STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL: (1) the student has the right to cancel and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. (2) If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds. (3) The institution, for all students, without penalty or obligation, shall refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100).

If the student obtains a loan to pay for an educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund. If the student defaults on a federal or state loan, both the following may occur: (1) The federal or state government or a loan guarantee agency may take action against the student, including applying any income tax refund to which the person is entitled to reduce the balance owed on the loan. (2) The student may not be eligible for any other federal student financial aid at another institution or other government financial assistance until the loan is repaid.

Cancellation shall occur when you give notice at the address of Grace University shown on the top of this agreement. You can do this by mail, hand delivery, or telegram. The written notice of cancellation, if sent by mail, is effective when deposited in the mail properly addressed with postage prepaid. The written notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that you are no longer wish to be bound by this agreement.
