- "Number Who Passed First Available Exam" is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- "Salary" is as reported by graduate or graduate's employer.
- "No Salary Information Reported" is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

Student's Right to Cancel

Student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of all tuition charges paid and all refundable fees paid, through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. Notice of cancellation shall be in writing. All requests to withdraw from any program must be submitted in writing to the attention of the Registrar's Office via email: (studentcancellation@calcoast.edu) or mail: 925 N. Spurgeon St., Santa Ana, CA 92701. This notification need not take any particular form; it needs only to state the student wishes to cancel this Agreement. The effective date of cancellation will be the date the request is received by the Institution. A withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not limited to, a student's lack of attendance. The University does not refund tuition for completed courses.

The institution shall refund unearned tuition charges if the student withdraws after seven days of enrollment, during a period of attendance. Students who have completed 60% or less of each provided course may be entitled to a pro rata refund. All amounts paid by the student in excess of what is owed shall be refunded within 30 days of receiving the cancellation request. Students who have completed 61% or more of a course, are not entitled to a refund for the course. A student who withdraws after the first class session, or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, the institution may retain the application fee and a portion of the registration fee, not to exceed $250.00. Refunds will be processed within 30 days upon receipt of written request.

Student's Right to Cancel

Student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of all tuition charges paid and all refundable fees paid, through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. Notice of cancellation shall be in writing. All requests to withdraw from any program must be submitted in writing to the attention of the Registrar's Office via email: (studentcancellation@calcoast.edu) or mail: 925 N. Spurgeon St., Santa Ana, CA 92701. This notification need not take any particular form; it needs only to state the student wishes to cancel this Agreement. The effective date of cancellation will be the date the request is received by the Institution. A withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not limited to, a student's lack of attendance. The University does not refund tuition for completed courses.

The institution shall refund unearned tuition charges if the student withdraws after seven days of enrollment, during a period of attendance. Students who have completed 60% or less of each provided course may be entitled to a pro rata refund. All amounts paid by the student in excess of what is owed shall be refunded within 30 days of receiving the cancellation request. Students who have completed 61% or more of a course, are not entitled to a refund for the course. A student who withdraws after the first class session, or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, the institution may retain the application fee and a portion of the registration fee, not to exceed $250.00. Refunds will be processed within 30 days upon receipt of written request.

- "Number Who Passed First Available Exam" is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- "Salary" is as reported by graduate or graduate's employer.
- "No Salary Information Reported" is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

Student's Right to Cancel

Student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of all tuition charges paid and all refundable fees paid, through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. Notice of cancellation shall be in writing. All requests to withdraw from any program must be submitted in writing to the attention of the Registrar's Office via email: (studentcancellation@calcoast.edu) or mail: 925 N. Spurgeon St., Santa Ana, CA 92701. This notification need not take any particular form; it needs only to state the student wishes to cancel this Agreement. The effective date of cancellation will be the date the request is received by the Institution. A withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not limited to, a student's lack of attendance. The University does not refund tuition for completed courses.

The institution shall refund unearned tuition charges if the student withdraws after seven days of enrollment, during a period of attendance. Students who have completed 60% or less of each provided course may be entitled to a pro rata refund. All amounts paid by the student in excess of what is owed shall be refunded within 30 days of receiving the cancellation request. Students who have completed 61% or more of a course, are not entitled to a refund for the course. A student who withdraws after the first class session, or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, the institution may retain the application fee and a portion of the registration fee, not to exceed $250.00. Refunds will be processed within 30 days upon receipt of written request.

- "Salary" is as reported by graduate or graduate's employer.
- "No Salary Information Reported" is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

Student's Right to Cancel

Student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of all tuition charges paid and all refundable fees paid, through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. Notice of cancellation shall be in writing. All requests to withdraw from any program must be submitted in writing to the attention of the Registrar's Office via email: (studentcancellation@calcoast.edu) or mail: 925 N. Spurgeon St., Santa Ana, CA 92701. This notification need not take any particular form; it needs only to state the student wishes to cancel this Agreement. The effective date of cancellation will be the date the request is received by the Institution. A withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not limited to, a student's lack of attendance. The University does not refund tuition for completed courses.

The institution shall refund unearned tuition charges if the student withdraws after seven days of enrollment, during a period of attendance. Students who have completed 60% or less of each provided course may be entitled to a pro rata refund. All amounts paid by the student in excess of what is owed shall be refunded within 30 days of receiving the cancellation request. Students who have completed 61% or more of a course, are not entitled to a refund for the course. A student who withdraws after the first class session, or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, the institution may retain the application fee and a portion of the registration fee, not to exceed $250.00. Refunds will be processed within 30 days upon receipt of written request.

- "Salary" is as reported by graduate or graduate's employer.
- "No Salary Information Reported" is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

Student's Right to Cancel

Student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of all tuition charges paid and all refundable fees paid, through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. Notice of cancellation shall be in writing. All requests to withdraw from any program must be submitted in writing to the attention of the Registrar's Office via email: (studentcancellation@calcoast.edu) or mail: 925 N. Spurgeon St., Santa Ana, CA 92701. This notification need not take any particular form; it needs only to state the student wishes to cancel this Agreement. The effective date of cancellation will be the date the request is received by the Institution. A withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not limited to, a student's lack of attendance. The University does not refund tuition for completed courses.

The institution shall refund unearned tuition charges if the student withdraws after seven days of enrollment, during a period of attendance. Students who have completed 60% or less of each provided course may be entitled to a pro rata refund. All amounts paid by the student in excess of what is owed shall be refunded within 30 days of receiving the cancellation request. Students who have completed 61% or more of a course, are not entitled to a refund for the course. A student who withdraws after the first class session, or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, the institution may retain the application fee and a portion of the registration fee, not to exceed $250.00. Refunds will be processed within 30 days upon receipt of written request.

- "Salary" is as reported by graduate or graduate's employer.
- "No Salary Information Reported" is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

Student's Right to Cancel

Student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of all tuition charges paid and all refundable fees paid, through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. Notice of cancellation shall be in writing. All requests to withdraw from any program must be submitted in writing to the attention of the Registrar's Office via email: (studentcancellation@calcoast.edu) or mail: 925 N. Spurgeon St., Santa Ana, CA 92701. This notification need not take any particular form; it needs only to state the student wishes to cancel this Agreement. The effective date of cancellation will be the date the request is received by the Institution. A withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not limited to, a student's lack of attendance. The University does not refund tuition for completed courses.

The institution shall refund unearned tuition charges if the student withdraws after seven days of enrollment, during a period of attendance. Students who have completed 60% or less of each provided course may be entitled to a pro rata refund. All amounts paid by the student in excess of what is owed shall be refunded within 30 days of receiving the cancellation request. Students who have completed 61% or more of a course, are not entitled to a refund for the course. A student who withdraws after the first class session, or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, the institution may retain the application fee and a portion of the registration fee, not to exceed $250.00. Refunds will be processed within 30 days upon receipt of written request.

- "Number Who Passed First Available Exam" is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- "Salary" is as reported by graduate or graduate's employer.
- "No Salary Information Reported" is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

Student's Right to Cancel

Student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of all tuition charges paid and all refundable fees paid, through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. Notice of cancellation shall be in writing. All requests to withdraw from any program must be submitted in writing to the attention of the Registrar's Office via email: (studentcancellation@calcoast.edu) or mail: 925 N. Spurgeon St., Santa Ana, CA 92701. This notification need not take any particular form; it needs only to state the student wishes to cancel this Agreement. The effective date of cancellation will be the date the request is received by the Institution. A withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not limited to, a student's lack of attendance. The University does not refund tuition for completed courses.

The institution shall refund unearned tuition charges if the student withdraws after seven days of enrollment, during a period of attendance. Students who have completed 60% or less of each provided course may be entitled to a pro rata refund. All amounts paid by the student in excess of what is owed shall be refunded within 30 days of receiving the cancellation request. Students who have completed 61% or more of a course, are not entitled to a refund for the course. A student who withdraws after the first class session, or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, the institution may retain the application fee and a portion of the registration fee, not to exceed $250.00. Refunds will be processed within 30 days upon receipt of written request.

- "Number Who Passed First Available Exam" is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- "Salary" is as reported by graduate or graduate's employer.
- "No Salary Information Reported" is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

Student's Right to Cancel

Student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of all tuition charges paid and all refundable fees paid, through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. Notice of cancellation shall be in writing. All requests to withdraw from any program must be submitted in writing to the attention of the Registrar's Office via email: (studentcancellation@calcoast.edu) or mail: 925 N. Spurgeon St., Santa Ana, CA 92701. This notification need not take any particular form; it needs only to state the student wishes to cancel this Agreement. The effective date of cancellation will be the date the request is received by the Institution. A withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not limited to, a student's lack of attendance. The University does not refund tuition for completed courses.

The institution shall refund unearned tuition charges if the student withdraws after seven days of enrollment, during a period of attendance. Students who have completed 60% or less of each provided course may be entitled to a pro rata refund. All amounts paid by the student in excess of what is owed shall be refunded within 30 days of receiving the cancellation request. Student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of all tuition charges paid and all refundable fees paid, through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. Notice of cancellation shall be in writing. All requests to withdraw from any program must be submitted in writing to the attention of the Registrar's Office via email: (studentcancellation@calcoast.edu) or mail: 925 N. Spurgeon St., Santa Ana, CA 92701. This notification need not take any particular form; it needs only to state the student wishes to cancel this Agreement. The effective date of cancellation will be the date the request is received by the Institution. A withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not limited to, a student's lack of attendance. The University does not refund tuition for completed courses.

The institution shall refund unearned tuition charges if the student withdraws after seven days of enrollment, during a period of attendance. Students who have completed 60% or less of each provided course may be entitled to a pro rata refund. All amounts paid by the student in excess of what is owed shall be refunded within 30 days of receiving the cancellation request. Students who have completed 61% or more of a course, are not entitled to a refund for the course. A student who withdraws after the first class session, or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, the institution may retain the application fee and a portion of the registration fee, not to exceed $250.00. Refunds will be processed within 30 days upon receipt of written request.

- "Graduates Employed in the Field" means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six month period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- "Placement Rate Employed in the Field" is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- "Number of Graduates Taking Exam" is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
- "First Available Exam Date" is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- "Passage Rate" is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- "Number Who Passed First Available Exam" is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- "Salary" is as reported by graduate or graduate's employer.
- "No Salary Information Reported" is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

Student's Right to Cancel

Student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of all tuition charges paid and all refundable fees paid, through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. Notice of cancellation shall be in writing. All requests to withdraw from any program must be submitted in writing to the attention of the Registrar's Office via email: (studentcancellation@calcoast.edu) or mail: 925 N. Spurgeon St., Santa Ana, CA 92701. This notification need not take any particular form; it needs only to state the student wishes to cancel this Agreement. The effective date of cancellation will be the date the request is received by the Institution. A withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not limited to, a student's lack of attendance. The University does not refund tuition for completed courses.

The institution shall refund unearned tuition charges if the student withdraws after seven days of enrollment, during a period of attendance. Students who have completed 60% or less of each provided course may be entitled to a pro rata refund. All amounts paid by the student in excess of what is owed shall be refunded within 30 days of receiving the cancellation request. Students who have completed 61% or more of a course, are not entitled to a refund for the course. A student who withdraws after the first class session, or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, the institution may retain the application fee and a portion of the registration fee, not to exceed $250.00. Refunds will be processed within 30 days upon receipt of written request.

Student's Right to Cancel

Student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of all tuition charges paid and all refundable fees paid, through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. Notice of cancellation shall be in writing. All requests to withdraw from any program must be submitted in writing to the attention of the Registrar's Office via email: (studentcancellation@calcoast.edu) or mail: 925 N. Spurgeon St., Santa Ana, CA 92701. This notification need not take any particular form; it needs only to state the student wishes to cancel this Agreement. The effective date of cancellation will be the date the request is received by the Institution. A withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not limited to, a student's lack of attendance. The University does not refund tuition for completed courses.

The institution shall refund unearned tuition charges if the student withdraws after seven days of enrollment, during a period of attendance. Students who have completed 60% or less of each provided course may be entitled to a pro rata refund. All amounts paid by the student in excess of what is owed shall be refunded within 30 days of receiving the cancellation request. Students who have completed 61% or more of a course, are not entitled to a refund for the course. A student who withdraws after the first class session, or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, the institution may retain the application fee and a portion of the registration fee, not to exceed $250.00. Refunds will be processed within 30 days upon receipt of written request.

- "Salary" is as reported by graduate or graduate's employer.
- "No Salary Information Reported" is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

Student's Right to Cancel

Student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of all tuition charges paid and all refundable fees paid, through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. Notice of cancellation shall be in writing. All requests to withdraw from any program must be submitted in writing to the attention of the Registrar's Office via email: (studentcancellation@calcoast.edu) or mail: 925 N. Spurgeon St., Santa Ana, CA 92701. This notification need not take any particular form; it needs only to state the student wishes to cancel this Agreement. The effective date of cancellation will be the date the request is received by the Institution. A withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not limited to, a student's lack of attendance. The University does not refund tuition for completed courses.

The institution shall refund unearned tuition charges if the student withdraws after seven days of enrollment, during a period of attendance. Students who have completed 60% or less of each provided course may be entitled to a pro rata refund. All amounts paid by the student in excess of what is owed shall be refunded within 30 days of receiving the cancellation request. Students who have completed 61% or more of a course, are not entitled to a refund for the course. A student who withdraws after the first class session, or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, the institution may retain the application fee and a portion of the registration fee, not to exceed $250.00. Refunds will be processed within 30 days upon receipt of written request.

- "Salary" is as reported by graduate or graduate's employer.
- "No Salary Information Reported" is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

Student's Right to Cancel

Student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of all tuition charges paid and all refundable fees paid, through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. Notice of cancellation shall be in writing. All requests to withdraw from any program must be submitted in writing to the attention of the Registrar's Office via email: (studentcancellation@calcoast.edu) or mail: 925 N. Spurgeon St., Santa Ana, CA 92701. This notification need not take any particular form; it needs only to state the student wishes to cancel this Agreement. The effective date of cancellation will be the date the request is received by the Institution. A withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not limited to, a student's lack of attendance. The University does not refund tuition for completed courses.

The institution shall refund unearned tuition charges if the student withdraws after seven days of enrollment, during a period of attendance. Students who have completed 60% or less of each provided course may be entitled to a pro rata refund. All amounts paid by the student in excess of what is owed shall be refunded within 30 days of receiving the cancellation request. Students who have completed 61% or more of a course, are not entitled to a refund for the course. A student who withdraws after the first class session, or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, the institution may retain the application fee and a portion of the registration fee, not to exceed $250.00. Refunds will be processed within 30 days upon receipt of written request.

- "Passage Rate" is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- "Number Who Passed First Available Exam" is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- "Salary" is as reported by graduate or graduate's employer.
- "No Salary Information Reported" is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

Student's Right to Cancel

Student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of all tuition charges paid and all refundable fees paid, through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. Notice of cancellation shall be in writing. All requests to withdraw from any program must be submitted in writing to the attention of the Registrar's Office via email: (studentcancellation@calcoast.edu) or mail: 925 N. Spurgeon St., Santa Ana, CA 92701. This notification need not take any particular form; it needs only to state the student wishes to cancel this Agreement. The effective date of cancellation will be the date the request is received by the Institution. A withdrawal may be effectuated by the student's written notice or by the student's conduct, including, but not limited to, a student's lack of attendance. The University does not refund tuition for completed courses.

The institution shall refund unearned tuition charges if the student withdraws after seven days of enrollment, during a period of attendance. Students who have completed 60% or less of each provided course may be entitled to a pro rata refund. All amounts paid by the student in excess of what is owed shall be refunded within 30 days of receiving the cancellation request. Students who have completed 61% or more of a course, are not entitled to a refund for the course. A student who withdraws after the first class session, or seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, the institution may retain the application fee and a portion of the registration fee, not to exceed $250.00. Refunds will be processed within 30 days upon receipt of written request.
