriate. A student may withdraw from a course or program and receive a refund by providing a written notice to the Registrar via email to registrar@alu.edu. Any money due to the student will be refunded within 30 days.

The student shall have the right to cancel the agreement and receive a full refund pursuant to 5 CCR §71750 before the first lesson and materials are received. Cancellation is effective on the date written notice of cancellation is sent. The institution shall make the refund pursuant to §71750. If the institution sent the first lesson and materials before an effective cancellation notice was received, the institution shall make a refund within 45 days after the student's return of materials.

The student will receive a full refund for paid courses that were not started at the time of withdrawal. If the student received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial program funds. If you are a California resident, the amount of assessment for the Student Tuition Recovery Fund is nonrefundable and will not be returned to students who are California residents. The remaining tuition will be refunded on a pro-rata basis using the student's last day of attendance for students who have completed 60% or less of the period of attendance.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

The latest day for the student to exercise a right to cancel is: _____

A student may cancel an Enrollment Agreement or withdraw from the University at any time. A student has the right to cancel the Enrollment Agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. If notice of cancellation is given through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, the student will obtain a full (100%) refund of all tuition paid less the application fee.

A student who withdraws after the first class session, or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, will be subject to a one-time per program non-refundable Registration Fee of $200, as well as prorated amounts of refundable fees, as appropriate. A student may withdraw from a course or program and receive a refund by providing a written notice to the Registrar via email to registrar@alu.edu. Any money due to the student will be refunded within 30 days.

The student shall have the right to cancel the agreement and receive a full refund pursuant to 5 CCR §71750 before the first lesson and materials are received. Cancellation is effective on the date written notice of cancellation is sent. The institution shall make the refund pursuant to §71750. If the institution sent the first lesson and materials before an effective cancellation notice was received, the institution shall make a refund within 45 days after the student's return of materials.

The student will receive a full refund for paid courses that were not started at the time of withdrawal. If the student received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial program funds. If you are a California resident, the amount of assessment for the Student Tuition Recovery Fund is nonrefundable and will not be returned to students who are California residents. The remaining tuition will be refunded on a pro-rata basis using the student's last day of attendance for students who have completed 60% or less of the period of attendance.

- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

The latest day for the student to exercise a right to cancel is: _____

A student may cancel an Enrollment Agreement or withdraw from the University at any time. A student has the right to cancel the Enrollment Agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. If notice of cancellation is given through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, the student will obtain a full (100%) refund of all tuition paid less the application fee.

A student who withdraws after the first class session, or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, will be subject to a one-time per program non-refundable Registration Fee of $200, as well as prorated amounts of refundable fees, as appropriate. A student may withdraw from a course or program and receive a refund by providing a written notice to the Registrar via email to registrar@alu.edu. Any money due to the student will be refunded within 30 days.

The student shall have the right to cancel the agreement and receive a full refund pursuant to 5 CCR §71750 before the first lesson and materials are received. Cancellation is effective on the date written notice of cancellation is sent. The institution shall make the refund pursuant to §71750. If the institution sent the first lesson and materials before an effective cancellation notice was received, the institution shall make a refund within 45 days after the student's return of materials.

The student will receive a full refund for paid courses that were not started at the time of withdrawal. If the student received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial program funds. If you are a California resident, the amount of assessment for the Student Tuition Recovery Fund is nonrefundable and will not be returned to students who are California residents. The remaining tuition will be refunded on a pro-rata basis using the student's last day of attendance for students who have completed 60% or less of the period of attendance.
